
LAMB AND DOVE

Gracious Lord, we are thankful to come before You again, tonight, with thanksgiving in our hearts, for what we know that Thou hast done, and for faith to believe that You will continue to do for us the exceeding, abundantly. I thank You for what anchored in my heart in that emergency room just now, upon those poor, sick, and dying people. I believe You stopped death just a few moments ago, Lord. I am happy for that.

² God, I pray that You will stop death and sickness over this building tonight, everywhere, may there not be a feeble one in our midst at the end of the service. Give us victory, Father. Bless Your people, everywhere. Bless the ministers, your shepherds of the flock. We pray that You will encourage their hearts greatly, go forward, Lord, preaching the full manifestation of the Spirit. Grant it, Lord. Bless every church and every person, get glory unto Thyself.

⁴ And we're not Saint Paul, but You're still Jesus, and—and I pray, Father, that as the people had faith to do this, give us faith to believe that their request will be answered. May every disease that these handkerchiefs represent, may it flee from the person as soon as the handkerchiefs is placed on them. Save the lost tonight, Father, heal the sick, get glory unto Thyself, for we ask it, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

⁵ You may be seated. We are very happy, indeed, to be back in the building tonight with our brethren, and with you people here for the Kingdom of God's sake. Trusting, tonight, that we'll have a great victory tonight, I feel that we will, somehow. And I . . . We had a wonderful time last evening. Power of the Holy Spirit, oh, I, just simply rejoice all . . . couldn't hardly sleep after I got home, just to think of the Presence of the Lord just beating out the enemy, bringing in the victory. And seeing the people go into seeking the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and great things taking place, the glory of God upon the people, that's encouraging to me.

⁶ You know, I used to pastor the First Baptist Church at Milltown, Indiana. I stayed with some people out in the country when I would be down there for my, usually was kind of a circuit-like, and I'd hold a revival, I used to stay with some people named Wright.

7 And I was always amazed, I don't know where you have them here or not, the nightingale or mocking bird, and our country is full of them. I thought they followed me all over the United States, everywhere I go, they follow. I go out to cut my grass in the yard, why, turn my radio on, that's the nightingales, and mockingbirds, and all the birds singing, I—I think that's God's radio, the best I ever heard in my life, is to hear the birds.

8 And most boys throw rocks at birds, but I imagine these two setting here on the front seat wouldn't throw rocks at birds. I can just . . . No, sir. And be sure not to throw rocks at my little robins, you see, yeah, robin is my bird. Did you ever see him with the red breast? You know how that got red? I'll tell you, so you won't throw no rocks at him.

9 One day, there was a Man dying on a cross, everybody had left Him, His hands was nailed in the cross, the briny tears and the Blood running from His face, spitting down over his body, and He was nailed there. And a little bird, a little brown bird felt so sorry for Him, he kept flying in to His hands and trying to pull the nails out, flying in to His feet and trying to pull the nails out. You know what happened? He got his little breast all red with Blood, and since then he's had a red breast. You don't want to throw no rocks at him, do you? No, no.

10 And I just hope that when I go to meet Him, too, that my covering will be Blood over the breast too, trying to pull the nails out. I think we all feel that way, don't we? It was my sins that put Him there, wish that I had some way I could take it off, but He had to die for me.

11 These ol' nightingales used to set out down there, and sing at nighttime, and, as I would come in. I studied the nightingale, I like to study nature, as you know I love nature, and I was studying on the nightingale. Sometimes on a real stormy night he'll set out there and he'll just keep looking up, and as soon as he can see the black clouds go by, if he can get his eye on one little star he'll start singing, because he knows the sun is shining somewhere, it's reflecting the sun, the star, the moon, so forth.

12 So as long as I can see a good meeting like last night, I can just keep on singing, 'cause I know the Son is shining somewhere, to see It reflecting back to the earth, the glory of God.

13 Now, you that's got your Bibles and would like to read with me, let's turn to Saint John the 1st chapter.

14 And now, tomorrow night, I hope that every Christian brings a sinner friend with them tomorrow night. If the Lord is willing, I trust that tomorrow night will be the night that the Spirit will grant the things that I been praying for so hard since I've been in the meeting.

15 And then, Sunday afternoon, we are—are closing of this campaign, and I'll say that it's been a great time for me, a wonderful time, I certainly enjoyed this stay, that I've waited so long to come to Yakima. And if you don't have no church to go to, your church isn't having service Sunday afternoon, be sure to attend with us, and we would be glad to have you to pray with us, and help us along. Your presence means a whole lot to us, and—and then you'll be here to pray, and to help us with others.

16 Each night, we try to pray for the sick. If it's not too many I can stand up in the line, too, especially on those visions and I'm sure believers understand. This is just about the last round, if I would get back again sometime to Yakima, I won't be praying for the sick like that, it'll be beyond that. See? It's just about the last round of it, I can feel it as it's begin moving out, it's been completely around the world, three or four times now. So it's a . . . won't be long till that ministry will be leaving, and it'll be a new one which will be far beyond this.

17 And as I was here the first time, It told you this one was coming, (How many is in the building, heard me announce that way back in the early days? Raise up your hands, wherever you are. Sure. See?), way back that this one would come, did it come? Just exactly the way He said it would do. Now, there's another one coming which will be far beyond this one, and it'll be great, I'm sure. Wish that I knowed what it was, but I don't, just I know it's coming.

18 Saint John the 1st chapter, and let's begin at the 29th verse to read just a portion for a, to draw a text from:

The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and said, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

This is he . . . whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

19 On these symbols, tonight, I would like to take a subject of Lamb And Dove.

20 You know, a sheep is a very sensitive and odd animal. And, you know, a sheep never was asked to manufacture wool, he was asked to bear wool, because he is a sheep. And as long as he is a sheep he will bear wool, because that's his nature. And so is it with the Christian Church, we were never asked to manufacture fruits, we were asked to bear fruits.

²¹ Galatians 5 said, “The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, faith, peace, longsuffering, meekness, gentleness, patience.” These are not to be manufactured, they’re to be products that comes from the inside out. The outside life that we live, proves what’s on the inside.

²² Now, we have tried to manufacture this, to manufacture the fruits of the Spirit, and we always turn out hypocrisy, because you cannot manufacture Christianity, it’s an experience by a Spirit that lives in you, and bears fruit of Itself, you cannot manufacture it. We have tried to educate it, and denominate it, and when we do we turn out hypocrisy and failure. It’s not to be done that way, it’s to be done as God intended to be—be done, the Spirit inside of us bearing fruits of Its Presence. That’s God’s program, it can never be changed.

²⁴ Now, if you’ll notice, of all the creatures that roam the earth there is nothing as meek and gentle as a lamb, there is nothing so innocent as a lamb, meek, gentle. And of the dove, there is no fowl that flies the air of the heavens, as meek and as gentle as the dove. It’s the most sensitive bird of all the birds; and the lamb is the most sensitive of all the animals.

²⁵ Therefore, if you’ll notice, the lamb and the dove has spirits alike and natures alike. If it would not been that way, if there would have been a crow flew down on the lamb, the lamb could have not have stood that. And if the—the dove would have flew down on a wolf, the dove could not have stood it, their natures wasn’t the same. So it had to be a lamb and a wolf, or, a lamb and a dove symbolized together, God and His Son, so that they could live together.

27 And we will never find our way back through any other way but through the Shepherd. The human race lost, it needs to be shepherded back. We cannot find our way back through educational programs, we cannot find our way back through science, we cannot find our way back through religions, there's only one way back, and that's by the Shepherd.

28 The dove, he is a very unusual bird, a dove is the only bird that we know of that doesn't have a gall. A dove has no gall at all, all the other birds have gall, but he has no gall, so in the dove is no bitterness. And in God is no bitterness, or in the one that the Dove lives in and leads, there's no bitterness. Now, the dove, the reason he's made like that, it's because of his diet. Now, he could not eat the things that a vulture eats, because it would kill him right away.

29 And another thing I'd like to speak about the dove, right here, is that a dove is one of the most cleanest birds there is that flies the heavens. There's nothing as clean as a dove, and he doesn't have to watch about it, his body puts out a oil that goes to his feathers and constantly keeps him clean.

30 Oh, what a symbol, that the believer has got a Oil of the Spirit that lives in him, keeps his feathers clean! The dust and things doesn't bother a dove, his little body is oily, and it keeps the dust and things away, it just constantly flows. And as he flies the dust flies away from him, it cannot stick on him, because this certain oil comes from him for that purpose, and dirt cannot stick on him. What a symbol!

31 O God fill my lamp tonight, with that kind of Oil, that the world and all of its pleasures, and its riches, and its great glamour will not stick to us, that we'll be able to throw it off through a Oil that comes from the inside, working out to keep the Church clean.

32 As the old song used to go, "Give me Oil in my lamp, keep me shining." God puts Holy Oil inside. Oil in the Bible represents the Spirit keeping the Church clean.

33 And yet, a dove is a fowl, he's a, just a bird, and the dove is represented in the Bible all the way from Genesis to Revelation. I've studied the bird very much. In our country and most all of the states in the Union he's a sacred bird. We're not allowed to hunt him, but in some states they are allowed to hunt him; I could never shoot one. But he's a sacred bird in our state, they would give you a hundred-dollars fine just as soon as you kill one, he's a sacred bird.

34 Now, in the ark the dove and the crow set on the same roost, both of them were birds, one could fly where the other one flew, one could do just anything the other one could do, but when they were turned loose to take their choice, they turned the dove loose first, and the little fellow flew about, and the Bible said, "She could find no rest for the soles of her feet." Every time she could find something to set on, it was a dead carcass, an ol' dead something of the world, and she could not light on that. Why, it was against her nature.

³⁷ Yes, but when they turned the crow loose, oh, he was just as happy as he could be, flying from one dead carcass to the other and eating his stomach full; that's the way crows do. And a crow is a hypocrite. I'm glad you got open season on him everywhere. And he is an awful fellow, long lived, but he can set down on an ol' dead carcass, and eat just as much as he wants to, and fly right out in the field and eat wheat with the dove. But the dove eating wheat cannot fly back and eat with him.

³⁸ So, a hypocrite can go to church, and shout, and carry on, and put their name on the book, go out and enjoy card games, drinking, smoking, dancing, rock-and-roll, and all those things, and come back to church and eat Food from the church.

³⁹ I wondered about that one time, I saw a vision, it was made manifest how that the . . . A man went forth sowing wheat, when he slept, why, then a enemy come forth, and sowed tares, which is Scriptural. And when the wheat come up, and the, got ripe, the weeds was up also, the tares.

⁴⁰ And when there come a drought, and when the drought come everybody was praying for rain, and a great, black cloud come and rained down. And the little wheat had his head down like this, it brought its little head up and begin to say, "Oh, glory to God! Praise be to the Lord for sending the rain!"

And the little weed jumped up just as same as the wheat did, and said, "Glory to God, hallelujah, for sending the rain!"

41 I said, "Now, I don't know what to think." Then I see then again that the rain falls on the just and the unjust. The rain was sent for the wheat, but the tares being in there got the benefit of it, the same rain, but, "By their fruit you shall know them," said Jesus.

42 It isn't how much we join church, and how loyal we are to this, that, or the other, it's the fruit of the Spirit that counts, that tells the man or the woman what they are, Something inside of them, not manufacturing, but they're bearing It, the Life that was in Christ is in you, shows Itself. Jesus said, "These signs will follow them that are, that believe." Something not manufactured, educated to theologies, but a Spirit of the Holy Ghost in the human heart, bearing the fruits and the evidence of His resurrection and His living power.

43 Oh yes, the dove is a sweet bird. I've had lot of dealings with them. One time, when I went to pray for Florence Nightingale, her great grandmother founded the Red Cross, and you got her picture here in the book called Prophet Visits Africa, by Julius Stadskev.

44 And when I went into London, the plane stopped and I heard them paging me in the . . . They had all the escort out there, and someone said, "There's a lady dying over here, in a plane, just been brought in from South Africa."

45 Well, I—I couldn't go over there, I couldn't get through the crowd. And I had someone to go over, and say we would take her to some other place as soon as I had went and done my duties for being there, pray, to pray for the king, and so forth. I come back to the Piccadilly Hotel, and then they could meet me there.

46 And when I went to the room, to this woman, she had wrote me a letter, Miss Florence Nightingale, and wanted me to come pray for her, I couldn't do it. She only weighed about sixty pounds.

47 And if you'll notice the picture, we had to put something across it this way to get the picture, Brother Lindsay did that, because it was just a small string of a clout over her. Her limbs were just about that big around, up around the hip, the veins had collapsed. How the woman was living, I do not know.

48 I went into the room, and she was in a parish just behind the church, and she had had two nurses, and I said, "Are you Miss Nightingale?" And I looked and her jaws had sunk in, her cheekbones out, and that kind of like the square part of the skull, where it laces together was showing, no flesh at all.

49 And she started to cry, I wondered where there could even be enough moisture that she could cry. She took glucose, and all of her bowels was wound up with cancer in her stomach. How the woman was living, I don't know. I couldn't understand a thing, she was moving her lips, and the nurse got down to see what she said, and she said, "Have Brother Branham to pray to God to let me die."

⁵⁰ Oh, I tried to get a hold of her hand, and the nurse picked up her arm, and laid that dead form of bones and sinew in my hands, cold as it could be, and the knuckles and joints just holding together. What a feeling of a human being laying like that!

⁵¹ I could not pray for her to die when I was there praying for the sick to get well. So I asked the ministers, there was seven or eight in the room, and I said, "Let us kneel down."

⁵² And in England, if anyone has ever been there, when the fog comes in, you just can't see nothing, that was a very foggy day, the cab had to just go right along just easy as he could to get through the fog. And there had been a great wave of it come in, we were near the coast, and it was so foggy I could just see there was a tree standing by the window.

⁵³ When I knelt down by the side of the window, the sill was about that far up, even with my face, and I started to pray. And as I started to pray, "Almighty God, the Author of everlasting Life, the Giver of all good gifts. Send upon this poor, dying creature, here, Thy blessings."

⁵⁴ Just as I started to pray, a little dove flew in from somewhere, set down on this sill, begin walking back and forth, cooing, just about one foot from where my face was, praying. And I thought it was a pet there at the house, I had just been in England about four or five hours, and I thought, maybe, it was just a pet at the house. And it walked to and fro, up and down this little sill. And then when I finally prayed and said, "Amen," and raised up, the little dove flew away.

And I was going to say, "Was that a pet dove?"

And the ministers was talking about, "What was that dove doing there?"

Well, I said, "Is it a pet dove?"

And they said, "No." They had never seen it before.

⁵⁵ And I turned around to look at the woman, there standing before me stood a strong, healthy woman, I said, "THUS SAITH THE LORD: You'll live and not die."

⁵⁶ Turn the next page in the book and look at her a year later, she's nursing now in England, strong, healthy. God in the form of a dove setting at the window, sent His messenger.

⁵⁷ You know my story, my little girl, my wife when they died. Every evening I would go out there a for long time at the grave, and set up there, and, oh, I just couldn't give them up, hardly, I was just a boy, and all my family gone, just Billy and I left. And I didn't . . . I would go out there and set at the grave, and every afternoon, just as sure as it got around about five o'clock, here would come an ol' turtledove, flying through the brush, set up in one of them ol' cedar trees out there, and just coo and sing. I would raise up my hands, and praise the Lord, it sound like the wind coming down through them bushes, and sing:

There's a Land beyond the river,
That they call the sweet forever,
And we only reach that Shore by faith's decree;
One by one we gain the portals,
There to dwell with the immortals.
Someday they'll ring those golden bells for you and me.

58 The little dove cooing, I first thought it must be the immortal soul of—of my little girl, but if it had been her she would come talk to me. But the dove, God represented Himself in being a dove.

59 Now the lamb, now, the dove puts out a oil to keep hisself clean, and the lamb has lanolin to keep the weather off of him. And we are likened unto God's lambs.

60 I want you to notice what kind of a Lamb this was. This Lamb, a lamb has to be led, and this precious Lamb that we're thinking about, He was led, "Not My will, Thine be done," led to the slaughter.

Sometimes they. . . Someone said, "Why was Jesus led to the Calvary?"

61 You know the Bible said they led Him away, put a rope around His neck and led Him away. Why? He was the Lamb of God. Why was He borned in a manger? Because He was a Lamb, He had to be borned in the barn, He was a Lamb, borned a Lamb, and led to the slaughter.

62 Did you ever go around a slaughter pen? When they go to slaughter sheep what leads them up to the slaughter block? A goat. They have a goat there that'll lead these sheep till it gets right up there to a certain place, and he'll jump off and let the sheep go on in. That's what always been, that's what led Him to His slaughter, the goat. And the . . .

63 Well, if you ever come time, the slaughterers has told me, the butchers that butchered them said if they had to kill the goat, then he really kicked up a fuss. But he wants to lead the sheep, always, to the slaughter. That's the way the devil does it, he's always trying to lead God's people to the slaughter, to the roadhouse, the nightclub, somewhere.

64 Want you to notice, not only that, but He was a willing Lamb, a willing Lamb. A lamb only has one thing, and that's his fur, his wool on him, but he—he's a willing lamb, all that he's got he's willing to forfeit that. He forfeits his wool, that's the only thing that he has, but yet, for your sake and my sake, he forfeits what he's got.

⁶⁵ Now, if we call ourselves, lambs, lambs of God, we're willing to forfeit our ideas to follow God, we are willing to. But, oh, we Americans can't be led, no. "Uh, sir, we went away to school, and we learned how to lead, we can't be led. We learned our Ph.D., and double L.D., and so forth, and we know all about it, and we know how to lead, so the Dove can't lead us."

⁶⁶ When we've got that kind of an attitude, why, we can't be led, we got to lead the people. But God has got one Leader from His . . . for His Church, and that's the Dove, the Holy Spirit, is the Leader of God's people, the Leader. But when we get to know so much, we know so much theology then the lamb can't lead us, because it's against our ideas, and we just won't put up with it, you've got to forfeit your idea.

⁶⁸ How is God going to lead you then, you believe such a thing as that? How is God going to heal you, when you think the days of miracle is past? He just can't do it.

⁶⁹ So then we go along and say, "Well, yep, we got churches, and we got great organizations, and denominations," but all having a form of godliness, but denying the Dove thereof, the Dove that does the leading. We have our religions, and we have our ideas, and we don't want nothing mixed up with it, they say, "I don't care what the Bible says." I've had people tell me that many times.

⁷⁰ A fellow, not long ago, stood and told me, said, "I don't care how many healings you would produce, I still do not believe it."

⁷¹ I said, "Certainly, it wasn't for unbelievers, it was for believers." That's the only one it's for, it's for them that believe it, it never was intended for unbelievers. And God can only lead a man, as he'll let Him lead, God can only work with anyone that'll let Him work with him. I always felt sorry for God trying to find somebody He could lead and work through.

⁷² I was, not long ago, reading of Samson, and how that that man, he was something like a lot of today, a ladies' man, and God could never use him. Why, he was willing to submit his strength to the Lord, but never willing to give his heart to the Lord. Now, he had a great strength.

⁷³ And many churches today, will lend their strength to the Lord, "Oh, sure, we'll build an organization that will put a million in, and do all this, that, and the other,” but they’re never willing to surrender your heart for Divine leadership of the Holy Spirit to lead us to the fountains of waters of Life, we’re never willing to do it.

⁷⁴ Seems like it’s the hardest thing for people to get in their head that the Holy Spirit leads. “Sons and daughters of God are led by the Spirit of God,” not bishops, and cardinals, and so forth, “by the Spirit of God,” that was God’s idea. If you’re a lamb, you’re led by the Spirit of God.

⁷⁵ But I wonder sometime, in the face of all this, if God could lead us. I wonder if we haven’t turned out to be goats instead of sheep. The Dove couldn’t lead a goat, he wouldn’t lead, no, no, he wants to lead, the goat will lead, but you can’t lead him. And I may tell you something, brother, you’ll certainly have to be a very smart shepherd if you can hear the bleating of a goat and the bleating of a sheep and tell them apart, they both sound almost the same.

⁷⁶ And the Bible said that the devil in the last days here, would be so shrewd that it would deceive the very elected, if it was possible. How shrewd Satan will come in! Just watch what’s fixing to take place now in the last days, watch these elections and things coming up, watch how Satan will pull that, try to pull that wool, he tried it once before and failed. He’ll try until he succeeds in doing it, he’ll do it. Yes, sir, he’ll do it.

⁷⁷ And remember, I predicted that in 1933, and it will be that way, too, for I saw a vision before the end time, that great, powerful thing stood up in the United States and she become as stubbles, so then, it’s going to happen. I said, “Automobiles will become like the shape of an egg.” You know what a ’33 car looked like. And I said, “There’ll even be traveling on the road, they won’t even have to guide it.”

⁷⁹ Now, we find in our churches, today, things that goes on. Now, it used to be a long time. . . Now, don’t get angry with me now, I want to show you. Now, we’re talking about out in denominations, now we’re going to come home to Pentecost just a little bit. We’re going to wonder what’s happened in our Pentecostal people.

⁸⁰ You know, it used to be a horrible thing for our women to cut their hair, it used to be awful. I can remember that, I’ve only been with them just a few years. But now it's all right, they cut their hair. And the Bible said that the hair on a woman was for her glory. And the Bible said that if a woman cuts her hair, she dishonors her head, which is her husband. And if she cuts her hair, her husband then has a right to put away that dishonorable woman. That's Paul's teachings in Corinthians, you can argue it with him. Now, I know that hurts.

⁸¹ Mama used to take us, and she used to tell me, she . . . every Saturday night we would have to, an old cedar tub we would take a bath in. And I was the oldest one, and the eight got a bath in that same tub before me, and they just put a little more hot water in it. And then every Saturday night, way we had to eat, we had to take a dose of castor oil; I can't stand it, yet today. And I'd come to her just gagging, holding my nose, and I said, "Mom, I can't stand the stuff!"

She said, "If it doesn't make you right sick, it don't do you any good."

⁸² That's the way preaching the Gospel, if it doesn't sicken you up a little bit, do something to you, doesn't do you much good. But that's the truth. A lot of our Pentecostal women has got so that they're wearing these little bitty ol' clothes to mow the yard, and things in, Pentecostal women letting their young girls out, doing that.

⁸³ They talk about juvenile delinquency, it's parent delinquency, that's what's the matter. Then talk about the illiteracy of Kentucky, some of them ol' mammys out there, let their daughter come in the way some of the women do, five o'clock in the morning, and messed up over their face, and their hair bulled out like that, she would take a limb off a hickory tree, and she would take the rest of the clothes off her and the hide with it, then call that illiteracy. God knows we need some more mammys like that. That's exactly right.

⁸⁴ And our women got to a place, smoking cigarettes.

You say, "Well, now, wait a minute, preacher! That's my American privilege."

I know, but if you're a lamb, you'll forfeit it.

"Why, I belong to Certain-such a church."

All right, if you're a lamb you'll forfeit your privileges.

"Why, I see all the other . . ."

Yeah, that's right, but you're different, if you're a Christian you got to be different.

Some lady said, "I don't wear shorts, I wear slacks."

I said, "That's worse." Right. The Bible said it's an abomination for a woman to put on a garment that pertains to a man.

85 I spoke that in one of the meetings on this, and a woman wrote me a big, long letter, she said, “Now, wait,” said, “you’re getting off onto man-made doctrine.” Said, “What’s a woman going to do when she’s out riding a horse in a mosquito infested area, rounding up cattle?”

86 I just told her back, I said, “That’s not a woman’s job. If she would keep her place, she wouldn’t have to be out there.” That’s exactly right. Um-hum. That’s exactly. Trouble of it is now . . . I love our sisters, and that’s right, I think they’re fine, but they ought to know their places.

87 And, you know, I remember when it used to be a horrible thing for our Pentecostal women to put on this manicure, you know, on their faces. I got that wrong, I always get that wrong. What . . . ? [A brother says, “Make-up.”—Ed.] Make-up, make-up. Manicure is the fingernails. Is that right? I don’t know nothing about that stuff. But make-up, it used to be wrong for a woman to put on painted make-ups, but now they do it.

88 You know, an old Methodist minister used to sing a song,

We let down the bars, we let down the bars,
We compromised with sin.
We let down the bars, the sheep got out,
But how did the goats get in?

89 You just let down the bars. Many times, not these brethren, but many times, preachers think more of a meal ticket, than they do the Gospel. Evangelist go across . . . Be a shame . . .

90 Now, a evangelist told me, a noted evangelist the other day, said, “You’re going to hurt your ministry.”

I said, “Anything that’ll hurt . . . If my ministry is hurt by preaching the truth, it ought to be hurt.” That’s right.

He said, “You’ll make the people angry and they won’t give you nothing.”

I said, “I didn’t ask them for anything.” I said, “The thing of it is, that at the Day of the Judgment, that’s where I’m going to have to answer.”

91 Listen sister, there was only one woman in the Bible ever painted her face, and she didn’t paint it to meet God, she painted it to meet men, and her name was Jezebel. That’s right. You know what God did for her? He fed her to the dogs. So you see a woman all painted up, you can say, “Howdy do, Miss Dog Meat?” That’s just exactly what she is before the Lord. That’s exactly.

“Well,” you say, “other women does it.”

92 But if you’re a lamb, forfeit your rights! God wants you to live like a woman ought to live, like a lady ought to live. It’s getting so . . .

⁹³ Time of the war, I went up, I was a game warden, I was going up the forestry, and there was, set down back there was some man, he was a welder. And I would . . . Just the dirtiest jokes I ever heard, I—I was even embarrassed to set there with a bunch of man. And so, this fellow looked around to me, and he said, “Cold out there?”

And I said, “Yes, it is.”

Said, “Are you a game warden.”

⁹⁴ I said, “Yes sir, I am.” And come to find out, setting there beside, it was a woman welder, overalls on, greasy, a big pair of goggles on the top, rough, drink like a man, smoke like a man, cuss like a man. God don’t intend that to be that way. God wants a woman . . .

⁹⁵ When God made a man first, He made him both male and female in spirit; He made him in His Own image, and God is a Spirit. When He separated him and put him in flesh, He put the masculine spirit in a man, and the feminish spirit in a woman, and if anything is contrary to that, there is a bit of perversion there. Exactly.

⁹⁶ You see a woman trying to act like a man, there is a little something wrong there, the cell is crossed up somewhere. That’s right. You see a man so sissified that he won’t preach against sin or nothing else like that, to hurt somebody’s feeling, there is a cross-up there somewhere, too, not only his natural birth, but spiritual birth. Oh, what we need today is that a man be a man, a woman, a lady. God intend them be that way, dress different.

Say, “You’re hammering us women.”

⁹⁷ Now I’m going to tell you about the men. Any man that’ll let his wife smoke cigarettes, and wear them shorts, and act like that, there’s very little man in him, to my opinion. That’s right. I’ve got my opinion of a man that will let his wife do that, I—I sure have.

“Well, what’s the matter?” you say.

⁹⁸ Well, brother, here’s what it is: Man is not measured by strength this way.

“Oh,” say, “that guy’s a man, he’s six foot tall, got muscles that big.”

⁹⁹ I’ve seen a many of them weigh two hundred pounds, six foot and half tall, didn’t have an ounce of man in them, throw a baby out of a mother’s arms and ravish her.

¹⁰⁰ Man is not measured . . . That’s brute, that’s brute, strength is. Man is measured by character. There never was a man like Jesus Christ, never measured up to Him. And the Bible said, “There was no beauty we should desire Him.” Didn’t look like a King, He was a little bitty Fellow, probably stooped, little, small in stature, but there never was a man like Him. Man is measured by character, not by brutal strength.

Well, you say, “Brother Branham, the rest of them does it.”

¹⁰¹ I don’t care what the rest of them does, if you got that gall of bitterness in you, there is something wrong somewhere, if you can stomach the world and still say that you’re a Christian, there is something wrong somewhere!

¹⁰² I was just eating dinner, there was two fellows setting there, ministers, collars turned around in the back, and they set there and drank three or four cocktails, wife and I, and the family set there looked at them, told a few little smutty jokes to one another, got through eating, and pulled out a great big cigar like a, looked like a dehorned Texas steer, setting there smoking on that thing.

¹⁰⁵ Painting of the face is a heathen trait. In Africa, I’m a missionary, them people back there that never knowed right and left hand, watch them women how they paint with mud and everything, it’s exactly right, it’s heathen, it’s the devil, and it creeps into our churches, and we then call ourselves the lambs of God. I’m telling you! We need to find the Dove again.

Now, you say, “Well, that’s wrong.” You preach that in your church some of them say, “Oh, I—I’ll never go back again.”

¹⁰⁶ Snort like a wolf, what does a lamb do? What does a dove do, if you snort like a wolf? He takes His flight.

“I won’t listen to that anymore. My pastor getting so . . .”

¹⁰⁸ And when churches begin to say, “The days of miracles is past. There’s no such a thing as Divine healing. All that must be mental something. That’s the devil doing those miracles and performing those signs. It’s of the devil,” just remember right now, the Dove takes its flight, for the Dove feeds on Dove Food. [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

“Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” [Blank spot on tape.]

¹⁰⁹ “That’s my own American privilege to do as I want to. If I want a little sociable drink with the neighbor, if I want to go out to this, and do that, that’s my own privilege.”

¹¹³ What surprises me, to see a man that claims that he loves the Lord Jesus and then do a thing like that, there’s something wrong somewhere. Something went wrong somewhere. Because if that Dove, before that Dove will ever come into that lamb, it has to be a lamb or He won’t come into it. He might manufacture something like it, and pretend that he’s a Christian, but if he is a Christian, he’ll agree with every Word that that Dove wrote in Here, he’ll be led by the Word of God.

¹¹⁶ Now, we wonder today why we can’t have a revival. Why can’t we have a revival? What’s the matter, we can’t have? Is because we follow the wrong leadership. We can have some manufactured conversions and protractive meetings, but when it comes to a real revival, what's the matter? We're letting too much world creep into our churches. Brethren, you ministers, you believe that?

117 There's too much world in our churches. If we're Pentecost, let's be Pentecost, let's act like Pentecost, let's live like Pentecost, let's stand for the Pentecostal blessing, and do the things that Pentecost promised us. We don't need. . . Pentecost is not a denomination, Pentecost is an experience, that's when you become a lamb, and the Dove gets a hold of you, starts leading you. That's when we are—are Pentecost.

118 That's what happened up there, when God sent up His Lamb, and He died for our sins, and—and then the Dove came back down on the Day of Pentecost, and led the Church, the same Holy Spirit that come upon the first Lamb at Jordan, That's the same One that leads today.

119 Well now, when you go to snorting, and saying, "I'm so-and-so, I belong to this denomination, we don't believe in no such thing as that," now, how is the gentle Holy Spirit going to ever feed you then? Then there's something wrong. The. . . If. . . A goat would stand for that, but not a sheep. A sheep, a lamb is God's child, the Holy Spirit leads God's children.

120 And today, what we need today is another experience. What we need today is a re-coming again of the Dove, and settling upon the Church, and leading It, and opening up our eyes, and getting inside of us, so we can see the manifestations of His Presence. Oh, if we could all, every one in here just set aside the ol' goaty, doubty feeling away from us, and let the Dove come in tonight!

121 And when the Dove, feel It flutter down into your heart, take Its place. . . It hasn't gone very far, It's just setting up there on the roost somewhere, waiting for you to come back, It didn't go very far, It'll come right back.

122 You remember when we used to have prayer meetings, years ago, and pray all night long? You remember them meetings? You remember when there used to be the old-fashioned, I've heard what they called them, the holy-rollers? They would get down on the street corner and preach and pray, and them ladies, with them long skirts on, standing there, beating a tambourine, and face, and hair pulled back like a peeled onion.

123 Oh, but do you think one of these new We Love Susie lookers, would ever go on the street like that? I should say not. And then trying to say that she's a lamb. You ol' goat! What's the matter, anyhow? See? That's right. What we need today is some more lambs that can be led, and feed on the Word of God.

"I'll dress the way I want to, that's my business."

No, it isn't, it's God's business.

"I'll take care of my family the way I want to. Preacher ain't got no business telling me that."

¹²⁴ Yes I have, too. You ought to take care of it the way that God told you to take care of it. That's right, stop all this nonsense. But we don't do it. You see what it is? We let down the bars. What happened? The Holy Spirit took Its flight. When you started to acting like that, the Holy Spirit left. That's the reason when He comes back into the church, you just wonder, "What's the matter?" See? It—it—it's not nothing that the . . .

You would say, "Well, maybe I wouldn't get out and do this, that, or the other."

¹²⁵ Guilty of the least is guilty of the whole. You got to surrender yourself to God, and let the Holy Spirit lead you.

¹²⁶ What is sin, anyhow? Sin is unbelief. "He that believeth not is condemned already." That's right. We are sinners, because we're not believers. I was . . . Well, them priests back there in those days that Jesus called sinners, and vipers, and snakes in the grass, and their father was the devil, and so forth, those men led just as clean as they could walk, but they was led by their church. If the Holy Spirit would have been leading them, they would have knowed Him.

¹²⁷ He said, "If you had knowed My Father, you would have knowed Me, anyhow. If I do not the works of My Father, then believe Me not." For the—the Dove was in Him, and the Dove was making the manifestation. Here it comes, get ready: And the Dove in us today, will produce the same thing it did in that Lamb, same ministry, same signs, same wonders. "He that believeth on Me, the works that I do, shall He do also, more than this shall He do, 'cause I go unto My Father. A little while and the world seeth Me no more, yet you shall see Me, for I'll be with you, even in you, to the end of the world."

¹²⁸ Oh, what a confirmation to see a lamb and Dove come together, Heaven and earth united, God and man united! And, why, the—the sins of the world was kissed away, and—and all roughness, and all death, and all sorrow, and all sickness was kissed away when the Lamb and the Dove become united together. And It'll do the same thing to you, when It unites with you, when the Dove and the lamb comes together, their natures are the same.

¹²⁹ Now, can you see why people say, ministers with great big clergy names, and so forth, of—of "Honorable Father," "Doctor So-and-so," that, how it is they . . . you say, "Oh, that—that, don't believe that Divine healing stuff, don't believe that holy-roller stuff like them Pentecostals, don't believe that."

130 You see, it's a goat instead of a lamb, see, they eat on . . . The Word of God, is the Food for the Lamb. God leads them, and the way He led that first Lamb. . .

131 What if Jesus raised up and said, "Now, wait a minute, Moses was a great prophet, that's the truth, but them days are gone"?

132 That wouldn't have been the Lamb, wouldn't have been the Lamb of God. No, sir. He always vindicated that "It's not Me that doeth the works, It's My Father that dwelleth in Me. If I do not the works of My Father, believe Me not, but if I do the works of My Father, you can't believe Me, believe the works." That's way the Lamb was leading, It was God in Him. It's God in the Church, It's God in His people today, It's God making Himself manifested through the Holy Spirit living in the Church on His lambs. Do you believe that with all your heart?

133 Let us bow our head, just a moment. Dove and Lamb. While you're listening, the most outstanding Scriptures, one of them, that I can think of, when Jesus said, "Father," think of it, "Father, for their sake I sanctify Myself." Think of it, "Father, for their sake I sanctify Myself." What was He doing? Setting the example, He was a Lamb.

134 What did He do? He had a right to a home, He was a man; He had a right to be married, He was a man; He had a right to good clothes, He was a—a man, but He sanctified Himself, He forfeited. He could have—He could have come down the corridors of Glory, a full-statured man with an Angelic band, sure, but He sanctified Himself. He could have at least been born in a nice, clean bed somewhere, but He was born in a manger over a manure pile, in a borrowed manger, but He sanctified Himself. Why? He was a Lamb.

135 See, friends, we got back to assembly line religions, and so forth, and all these things, we're getting away from the real thing, humble yourself. Keep humble, "Lord, sanctify me."

136 Jesus was training some men that was going to take the Gospel to all the world, twelve men, so He lived a sanctified life and forfeited every worldly pleasure for their sake. We ought to forfeit our worldly dressing, and our worldly pleasures, and things like that, for the sake of the people we're trying to lead to God, the outside world. Let the Dove come in tonight, sanctify yourself, that the Dove of real faith will come in and take His abode.

137 Our Heavenly Father, this message of Lamb And Dove, how the Lamb, a little, innocent fellow has to be led, he doesn't try to use his own thinking, he must be led; he was made that way so a shepherd could lead him.

138 O God, take all the bigness out of us, take all the high-headed, and the—and the haughty feelings, and the know-it-all, take it out of us,

Lord, all the doubt and discrepancy that—that's crept in, take it out, Lord. Let the Dove fly down tonight, come into every heart, that we might forfeit our rights, we might forfeit all the things that we feel as American citizens we have the right to, let's forfeit it, that the Dove might lead us to peace, and goodness, and mercy, and glory of God.

¹³⁹ Father, I yield myself to You tonight for this healing service coming on. Let the Dove fly down, Lord, let Him come into my heart, and into my mouth, into my mind, into my eyes, my voice, and let them out there, Lord, know that It's You. Let Him come into them, and together may He condemn sin, condemn sickness, all the attributes of sin, may it flee tonight.

¹⁴¹ Now, I know this little message, kind of chopped up, me holding my voice back, from being hoarse, I pray that somehow, it'll catch hold tonight, from right here on this spot, something deep and solid and sound, that every person in here will be a fruit-bearer, not try to manufacture anything, or make up anything, but just yield themselves to the Holy Spirit. And may they bear the fruit of faith, and peace, and joy, and goodness, and mercy, and temperance, and all the good gifts of God.

¹⁴² May there come into the churches, prophecy, speaking with tongues, interpretations, knowledge, wisdom. Grant it, Lord. May this great Pentecostal church rise and shake herself from the dust, go to the old ways again, and ask for it, Lord, and walk in it, 'cause it's the good ol' way. It's an old-time Gospel way, though talked about, yet it's the most glorious thing that there is in the earth, because the Dove come down, hunting for lambs that He could lead.

¹⁴³ God, if He could forfeit His Own precious Life, willingly go to the cross as a young Man and die for us, "Not My will, but Thine be done," God, surely, to enjoy His salvation, to enjoy Eternal Life through the ages that is to come, surely, we can forfeit our sins and our things of the world, that we might find that that He died for, that precious Lamb of God.

144 Grant it tonight, Lord, quietly and solemnly anchored in every heart. I commit it all to You, Lord, as we call Your sick children to pray. Let the stripes on that Lamb, tonight, heal every lamb that comes into the line, or, that's in the building. We ask, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

145 I like the sweetness of the Holy Spirit, don't you? It just—just goes way down inside me. To think of . . . Look back at the pit where I come from, look back . . . I hate to condemn sin like I do, I—I, sometimes I don't mean it personally, but as a minister, I—I, my office in life, I—I got to condemn it, friends, I—I can't keep from it. I don't mean to hurt anybody, but I aim to condemn it. Yes. But I want you to know it's with sweetness from my heart, God knows that.

146 Here not long ago, I was holding a meeting in a city, I walked into a place. We had been eating across the street in a little Dunkard restaurant, It was up somewhere in Ohio. Honey, you remember where it was at? I forget, it was somewhere up in Ohio, there, we was in a big armory building, and it was packed out, and thousands of people.

147 They kept me out in the country, 'cause there was so many down there knowed where I was living. And, went out in the country and we had, eating across, a little Dunkard Restaurant, very nice, clean, little ladies, walking around there, and so nice and everything.

148 And so then, Sunday, they closed up and went to church, and I hadn't eat for two days, so I had to preach that afternoon, I went across to a modern, little restaurant across the street, or, across the road where the highways cross, and went over there, and when I walked in there, it was disgracefully. Standing, playing a slot machine, was a—a officer, police officer, about my age, you know he's married, with his arm immorally around a woman, playing a slot machine, and gambling is illegal in Ohio. There you are.

149 I looked back across there, and there set a, some of these pretended Elvis Presleys, with these, like a duck setting on the back of their head, and—and all that kind of nonsense, hoodlums with their trousers pulled down like this, and setting there with a young girl in their arms. I just couldn't say it in a mixed audience.

150 I looked setting over to the right, there set a elderly woman, old enough to be my grandmother, almost, setting there with purple stuff on her lips, and her toenails painted the same, with a little pair of these little, immoral clothes, and the poor, old thing, her hide hanging down like this on her arms, and setting there with little blue spots on her face like this where she had painted them, with hair that was colored blue.

And I looked, and I thought, "Oh, my!"

151 And two old men setting there, and it summertime, one of them with a big army overcoat on, a scarf hanging down like this, setting there with that poor, old lady, and beer setting around there, drinking. And one of them looked up to the other, and said, "You think the rain will hurt the rhubarb?" And they excused themselves and went to the rest room.

¹⁵² And I stood there, I said, "God, You in Your holiness, how could You ever stand to look at that when it kills me to look at it?" I said, "Why, don't You strike the thing off the earth? Don't let it here no longer." I said, "My little Sarah and Rebekah," there, "have to be raised up in such as that?" I said, "God strike it from the earth! You're holy, how can You do it?"

Something said to me, "Get behind the door."

¹⁵³ I went back behind the door and stood there. I waited a little bit, a vision come, I saw a world turning. And around the world was a mist that looked like Blood, spraying around. And I looked in there, and there I was doing things wrong. And every time I would do something wrong, my sins would start before God, and God would slay me for it, but Jesus was standing there like a bumper, He caught it, I would see the tears run down His cheeks. And I would do something else bad, His Blood would hold it, keep it from—from touching me, from killing me, God would kill me, He, "The day you eat thereof, the day you die."

¹⁵⁴ And I looked at it, and in the vision I went up to Him, I said, "Lord, I'm ashamed of myself." There laid my book laying there and all kinds of evil wrote on it. I said, "Will You forgive me, Lord? Did I put You in that condition? Did my sins cause You to have to die for me? O Lamb, please forgive me for my sins, I won't do that no more."

¹⁵⁵ He reached back, tapped His hand like this, and wrote across the book with His Own Blood, "Pardoned," throwed it over behind Him, and then He did, He opened up a new book.

I said, "Thank you, Lord. I'll do anything You tell me to do. I love You, Lord Jesus."

¹⁵⁶ He said, "Now, I freely forgive you for all that you've done," and then He turned, and I seen the woman, said, "but you wanted to strike her off the face of the earth."

Oh, I felt about that big. I said, "Forgive me, Lord."

¹⁵⁷ When the vision left me I walked out to the little table where she was at, and I said, "How do you do?"

And she looked up, she was half-drunk, she hiccupped a couple times, said, "Oh, hello."

And—and I said, "May I set down?"

She said, "Thank you, I have company."

I said, "I didn't mean it in that way. I would just like to say a word to you."

And she said, "Say on."

¹⁵⁸ And I set down, I said, "How long you been leading this life?" She looked over at me, and poor, old thing, and I—I thought, "My, no matter what, how, what she's went through!" And I told her what had happened. I said, "You pardon me."

She said, "Are you that minister down here, Mr. Branham, that's this . . .?"

I said, "I am."

¹⁵⁹ She reached over and got a hold of my hand, trembling, commenced to crying, she said, "Sir," she said, "my husband was a preacher." She said, "After his death . . . I have two girls, they're Sunday school teachers, both of them." And she told me the story, what happened, the way she was leading. She said, "I'm past hope."

I said, "No, you're not. No, you're not."

She said, "I—I want to straighten up." But she said, "I have no place to start."

¹⁶⁰ I said, "What? Right now. God showing me behind the door that vision there, me wanting to strike you off, and He said He forgive me, and I want to condemn you, lady, forgive me."

¹⁶¹ There she took a hold of my hands, I led her right out there with them little ol' shorts on, right in the middle of that floor like that, and knelt down, and we had a real prayer meeting there. When I got through, people were crying, walking around there.

¹⁶² I tell you, brethren, sometimes we have to speak against sin, it's not to hurt the person, it's to bring them to recognize, bring them to a spot to recognize. Like our Lord, we don't mean to hurt or be bad, God knows that. That wouldn't, that . . . Never that be in my soul, but it's to try to get people to recognize what's going on, what's happening. See? And I do this so that we'll forsake all unbelief, and the things of the world, and come back, and be a real, sweet, humble Christian, and live for Him.

¹⁶³ Now, Heavenly Father, I pray that You'll send the Dove tonight, and lead us all into that, quietly and sweetly, up into that real place. Elijah laid in a cave, and in the cave the wind went by, the lightning flashed, the thunders roared, the earth quaked, but a still small Voice attracted the prophet.

¹⁶⁴ God, grant tonight, we . . . everything has went by, may that still small Voice attract the people tonight to a real, sanctified life, a life that'll stand by their God, that'll stand by their church, that'll stand by their pastor, that'll stand by the cause of Christ, that'll hold up a banner, that'll live, act, dress, go, and associate, and live in the environment, that'll be so salty, that'll cause others to thirst to be like them. Grant it, Lord.

¹⁶⁵ May our church never get so polluted till it looks like the rest of the world, where you can't tell sinner from saint. God, grant that it'll be real. Make it real, Father, I pray, as I ask for You to help us, tonight, and declare that You're here to back these things up, in the Name of Jesus, Thy Son.

¹⁶⁶ While we have our heads bowed, is there anyone in the building tonight, or how many, should I say, would like to lead that—lead that real, peaceful, sweet life, and be led by the Lamb, or, by the Dove? I'm not, I want everybody's head bowed and every eye closed, I'm not going to make an altar call, I just want to know your hearts. Raise up your hand, say . . . God bless you. Oh, that . . . Look all over the building everywhere, sure, everywhere, sure, you do.

¹⁶⁷ Heavenly Father, grant it, please do, God. There's many here, if I come back a year from today, won't be here, I may not be here either, Lord, a year from today. I've got to meet You before them all someday. And according to that vision You showed me the other day, Lord, I want every angle that I can to win somebody.

¹⁶⁸ Give them the desire of their heart tonight. May the Dove of God lead us into deeper depths and higher heights by the leading of the Holy Spirit, we ask in Jesus' Name. Amen.

¹⁶⁹ Now, I believe my son told me a while ago coming in, when we met him out there, that he had fifty prayer cards lined up tonight, that he give to the people. We'll line them up and pray for them. I forgot, what . . . ? [Brother Billy Paul says, "C."—Ed.] C, Billy, I didn't see you . . . C, one to fifty. Now, we bring these . . . [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

¹⁷¹ It was raining real hard, and—and the place was packed, and they were standing around the walls. And so, they . . . It was . . . Billy had give out prayer cards, and then, and there was a little mother walking back and forth, had a baby in a blanket. And there was another little—little ol' woman setting there in one of them little gingham dresses, or ever what it is, you know, setting there, a little, Christian, saint setting in front. And she had, this mother had no place to—to—to set down with the baby. And this little mother began to feel sorry for that baby and that little woman walking back and forth, and the Holy Spirit said to the mother, "Pray for that baby."

"Oh," she said, "I couldn't ask that woman."

"Pray for the baby."

172 "Oh, I—I. . ." It's best to do what God tells you to do. And so, when she . . . She said, "Well, next time she comes by, I'll ask her if I can pray for the baby."

173 And when she come by she was packing a prayer card. "Oh," she said, "I wouldn't ask to pray for that baby, why, Brother Branham is going to pray for that baby." Like that meant any more than anything, anybody else. Said, "Brother Branham is going to pray for that baby."

174 So the Holy Spirit kept dealing with her, and time lingered on. I hadn't come yet, and so then, the little woman said, well, just got so convicted, said, "Sister, would you like to set down with the baby?"

"Oh," she said, "I don't want to take your seat, dear."

175 And probably that little mother's compassion, more for that baby than what mine would have been. And she said, "Sister," said, "take this seat and set down. But," said, "I want to tell you, I know you're a Christian."

She said, "Yes, ma'am, I am."

176 And she said, "I'm a Christian, too." Said, "God just kept speaking to me, 'Pray for that baby.'" Said, "You got a card there." Said, "Brother Branham is going to pray for that baby."

177 She said, "I hope he calls my number tonight. I'm here to, with my baby," and said, "it's seriously sick." And—and said, "I hope he calls my number."

178 And she said, "Well, you set down here, and let me pray for the baby, so I can just get it off my heart," said, "because I feel condemned if I don't do it."

She said, "Why, certainly, honey, you pray for the baby."

179 And she prayed a little prayer, lay, said, "Lord Jesus, You was warning my heart, and I just laid my hands over on the little baby. And if it's doing wrong when Your servant is to pray for it, don't—don't let it reflect, Lord, I—I'm just trying to ease my feeling." That's the Holy Spirit telling that little woman that.

180 So she prayed for the little baby, and the woman give the lady with the prayer card and baby the seat, and the little lady climbed up and stood up in the balcony way up there.

181 Well, after while, the rain let up a little, and I got in, come in, walked to the platform, preached a little while, called a prayer line, and I just called about ten cards, or something like that, 'cause it was all to be in discernment. And sometimes that way, when I get down to ten, I'm—I'm pretty near gone if it's a fresh meeting. So then, when they—they. . . I told them, I said, "Now, friends, you, it's your faith, you got to believe it. I. . ."

¹⁸² So when—when they called the number, I believe, from, like from twenty to thirty, or something like that, or thirty to forty, whatever it was, that little woman was about fourth in line with that baby. That little mother felt real good then. So up come the little baby and the mother, and the little thing had a blanket over it, like this, and it was real sick.

¹⁸³ So, it come up to where the prayer line was going on, when it come up, I said, "How do you do?" I got it on tape, you see, that's how I knowed all about it. So I said, "How do you do?"

And she said, "Howdy do?"

I said, "I suppose we're strangers to one another?" I was trying to contact her spirit then, see.

And she said, "Yes, sir, we are."

I said, "You're not here for yourself, it's for your baby."

She said, "That's right."

I said, "It's got leukemia."

And she said, "That is right. The doctors has just give it a few months to live."

¹⁸⁴ I said, "Well, wait a minute," I said, "the baby is already healed. There's a little woman that just prayed for it that's got a—a little, gingham dress on." I said, "She just prayed for the baby a few minutes ago." I said, "That's her standing right up there, her name is Mrs. So-and-so, and so-and-so." She. . . Then obedience is better than sacrifice.

¹⁸⁵ Now, that same Spirit that witnessed to you tonight, "I am the Dove, I'm here, you are My lamb, I want to heal you."

Why, just say, "Thank you, Heavenly Father." Walk right on out healed. That's the way it's done.

¹⁸⁶ All right, let's call a prayer line. I just keep talking, you're such a nice audience and set so attentive, I really appreciate that. Now, let's see, prayer card. . . Well, let's bring them all up, and we'll just pray for them. [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

¹⁸⁷ . . . Holy Spirit can just ever get a hold. You're trying hard, I know you are, see, you're trying to press into it, but if you could just, don't try to press, just let loose, just let God do it. It'll certainly—it'll certainly be marvelous if you'll just let God do it, there won't be a sick person left among us. Now, if you all now will believe with all your heart, with all your strength, God will grant to you your healing, see. You believe that?

188 I—I—I believe it's already taking place. Oh, if it'll just keep on! Before anybody has ever got in the prayer line, I saw that Light make a circle right around like that, just then. I was watching It to see if It stopped on someone, moved in this way in this direction. Now just have faith.

189 Now, how many has seen the picture of the Angel of the Lord here? We—we got it in here, it's in the books, and so forth. Now, that's what I was looking at just then, It come from that way somewhere, It went around this way, come around to this side.

190 It always comes in the prayer line, always has, to my right side, that's the reason I bring the people that way. I never have a prayer line unless it comes from my right, coming left, 'cause that's always where He's standing, that's always where I see Him, on that side. And now, when it used to be, I brought the people from the left side, when I caught them with that hand, but this way it's a vision, He stands on this side. All right.

191 Now, ministering brethren, I want you all to believe with all your heart. I want you to have faith, and look at those people.

192 Now, is God a Father? How many believes that God is our Father? It's the Father of Jesus Christ, and It's our Father, we are adopted children. Now, He is the Dove. How many believes that by the grace of God, you're His lamb? Raise up your hand. Fine. All right. Now let's let Him lead us. Now, I'll, I want to see in the audience, someone so that you'll see it's not only the people here in the line, that's just, that's . . .

193 You know why we give prayer cards? Is so that the people won't rush over. See, there's—there's probably two or three more hundred people, or four, here—wants to be prayed for. And if you have discernment, brother, they, it's jumping over one another, and disorder. This—this is—is an arena, but it isn't tonight, it's a church tonight, the Church of God is setting in here. So, we want everything just in order.

194 You let it get out of order, and watch how quick the Holy Spirit takes a flight. Oh, It's timid! You let someone start disbelieving, just watch how It leaves me, just—just as quick as It can. It won't, It just won't stay around where there's unbelief, It just won't do it, very, very timid. That's the reason, my brother . . .

195 My precious sisters, God bless your heart, me speaking about women wearing, that—that isn't you, that's these modern that do the way they do. But look, I'm just trying to warn you, for your children coming on, and things, and—and watch every step, don't you do that.

¹⁹⁶ Last night I seen up in this side, and that side, teenage girls, young ladies, going back now for salvation. How I appreciate that! My, right at that crossroads of life. How gracious it is, God would do that for us!

¹⁹⁷ Now, is . . . ? Did all of them get in? Is all of the fifty there? There is somebody somewhere trying to have some faith out there, somewhere. It just . . . I . . . There's no need . . . If I told you I could explain this, you cannot. How many knows that? You can't explain God. That's the reason all of our trying and superstitions . . .

¹⁹⁸ In the garden of Eden there was two trees. How many knows that? One of them was the Tree of Life, and the other one was the Tree of Knowledge. And when man left the Tree of Life to eat the Tree of Knowledge, he always destroys himself, separates himself from God. So, you'll never know God by knowledge, you've got to know Him by faith, just to believe it; it doesn't come by knowledge, it's faith. See?

²⁰⁰ God never destroys nothing, man, by knowledge, destroys himself. Remember that, God doesn't destroy nothing, God is Eternal, He doesn't destroy nothing, but man, by his knowledge, destroys himself.

²⁰¹ When we get to a place, you say, "Well now, there's no such a thing as the Holy Ghost, Divine healing is wrong," just remember, you're destroyed by your own ignorance; you think it's knowledge, but it's ignorance. So you—you destroyed yourself, you sent your soul plumb away from God by doing that. See? Why, don't you just throw down your own thoughts and say, "O Dove of God, come lead me"? See?

²⁰² Watch where He brings you, right straight back to His Word. "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

²⁰³ Now, I want to know how many in that prayer line that doesn't know me, and I—and—and I don't know you, that doesn't know me, raise up your hands, you that . . . ? How many out there that doesn't know me? Raise up your hands, or not, okay. Up in the balconies, and so forth, you see. All right.

²⁰⁴ Now, there's only, as far as God being my Judge, the only persons that I know, I have got acquainted with some of these precious brethren here, especially the chairman here, the Brother [A brother says, “Hobson.”—Ed.] Hobson. And then I met a couple more of the brothers that know them, and I shook all their hands, but, brethren, if I don’t get to know you real well here, I’ll know you across the pond, when we get over There, we—we’ll . . . I’ll be There with you, and we’re ministers together.

²⁰⁵ And some of you all was preaching this Gospel when I was yet a little ol’, sinner boy; really it needs to be you up here. But what is it? You cut down the bushes, and—and leveled out the road, that the running would be a lot easier for me than it was for you.

²⁰⁶ So, I want you to know, that I know that in my heart. Some glorious day when we shake hands across the table over yonder we’ll see where the crown goes. You brethren who really fought to win the prize, and made the road easy for me, you preached that these things would be coming long years ago, before I was ever enter the ministry, you preached these things would happen. Now, see, you paved the road. These is the people you preached to that come here and see exactly. Always honor your pastor, he’s worthy of every bit of honor you can give him, the Bible says that. Yes, sir. “And don’t muzzle the ox that treads out the corn.”

²⁰⁷ Now, back long ago, when they was down on the corner, and run out of the city, and eat corn off the railroad track, or whatever they did, they was making the way for this, and don’t never forget that. When these new evangelists comes along with a ministry way, don’t . . . Remember, if you was going to be operated on, you would want it . . . you wouldn’t want to get a new student that hadn’t had no experience, you would want one that had some experience. How about your soul is going to be operated on? Hmm? That’s right, brethren. Sure is true.

²⁰⁸ Now, this is a gift, let me explain it just for a moment now, this is a gift, just a—a way I have of just to give myself over to the Dove. Then I don’t use my own thinking, my own sight, my own words, I just relax before Him. It’s just a gift to know how to do it. And when it does, then that . . . I—I could . . . I’m relaxed right now. See?

²⁰⁹ And each one of you is a spirit, if you wasn’t, you would be dead, so when you have a unbelief, I feel that coming in, little bit of doubt, you feel it, but when there’s faith, you feel that, too. See? Well now, it’s your faith that brings these visions, now, God knows that. It’s your faith that does it, not me. I—I don’t control It, It controls me, I just relax myself, and then whatever He does, I say it, till I start getting real weak, then I can feel myself buckling up, then I just . . . I—I know if I keep on, it won’t be just a little bit, till they’ll, Brother Roy or Billy Paul here, will get me.

210 And so then, I got other meetings, other nights, and I try to pull myself out. It's, the—the gift isn't for me, it's for you. I can't. . . If I want to know something, I say, "Lord, what is it? What is it?" He don't tell me, unless He wants to. But when I relax myself by a gift, then you can use it. Now, how many understands that? That's your own faith.

211 Now, if you'll just look this way, like the woman that touched the border of His garment, and—and believe, and know that He is the High Priest. . . See? Now, the only way you'll ever get anything from a gift of God, is to approach it with reverence and respects.

212 What if Martha would have said, "You wasn't here! Why didn't you come when I called You? My brother Lazarus been dead four days. We believe you're a hypocrite, we would have no more to do with you"? It would have never happened.

213 What if that Syrophenician woman: When He said. . . she said, "Lord, have mercy on my daughter, she's variously vexed with the devil."

He said, "It's not meet for Me to take the children's bread and give it to you dogs." Whew!

What would you have said? "Me, a dog? Holy-roller, I ain't got nothing to do with you, go on."

Not her, she said, "That's truth Lord, but the—the dogs eat the scraps under the master's table."

He turned around, said, "For this saying. . ." Her approach. See?

214 Martha said, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not died, but even now, whatever You ask God, God will give it to You." Oh!

215 He said, "I am the Resurrection and Life, he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me, shall never die. Believeth thou this?"

She said, "Yeah, Lord," she called Him what He was, Lord. "Yeah, Lord, I believe that You are the Son of God that was to come into the world."

216 Brother, something has got to happen, that's all. "Where have you buried him?" That was it. That's what it taken to do it; that's what it takes to do it each time.

217 Now, if you'll just approach God with that same reverence, you out there without a prayer card. . . I'll just pray for these in the line, just to show you that—that it'll be. . . I'm, well. . . Remember to get this watch off before. I might be. . . I'll just pray for these people in the prayer line, and then you are the one to do the discerning. You just—you just believe with all your heart, just believe with all your heart.

218 I can tell you before the meeting ever starts, before the prayer line starts:

219 You want to get over that asthmatic cough, lady? You believe that God will make you well? If you'll have faith and don't doubt, you can get over it.

220 Right back here there is a man setting, and the man has got a heart trouble, been in the hospital. If you'll believe, sir, with all your heart, God will heal you. Mr. Howard, have faith.

221 Sir, do you have a prayer card? You don't have no prayer card? I'm a stranger to you, I don't know you, never seen you in my life, and we are total strangers. Ever what That said, is that the truth? If it is, raise up your hands. All right. Jesus Christ makes you well. Now go home, you're healed.

See what I mean?

How you feeling? Better now, sister? You'll stop that ol' coughing now, and go home, be well.

"If thou canst believe."

222 What do you think, sir, back there with that leg trouble? You think that God make you well, and heal you? Young fellow setting there, looking at me, believe God will make you well? If you believe it with all your heart, you can have it. Amen.

Don't doubt, believe.

223 There's a lady setting there praying for her husband, got something wrong with his muscles. You believe that God will make him well? If you do, you can have what you ask for, if you'll believe it, don't doubt in all your heart. Stand up, lady, so the people can see who you are, setting back there. All right. Just believe with all your heart.

224 Look what It done to the woman, look what it done to the man. What are they? They're lambs, that let the Dove come in. That's exactly what it is. Have faith in God.

225 Come, lady. You believe me to be His prophet? Or His servant, I meant to say. That stumbles some people, reason I say that like that, see. You believe it? We're stranger to one another. All right. We have never met before, and we, this is our first meeting in life. Now, I don't know you, you don't know me, and so here we are just for the first time, meeting. I have no idea what's wrong with you, I have no idea why you're standing here. I—I could . . . It might be, you might be sick, you might be standing for somebody else, you might have financial troubles, it may be domestic troubles, it may be . . . I don't know what it is, you're aware of that, that I know nothing about it. If that's so, as far as we know, raise up your hand so the people can see.

226 See? Now, here we are. Now see, it's just a relaxation. I'm going to talk to the woman. Now, there's a woman, I'm a man, and we have just met for the first time in life, like Jesus and the woman at the well at Samaria, the well. Now, He talked to her just a moment in order to catch her spirit. See? Because now, it's just coming everywhere, like a heartbeat, everywhere, it's just the—the people.

227 Now, I don't know you, and God knows you and He knows me. Now, if God will reveal to me something like Jesus told the woman what her trouble was . . . You remember reading that story? Saint John 4. And He said what her trouble was, and when she did, she said, "Sir, I perceive that You are a Prophet. We know, we Samaritans, we know, that the Messiah is coming, which is called the Christ, and when He comes, He'll tell us these things." She knew that was the sign of the Messiah.

And so, and He said, "I am He that speaks to you."

228 She ran into the city and told the men about it, "Come, see a Man Who told me the things I've done. Isn't This the very Messiah?" And the people in the city believed Him to be Messiah because of the woman's testimony.

229 Now, that's the Scripture, isn't it? Now, ministers, is that the Scripture? All right. Now you're the audience, and a woman don't have to come tell you, you're here to look at her. Now, will you believe that the Messiah, the Son of God, in the form of the Holy Ghost is here, working through us, just like He promised to do in the Bible? Would you believe it? [Congregation says, "Amen."—Ed.] Then what would be to hinder you? Just say, "I'm Your lamb, You're the Dove, lead me to health, Lord."

230 Now, I don't say that He will. But, see now, here I have to approach that by faith, I have to approach it to believe it by faith, now, He might not do it. Because for a moment, I wanted to talk and kind of get myself back again from the visions that happened in the audience. So that the people would see it wasn't a prayer line, or anything that had nothing to do . . . it's you out there. Just, God is everywhere. Don't you believe it? He's omnipresent.

231 The lady suffers with an arthritis. I see her trying to get out of the bed, it's worse of a morning than any time, when you try to get up. Now, that's right. If that's right raise up your hand.

232 Now, she doesn't look like it, does she? But she has got it. What is it? That's—that's a vision. I saw her doing something, trying, I believe, was move from a bed or something that . . . Now, that's right.

233 Now, just be real reverent just a moment. The woman is saddened by some reason. I was going to pass her on, but there's something way down deep beyond that, that's she is sad, you just remember . . . because around the woman is a sadness and a darkness. Oh, yes, it's some loved one, it's your husband. And he's in a hospital, a Veteran's Hospital, in a city called Walla Walla, Walley Walley, or something like that. That's right. Got cancer. You're from Oregon. Your name is Mrs. Leverson. That is true. Do you believe now, with all your heart? Then go as you have believed, so be it unto you, in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

²³⁴ All right, do you believe with all your heart? Just have faith. Don't doubt. Say, "Lord, I believe, with all that is within me I believe." How many believes now with all your heart?" Now, what's doing that? The Dove, the Dove. Now, be reverent. Just believe. (Is this the next patient?)

You believe with all your heart? You believe that God . . .? If I didn't say one thing to you, you believe that God would heal you? Come here.

In the Name of Jesus Christ, let this woman be healed for Your glory. Amen.

Now believe with all your heart. Have faith.

You believe with all your heart? If I didn't say one thing to you, would you still believe it with all your heart?

In the Name of Jesus Christ, let this man be healed. Amen.

²³⁵ Come believing. Now, you're aware that I know what's wrong with you, but if I didn't say nothing, would you believe with all your heart? Let me just show you something. Come here a minute. Lay your hand on mine. This way, just lay your hand across. Got a lady's trouble, female trouble. See, I never caught that from vision, I caught it from here.

²³⁶ Let me show you something. Now look at my hand now. Just like an ordinary man's hand, isn't it? Here, now take this hand, put this hand over here on. Still the same way. Now change your handkerchief, put over here. Now it's not. Turns red, swelled up, little white things running over it. Now I just move your hand off, I'll put my hand just across like same way. It isn't that way now. Now you just lay that hand right back across there again, like that. There it is again.

²³⁷ Now, you know something is going on there. Then the mysterious part, it tells you what's wrong with you. Now, by vision I could, if the Lord would right now, I could call a vision, and, you could, ask God to, it would just go on and on. Now, watch this just a minute. You believe with all your heart now, that you're going to be healed?

Lord, have mercy on the woman.

238 I charge this enemy, by the Name of Jesus Christ, I cast him out, come out of her!

239 Now look at the hand now. Something happened, didn't it? Now look, put this hand on now, just the way you did. Now I put my hand on. Doesn't change a bit. Now let me have this hand again. Something happened, didn't it? You were healed. That's what it is, see.

240 That's all, that's just the way it is. Isn't He wonderful? Believe with all your heart.

Now, if I don't say a word, lay hands on you, you going to believe?
In the Name of Jesus Christ, may the man be healed.

Come, sir.

In the Name of Jesus Christ, may the man be healed.

241 Come, sister. Believe with all your heart. Are you sad? You believe you're going to be healed? You do? All right. And you believe that. . . Are you Spanish? [The sister says, "I'm half Japanese and half Spanish."—Ed.] Oh, Japanese and what? ["Spanish."] Spanish and Japanese. Uh-huh. All right. Was you born here? ["In Mexico."] Oh, I like it down there, very nice. You—you love the Lord? You think the diabetes is gone, and you can go home, be well now? All right. Then go ahead, and be well. Just have faith. God bless you.

242 If I didn't say nothing, you would believe you was healed, anyhow, wouldn't you? You would? But you want the—the back trouble to leave you, and, so you can be well.

In the Name of the Lord Jesus, grant, Lord, that he be healed.

Go now, and believe your kidneys will be all right, and you'll get well.

243 All right, the reason that was so powerful there, your back, too, has been bothering you, so. . . That's right. So, you believe with all your heart now? If you would believe with all your heart, you can go and be healed in Jesus' Name.

244 All right. Come. Now, you know I know what was wrong with you. So, you believe I could tell you? You got several things wrong, but the main thing you want prayed for is your arthritis. Now go on be well. Just say, "Thank you, Lord Jesus."

245 Now, you're aware that I—I know what's wrong with you. But if I tell you your main thing that you want me to pray for, would it help you? Your heart trouble. Just go believe, and you'll be healed. Just have faith, don't doubt at all.

You see what I mean, friend? It's a vision, but, oh, that just nearly kills you. See? Do you believe He's here? Sure, He's here. Now let's pray.

Come, sister.

In the Name of Jesus, may she be healed. Amen.

Go believing with all your heart.

²⁴⁶ Now, sir, you must have faith, you know that, that cancer would kill you. But you believe that God is going to heal you of that cancer, and you're going to get well?

I charge that cancer, in the Name of Jesus Christ, to come out of him! Amen.

Go believing now.

²⁴⁷ And if you'll have faith and believe with all your heart, you'll not die with heart trouble, you'll get well. You believe it? All right. Go believing, say, "Praise the Lord."

All right. You believe with all your heart?

In the Name of the Lord Jesus, may she be healed. Amen.

Believe now.

For the little one? If I lay hands on it, will it get well?

In the Name of Jesus Christ, may the baby be healed. Amen.

Don't doubt, it'll be all right, have faith.

Mercy! Brother, you've got to believe, or it'll—it'll eat right on in. But you believe it'll be all right?

In the Name of Jesus Christ, may it, the devil leave the man. Amen.

Have faith, believe.

You believe for him now, sir? Come here, little boy.

²⁴⁸ Lord, heal the little boy. Grant it, as I take him in my arms, and lay hands on him in commemoration of what Jesus did to the little children. May he be healed, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Now, go and don't doubt, and he'll be alright.

All right. Come, sir.

Father God, I pray that You'll heal this man. May this condition leave him, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Have faith. Now just believe with all that's in you.

In the Name of Jesus Christ, may our sister be healed. Amen.

All right. Come, sir. You going to believe?

In the Name of Jesus Christ, may my brother be healed. Amen.

Have faith now, don't doubt, believe with all your heart.

All right, come, lady.

249 What youse quiet about? Do you know God is just blessing each one? If I didn't think it, I would stop them. See? It's going on just the same. It's just, you—you . . . See, the thing of it is, you see, there . . . How many knows there's got to be Something besides Brother Branham doing that? Raise up your hand. You know I couldn't do it. Well, then there's some kind of anointing here. Is that right? Do you believe it to be what the Bible said? You believe that? Well then, did that same Jesus that made that promise, that same Dove, did not He say, "If they lay hands on the sick, they shall recover"?

250 The vision just nearly, it just nearly kills me. See? How many understands the Bible teaches that? Why, sure, anybody that knows the Bible knows that. It just, I can't stop for each one. But if you do, you must know that God is just the same, the—the—the Holy Spirit when He spoke to me up there (If you'll just give me a moment's time to get myself back a little bit.), He said, "You were born to pray for sick people, your peculiar birth."

251 That Light, that you see on that picture was hanging over my cradle when I was born. Borne on a little straw tick with a shuck pillow. My mother was fifteen years old, my dad was eighteen. Five o'clock in the morning, they didn't have a window in the house, had a little door. I don't know whether you ever seen . . . How many of you ever seen one of them little, like, supposed to be like a window, but it's just a little door you open up.

252 And—and that Angel of God, at five o'clock in the morning, April the 6th, 1909, at five o'clock in the morning, come right in and stood over that little bed where I was laying. They didn't know what . . . My people before me were Catholic, and so, there was no Catholic churches up there, and so they taken me over to a little Baptist church, and there I made my first visit to a church. The Baptist church is called Opossum Kingdom Baptist Church, Opossum Kingdom Baptist Church. And there's where I made my first visit to a church. And from when I was just about two years old, the first vision come, from that it's come on, and on, and on, and on, and I'm fifty-one years old now. So, you see, it's—it's the visions.

When He told me, He said, "You were born for this purpose, to pray for sick people."

I said, "They won't believe me."

253 He said, "As Moses was given two signs, you're given two signs." He said, "One of them, just take the people by the hand and don't use your thinking," see, said, "and it'll be told you what's wrong."

254 Well, I did that, I watched how things went for a while, watching people. And then, I told you that this other will take place, now you see it's taking place. Now, the next thing is coming in, see, perhaps be all mostly overseas, 'cause I feel it pulling overseas.

255 But now, that you might know that It is God, It's Him . . . It's the . . . Brother, sister, that vision, that Angel, God in Heaven knows that's true. What good would it do me to stand out here, telling you people these things? I—I don't get paid for it, you know that, my church pays me. My love offerings is overseas missions, I, ask the secretary here, I, that's right, see, I never see it, it goes for overseas, I go over there to preach the Gospel, over in other countries.

256 The expenses is paid, the brethren, the chairman and them can tell you, I don't get money. I—I don't have it. I get one hundred dollars a week from my church. Well, I get that just staying home, going fishing every day, and pastoring a church on Wednesday night and Sunday morning, see, at the little ol' Baptist tabernacle. That . . . It ain't money.

257 If it go on, be money, I could have been a millionaire, if I had wanted to be. I—I was give a million, five hundred thousand dollars in one offering, one time, not all . . . from one person. That's right. FBI agents brought it to me. I got the piece out of the paper and things. I said, "I even refuse to look at it." I said, "I wouldn't have it. No, sir. I don't want it."

258 So what am I standing out here for? Why aren't I home having my family and everything, much better off, and live a life like that instead of gone from the family, and toil, and weary, and crying, and pull, and persuade? It's because that I got a commission, I must do it.

259 Many times, doubters, people raising up, and—and—and people saying, "Oh, it's nothing to it," that—that's a whole lot . . . that hurts, you see.

260 But just the same, that, I don't ask for a flower bed of ease, I expect it. Yes, sir. "I must fight, if I must reign." Yes, sir. I've got it to do, our Lord did. So I'm here to try to help you. And the best that I know how, I'm trying to help you.

261 And please believe me, if I tell anything, and God backs it up and says it's truth, the Bible said to "hear him, because I'm with him." Is that right? Now, I'm telling you that each one of you can be healed, you are already healed, if you just recognize it. That's right.

262 Now, who is next? This woman here? Here. Like, this lady here . . . Now look, lady, we are strangers to one another. I do not know you, but you know that I know what's wrong with you. If I didn't say nothing about it, yet, you believe you would be healed, anyhow? You do? That's—that's the way to believe it, that's the way.

²⁶³ You have complications, several things wrong with you. That's right. You've stiffening up in your joints, been that way for quite a while. I see a crash, or, oh, it's a automobile accident caused that. That's THUS SAITH THE LORD. Is that the truth? Raise up your hand, if that's the truth? See? It's, He's just the same yesterday, today, and forever. Don't you believe that?

In Jesus Name, go and be made well, sister. Amen.

Come, my brother.

In the Name of Jesus, go and be made well. Amen.

Come, my sister.

In the Name of Jesus, let the spirit that's on me anoint the woman, Lord. God, in Jesus' Name, may they be healed. Amen.

Come, brother.

In Jesus' Name, may he be healed . . . [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

²⁶⁴ . . . you'll believe it, then your back trouble will leave, your asthma will leave. You believe that? You got a habit you want to leave, smoking cigarettes. You give them up? With all your heart? If I tell you who you are, you'll think it's really gone then, won't it? Mr. Cunningham. Go on your road and rejoice, say, "Thank You, Lord." Be healed.

You believe with all your heart? Now, put your hands over on one another, all of you in here.

O Dove, come Dove, fall upon Your lambs, Lord.

Oh, lambs, be led by the Dove, be made well.

²⁶⁵ Satan, you are defeated, the people is going to recognize it after while, that you are defeated, you have no hold on them. Jesus Christ, God's Son, is here, and He defeated you, you are defeated, you've been defeated for two thousand years. Come out of them in the Name of Jesus Christ!
