
THE FORGOTTEN BEATITUDE

. . . thank Thee from the depths of our heart, for the Lord Jesus, Who is our Life, and in Him we find no fault. But we find in ourselves, fault, when we look into His life and examine, ours by His, we pray that You forgive us.

2 We ask, tonight, that You will meet with us. You promised that wherever two or more would meet together, that You would be in the midst, and if we would ask anything, that it would be granted.

3 And, Father, our—our motive and our objective, tonight, and our longing in our heart is to see Christ glorified. So we pray that our efforts tonight will be, as they continue, to bring people to a living faith in a living God, that, a God that is not dead, but is alive for evermore.

4 We pray Father, that You will stir our souls tonight, with Thy Presence, through Jesus Christ, we ask it, in His Name. Amen.

5 May be seated. Just a little late and just a little tired, I been going since Christmas without any let-up, so I'm pretty tired. I was glad, tonight, to see Brother Joseph Boze, who I been looking to see him for some time, returning from the fields across the sea.

6 And sorry to say, tonight, that our precious brother and friend, here, Brother Tommy Hicks, is leaving us tonight for, or, tomorrow morning for Canada to have a meeting. I tried to get him to come out and preach for me tonight, 'cause I was so tired, or either have the prayer line, he—he backed up on me, so, and he said, "The next time, the next time." And—and he keeps telling me that.

7 And I—I know that Brother Tommy Hicks is, I have, the days that I have had with him, and the times, and the fellowship, I certainly have a great confidence in Tommy Hicks, of being a servant of the living God. A great masterpiece that I don't believe that there would be anybody could say anything against the leading of the Holy Spirit to Brother Hicks. For he was just a . . . One day when he . . . You heard of his message going to Argentina, and he didn't even have the money to go, but the Lord sent him, and, oh, you know about the meeting. And a person that can yield to God like that!

8 You know, God can only use what part of you, you yield to Him. You see, as I said, I believe, one day, somewhere, I talk so much in different places, and mornings, and afternoon meetings, and what-more, but I said this, that God can use what you yield, like Samson. Samson would not yield his heart to God, he give that to Delilah, but he gave his strength to God, and God could only use his strength, that's all.

⁹ But if a fellow could only yield his complete being to God, now that's it. If you can yield your—your body, God will use your body. If you can yield your mind, your heart, whatever it is, God will use what you give to Him to use with. He is seeking to find somebody that He can find yielded like that.

¹⁰ God be with you, Brother Tommy, give you a great, great success. We'll pray for you in your services there. And I'll be in Canada, too, in a few days, but up in the other end, so . . . Give you a great success and safe journey. [Brother Tommy Hicks says, "God bless you."—Ed.] We . . . Thank you. Same to you, Brother Tommy.

¹¹ We had a great time this morning in fellowship around the table of God this morning at the, where we asked the blessing and had a ministerial breakfast, the first time I been privileged to meet the ministerial group of this city. And I certainly found some great men, great servants of Christ with great hearts, reaching out for God.

¹² And I trust that we will, sometime, can get back where we have a full place, all together, and a big fellowship meeting and—and have a great meeting all together, here in Chicago.

¹³ Now, there was, last evening, I think we was praying for the sick. And Sunday afternoon, I preached on the subject of Abraham And His Seed After Him. Last night, I preached on the subject of The Greatest News Flash That Ever Struck The World In History.

¹⁴ And tonight, if you will turn in the Scriptures, if you care to, to Matthew the 11th chapter and the 6th verse, I'll read these words:

And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

¹⁵ I'm going to call this subject The Forgotten Beatitude.

¹⁶ We are all acquainted with the Beatitudes. Over in the—the Book of Matthew the 5th chapter, Jesus taught the Beatitudes when He taken the people and went up on the mount, just before the beginning, or, just as His ministry started, He became their Leader. And He went up and taught the Beatitudes, and begin, "You've heard them say, them of old time, but I say unto you," and so forth.

¹⁷ Now, Jesus was a perfect type of, or, Moses was a type of Jesus; Jesus was Antitype of Moses. Moses was a—a prophet, he was a law-giver, he was a kind of a like a king over the people in the wilderness, Israel. And he was born a prophet, he was hid from Pharaoh, just as Jesus was hid from the Roman Empire, and he, his ministry and life just typed right along. And Moses, when he got the children of Israel in the wilderness, he went up in, to the mount and got the commandments, came down and begin to teach the commandments.

18 And Jesus, when He came into His power, He went up on the mount and set down and begin to teach the people, “Blessed are the pure in heart, they shall see God. Blessed are the poor in spirit, theirs is the Kingdom of God. Blessed are you when you’re reviled, and persecuted, and made fun of, and so forth, for they persecuted the prophets which was before you. Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, ’cause great is your reward in Heaven.”

19 He was typing Moses exactly, or, Moses’ type was a type of Him. And we’re all acquainted with those types of what Moses was and what Jesus was, teaching the Beatitudes. But this Beatitude is on over in the 11th chapter and the 6th verse, and if you don’t watch, you’ll read right over the top of it and you won’t get it. It’s wedged in between other words, but it is a Beatitude. And He said, “And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in Me.” See?

20 “Blessed are the pure in heart . . . Blessed are the peacemakers . . . Blessed are . . . Blessed are . . .” And way over here, He slips this Beatitude in again, see, “Blessed . . . And, blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in Me.” Oh, it was a great time, in those days.

21 Now, we find that what caused this to start, was just after the ministry of this great, rugged, New Testament Elijah, John the Baptist. And that’s who the Message was sent to. And John had been placed in prison because of his ministry. And oh, what a rugged fellow John was! And he was really, truly, “the messenger” Jesus said, “that shall go before Me.” And he was an outdoor man.

22 And how, when they caught him, he was perfectly like Elijah, who his spirit was anointed, he was the anointed Elijah of the New Testament. How that Elijah was a—a kind of a man that didn’t like the way Jezebel, immoral women, lived, and John, the same thing; and Elijah lived in the wilderness, John, the same thing; John was kind of stood by alone, just like Elijah did. And that great, rugged man from the wilderness, and then had him down in an ol’ musty, wet, damp jail.

23 That must have been a horrible experience for John, a man that had been free, out in the wilderness, having his meat with the locusts, and honey, and the wilderness journey, out there where he could kill what he eat, or take what he wanted out of the wilderness, and now he’s down in a little ol’ musty, dirty jail, perhaps dark, in a dungeon somewhere, because that wife, Jezebel, of, Herodias had had him throwed in there because that he had told him that it wasn’t right for him to take, Herod, to take his brother Philip’s wife, and live with her, it wasn’t lawful for him to do it.

24 And John was one of those men that did not hold back any punches, he just let her fly, it made no difference to him, if it was a head off, it was a head off, that's all. Just like Elijah, he was right-out forward with what he had to say, what was right, was right, if it was wrong, it was wrong.

25 God, we need more like that today, men who will stand on real genuine convictions of the Word of God. Speak It and don't hold your peace, speak It out.

26 And then we find there that John, down in this little ol', musty, dirty jail, with some dirty bread they'd probably throw in to him once in a while, he had probably gotten thin, and no way to read his Bible, and he would, got kind of, his, as one writer wrote about him one time, said, "His eagle eye got filmed over."

27 You know the prophets are likened unto eagles, and God calls His prophets eagles. Is because an eagle is the most powerful of all the birds. And the eagle can go higher, soar higher than any other bird, and he's got a better eye than any other bird.

28 They talk about a hawk having an eye, or, and a hawk being able to fly up in the air, why, if a hawk would try to follow an eagle, he'd disintegrate in the air, he sure would. And now, what good is it going to do the eagle to get up there if he hasn't got enough eye to see, where, back down to the earth again?

29 It's just like if, what are we doing jumping high if we don't know what we're jumping about? See? And what are we testifying high, or making a lot of noise if we haven't got nothing to make a noise about? See? And it's different now, the noise is fine if you got something to make a noise about, but wait till that comes first, and it'll be a noise all your life then.

30 But we find that this eagle eye had got filmed over, because they had taken him out of his habitation from the wilderness, and had put him down into an ol' dirty, musty jail, and this great man who could be an eagle to soar up in the air.

31 Now, higher you get, further away you can see. They get up now in these balloons and things, so they can, so high in the air, that they can take a picture of the entire earth, in its curvature. And I suppose, in this new gadget that Russia has got, can cross around the world in about a hour and forty-five minutes, why, they can take the entire movie of it turning. But, higher you get, more you can see.

32 Therefore, prophets in the Bible, were those eagles who could soar way up and above the congregation, and find out what THUS SAITH THE LORD was, then come back down and bring the news. See?

Therefore the Word of the Lord came to the prophets. And John being caged off, why, it filmed that eagle eye over.

³⁴ And I heard a noise, and I went down at the bottom of the hill to see what it was. And they had just caught a big eagle and had put him in a cage. And I looked at that poor fellow there, and he was bleeding all over his head, and the feathers was all beat off his head and off the ends of his wings. And I watched the big fellow walk across there, then here he'd come, trying to take off, like the eagle does. And he'd hit his head against those bars, and knock him backwards, and fall on the floor, and lay there and roll those big eyes around, and look up like that. And get back again, and here he'd come and hit against them bars again, and blood and feathers knocked out of him, and he'd lay on his back, roll those big eyes and look up.

³⁵ Why? He was a heavenly bird, he was looking up to where he ought to be. But some cunning device-ities of man had put him in a cage. And I thought that was the most horrible, pitiful sight. I'd have bought that eagle if I'd have—if I'd have had to take up my first offering to—to have bought that eagle, to turned him loose.

³⁶ I thought, "That poor fellow," I thought, "my, if that ain't awful, that, born to be a heaven-soaring bird, and here he is by the device-ities of men, all caged up, and he's just beating his brains out, but he's caged." I thought, "That's the most horrible sight I ever seen."

³⁷ Then I turned around to walk away, and I thought, "Yes, that's a horrible sight, but I've seen something more horrible than that, to see men and women who were born to be sons and daughters of God caged in some kind of a cage, when then they look up and know there's a God of Heaven, know that He's a great Healer, and a great Master, and a great Saviour, and then put in some kind of an ecclesiastical cage, where they just beat their brains out with all kinds of societies, and everything else, and never be able to get out of the cage."

³⁸ That's a pitiful condition. Tell them all about a great God that was, and build them up under expectations, then knock the whole thing out from under them, "He died and put in the tomb and that's all of it, He's not like He used to be." That's a pitiful sight, to see people, men and women who were born to be children of God and be caged in to such things as that.

⁴¹ And we find that—that Elijah and John was a great deal alike. They were real nervous men, both of them almost had a nervous breakdown, both of them. And men who live close to God are mostly considered neurotics or something wrong with them. That's right, they're always considered that.

⁴² Paul, this morning, when I was speaking to the ministerial group, Agrippa said to him, or, Festus said, "Too much learning makes you mad, or crazy."

He said, "I'm not mad, I'm not crazy, I'm sober." See? "And I—I'm all right."

⁴³ And to, they claim, like William Cowper, I believe it was, when I stood at his grave there at London, and he wrote that famous song:

There is a Fountain filled with Blood,
Drawn from Emmanuel's veins,
Where sinners plunged beneath the flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.

⁴⁴ That man was so inspired till he, after, he tried to take a rope and hang hisself, the rope broke. He tried to go to the river to commit suicide, and the cab couldn't even find the river, it was so foggy.

⁴⁶ And I think about Jonah the prophet, God inspiring that great eagle for the air of that day. God inspired him so, till he went down there and laid in a belly of a whale for three days and nights, walked out upon the bank and give a message that made even them people put sackcloth on their animals. And when the Spirit left him, he went up on top the hill, and set down and asked God to let him die. That's right.

47 We find this great Elijah, who John was a type of, the great eagle of that day, mighty, rugged man, great woodsman, lived in the woods in a cave, and he came out, stomped out into amongst the people, and God would take him up into places that Israel knowed nothing about, and declare the message and say, "It's THUS SAITH THE LORD," and stomp back into the wilderness again.

48 To find that great eagle, when he stomped out there and told that king, "There'll not even be dew come from the heavens, but according to my word." Walked right back out there, when he walked down that Samaritan road that day, that stick in his hand, that piece of sheepskin wrapped around, that bald head shining, whiskers hanging down, them steps just as steady as they could be, coming down that Samaritan road.

49 But he knowed Who he had been in the Presence of. He wasn't afraid of what Ahab was going to say, because he had been in the Presence of Somebody greater than Ahab. He had been in the Presence, and he had THUS SAITH THE LORD. Those ol' eyes, setting back there, with those wrinkles, was looking right towards the sky, he was walking steady, because he knowed he had THUS SAITH THE LORD.

50 Oh, he was a eagle. Went up on top the mountain, and drunk at the brook there until it went dry, and went back down there and called a— a meeting, when God give him a vision, went up on top the mountain, and said, "Let's prove Who is God. Let's see Who is God. If He ever was God, He is still God." That's right. Oh, I like them eagles. Yes, sir.

51 Went up on there and said, "If He . . . Let's prove God," and he said, called the way that God told him the vision, he said, "you take a bullock, and—and I'll take a bullock, and you call on Baalim, and I'll call on God, and ever which one answers by Fire, let Him be God."

52 And while he was so certain of hissself, so certain of his vision, while they were calling on Baalim all morning and cutting themselves, and screaming, and jumping, he walked around, said, "Say, maybe you better holler a little more, maybe he's pursuing, or maybe he's taking a nap." You see? Oh, he knowed where he was standing. It was!

53 But after he had proved God, his eagle eye become filmed, and when Jezebel threatened that she would kill him, he run out into the wilderness. God found His servant laying under a juniper tree, running, after he had proved God to be God.

54 Nervous, upset, when you go up in those spheres, it does something to the human heart. When you come down, you—you can't explain it, it takes you somewhere, there's no need of trying to talk about it. Visions and so forth that tear you to pieces, you can't tell the other people, they don't understand it. They never have been there, so how would you know about it? So, it tears them to pieces.

55 God, so kind to His servant, though, to feed him and encourage him, and out under the juniper tree. But after he had had such confidence in Jehovah, so sure, that he could walk up before the king, and said, "Not even dew will fall, but according to my word." Stomped right out of the king's palace, anointed.

56 Then he had a vision of what to do. Then he went right out there on that mountain and took, and called down Fire out of the heavens, proving He was God, then called rain down out of the heavens on the same day, and then killed four hundred men, priests, pagan priests, cut their heads off, and then run when the vision left him.

57 Nervous, setting out there, said, "I'm no better than the rest of my fathers. I'm no more than any of the other prophets. Now, Lord, take my life, I'm the only one that's left, I'm the only one that's preaching the right Gospel, so just take my life, let me go." They get all flusterated like that.

58 But God said, "No, I—I—I got—I got seven thousand more, that had never bowed their knee to Baalim yet." See? See? "But I, that's alright Elijah, you're doing a great work, but I—I still got another bunch," you see, "that you don't know yet."

"But take my life. I'm no more than my fathers was, prophets before me. Let me die."

59 And here, John, a whole lot like him, laying down here in prison, mustering out, after he had stood on the banks of the Jordan, come out of the wilderness, received the Holy Ghost in his mother's womb, three months before he was born. Certainly did.

60 How? When he had first heard the Name of Jesus Christ, when Mary come up there, and she had, she has not yet, she had never felt nothing, the Angel had just overshadowed her, the Holy Spirit had told her. She took off to Judaea, and she was, uh, told Elisabeth, that she was going to be mother, and said, "God has overshadowed me, and I'm going to have a Child, and said I'd call His Name Jesus."

And little John was six months, already, Elisabeth was, in her motherhood, pregnancy, and she'd not yet even felt life.

61 And so while she was standing, looking at Mary's face, and Mary telling her what the Holy Ghost said was going to happen (And had told about the experience that she had had, an old woman had conceived, and then how her husband was stricken dumb.), and while standing there, and she said, “I—I is going to have a Son and call His Name Jesus,” and as soon as that precious, glorious Name of Jesus was spoke first in the human lip, a little, dead baby laying in its womb, jumped, and come to life, and received the Holy Ghost, in the mother’s womb.

62 Said, “Whence comes the mother of my Lord? For as soon as thy salutation come to my ears, my baby leaped in the womb for joy.” And the Bible said he was born from his mother’s womb full of the Holy Ghost.

63 A man called of God, come out into the wilderness at nine years old, no education, took off into the wilderness and was a woodsman.

64 At thirty years old, he came out of the wilderness preaching such a Message of a coming Messiah, that he shook the regions. And he wasn’t afraid of the doctrine of the Pharisees, said—said, “You snakes in the grass, don’t you come around here saying, ‘We have Abraham to our father.’ You generation of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come?” Oh, my. He was rough.

65 Said, “I’m telling you of a Messiah that’s coming with a fan in His hand,” amen, “He’ll thoroughly purge His floor, He’ll take His wheat to the garner, and He’ll burn the chaff with unquenchable fire.” Whew! He knowed what he was talking about.

66 Now, but when this Messiah finally came, when Messiah finally came, and John had the honor of baptizing Him, He came just—just exactly right, all the signs was right, He showed the Messianic sign, and John knowed that, that He was the Messiah, that’s the Messiah, there’s no doubt about it. John said, “I saw that Pillar of Fire, Light coming down upon Him in the form of a dove, a Voice speaking from that Pillar of Light, saying, ‘This is My Beloved Son in Whom I am pleased to dwell in.’”

67 He knew that was the Messiah, John said, “I didn’t know Him, but He, was in the wilderness, said for me to go baptize with water, said, ‘Upon Whom thou shall see the Spirit descending and remaining on, He’s the One that’ll baptize with the Holy Ghost and Fire.’ And I’m sure This is Him.” So he blasted it out.

68 But when trouble set in, Jesus come and showed the Messiah, that He was Messiah, but then something went wrong. John had introduced a Messiah with a fan in His hand, going to burn up the chaff. But he found out the works of Jesus, He was meek and lowly. So it worried him. He didn’t know—he didn’t know what to say. He—he thought, “Now, there’s something wrong here somewhere.” Seemed he had—he had believed the wrong thing, it seemed like it wasn’t working right.

69 And there's many times that we think, too, that it isn't working right. But it's working right. As long as we know that He is here, what difference does it make? It's working right. Maybe it ain't working according to the way we think it ought to work, but it's working according to the way God wants it to work.

70 You say, "Well . . ." John thought, "Well, now, I introduced a Messiah that had His fan in His hand, and He was going to purge the floors, and take His wheat to the garner. And I told them the axe was laid to the root of the tree, and He was going to take all the trash and burn it up. And here He is, instead of a great, mighty Man like that, here He comes meek and lowly. Something must have went wrong somewhere," he said, "there's no doubt but something is wrong somewhere." He thought it wasn't right.

71 He become dismayed like many of us do. When we see things going on that it isn't what we think is just right, we become dismayed. Don't be weary, it'll be all right.

72 The devil got a hold of him in there, the devil thought, "Now, I've got him in the jail now, I've throwed him in jail, so I'll rough him up right good while I got him in there. God isn't using him right now, I got him in jail, so I will just put every kind of a blanket over him I can. I got him all caged up, I got the eagle in the cage, so I'll—I'll just—I'll just make him wish he had never preached the Gospel."

73 That's the way he does a many. And there's a many a good man in that same shape today. That's exactly right. We think it ain't working right, but it is working right, everything is all right.

74 Here the other day, a little . . . I see so many people that come in, say, "Well Brother Branham, I was prayed for the . . . I—I—I really didn't get any different, well, there's something wrong." No, there's not. There's nothing wrong with the system, there's nothing wrong with God, there's nothing wrong with the Bible, there's nothing wrong with the Holy Spirit, the thing of it is, is something wrong with you.

75 Everything was running all right, it was just John. That's all.

76 So there was a lady came down the other day from—from Zion City, she may be here now, about a month ago. That little woman, her little husband, a beautiful little couple, and they came down to my place, and—and they come down with some good friends of mine, Simses, from up there at Zion. And they may all be setting here tonight as far as I know.

77 And she had a little baby, I think it was born with his foot hanging up like this and—and couldn't get his foot down. And—and she just said, "If I can only see Brother Branham put his hands on this baby, that foot will drop down.” Why, she brought it shoes to wear home and everything. And she, that’s, “Yes, sir.”

78 So I was praying up at the tabernacle at, or, preaching, and then when I got through, I was trying, make a way to get out to another meeting and, or, over in Bloomington, Illinois, and then, the first thing you know, when I started to leave the platform, I believe we was going in, take Footwashing.

79 We are, we believe in Footwashing, I—I believe that’s, the Bible teaches that, and we’re supposed to do it until He comes, and so we try to keep every Word that He said. And we was observing this at our church, which we always have, for thirty years now.

80 We were going in for Footwashing, and—and my son come up, and said, “Dad, there’s—there’s a people come from Zion there,” said, “they was expecting to have prayer for the sick tonight,” he said, “they got a little baby that, that woman believes if you’d ever pray for that baby, that little leg would drop down, it’s got a bad leg.”

I said, “Bring it here.”

81 And the little, beautiful, little mother, she come up and she said, “My baby, Brother Branham, we have believed, husband and I, when you lay your hands on this baby, that the leg is going to come straight, it’s going to be alright.”

I said, “Do you require me to find a vision from the Lord?”

She said, “No, sir, just lay your hands on it.”

I said, “All right, I’ll do that.” Laid my hands upon it, prayed for it, went on in the room.

82 And the next day I was out at the office. When I was setting out there and—and answering some calls, and—and doing some work there at the office, a car drove up, and the little lady got out, her, and her husband, and here they come, said, “Brother Branham,” said—said, “something went wrong.”

I said, “Oh, well, what do you mean?”

“Why,” she said, “the—the baby’s leg is not down yet.”

And I said, “Well, what’s that got to do with it?”

83 And she said, “Well, I—I—I believed, Brother Branham, I believed if you would ever lay your hands on my baby that God would heal it.” Said, “I believed it.” And said, “Something went wrong somewhere.” She said, “Maybe you better have a vision for it.”

I said, “No. No. There’s nothing wrong, no, not a thing wrong, only thing is wrong is you.” See? I said, “You just believe it.”

She said, “One thing I’ll ask: Brother Branham, do you think it’s God’s will for my baby to be crippled?”

I said, “I do not believe it’s God’s will.”

⁸⁴ She, “That’s all I wanted you to say.” Out of there she went. And few days ago they called up, and now, the baby’s leg is back normal, come down. They . . . See, we just get flusterated, that’s all, everything is running all right, everything is just according to time.

⁸⁵ So we find out here that the devil tries to make the people believes, or, disbelieve. So the devil was trying to get John to disbelieve that He was the Messiah. So he got two of his disciples together, and he sent them out, said, “Now, you go out and find wherever He’s preaching, and when you do, you go out and ask Him, ‘Have I been wrong?’” Could you imagine that?

⁸⁷ You’re not supposed to make ends meet. If I could tell you the whole thing, and you knowed it all, and I knowed it all, it would no more be faith. Anything that I can perfectly explain is not faith anymore. By faith are you saved. By faith are you healed. You just believe it. You can’t explain it, you just believe it.

⁸⁸ So he said, “You go, and ask John, or, ask Him, if we should look for another. Was my, has my faith, my confidence and my—my . . . I saw that Messianic sign over Him, and—and have I been wrong? Have—have I been mixed up? Now, has something went wrong?”

⁸⁹ Now, when these disciples came to Jesus with this great prophet’s message, Jesus never said to them, “Now, I’ll tell you what I’ll do, I’ll send you back some literature to give to John: How To Be Happy In Jail.” No, He—He never said that. He didn’t—He didn’t say, “I’ll—I’ll give you a book on patience, and you tell John how to be patient while he’s in jail. It’s a—it’s a good thing, he’s in jail, and I hate, see him in jail, but I’ll tell him how—how to do it, oh, just to be happy.”

⁹⁰ No, He never said that. You know what He said? He said, “Just stay till this afternoon’s meeting. Just stay over, then you can leave after that. Just watch this afternoon’s meeting.”

⁹¹ And after Jesus had the meeting . . . I’d imagine those disciples of John, setting there, watching every move He made, ’cause John had taught them what that Messiah was, and told them what it was, and these was his disciples. And they begin to see what has taken place.

⁹² So then after the service was over, then when the two disciples went back to meet John, He said, “Go, tell John the lame walk, the blind see, the deaf hear, and all that comes to the meeting is poor. All the—the poor people has got the Gospel preached to them. And tell John not to be scared, not to think anything different, I’m right on schedule, everything is running right, everything is all right. I’m right on schedule. Go, tell him there is a healing service going on, the poor has got the Gospel preached, the power of God is moving among them. I’m right on schedule. Don’t pay any attention to nothing else. I’m right on schedule.”

⁹³ Oh, my! “And, blessed is he, who is not offended in Me.” Now, don’t be offended. I believe there is more people offended in Jesus than any other person that ever lived on earth, they get offended too quick.

⁹⁴ Jesus now, in this misplaced beatitude, slipped over there so we could get it tonight, why, He said, “Blessed is he, who is not offended in Me. Don’t be offended in Me. No matter what takes place, I am, everything is working right on schedule, so you just—just go ahead and believe it, that’s all, everything is all right. Just go ahead and believe it.”

⁹⁵ You know, there, Jesus didn’t rebuke John for that. He didn’t say, “Well, I’m ashamed of My apostle; I’m ashamed of My prophet.” No, He never said that. He didn’t say, “What’s the world going to say about this, when you come preaching, ‘Oh, such a great Messiah, and such a great Messiah,’ and then you send out to ask if I’m the Messiah?” He never rebuked him.

⁹⁶ But when John said the worst thing that he could say to Jesus, Jesus said the best thing that John ever had said about him. Yes.

Jesus . . . John said, “Go, see if He is that One.”

⁹⁷ And after they left, Jesus said, to them, He said, after the disciples of John left, said, “What did you go out in the wilderness to see? Did you go out to see a man dressed up in fine . . . ?” No, he was too far from Hollywood for that. So He said, “Did you go to see a man in fine raiment?” Said, “They’re of king’s palaces.” He said, “What did you go to see, a—a—a reed that just any denomination could blow any way it wanted to?” Oh, no. Certainly didn’t.

⁹⁸ “So what did you go to see? A prophet?” Said, “Yes, you went to see a prophet, and a greater, he is more than a prophet.” Said, “This is that Elias, this is that one that it is said by the prophet, ‘I send My messenger before My face.’” Said, “Verily I say unto you, there’s never been a man borned of a woman as great as John the Baptist.”

⁹⁹ He never condemned him, He knowed that he was anointed with the spirit of Elijah, and that spirit was on him, that’s what did it.

He knowed everything was running all right, everything was running according to schedule.

¹⁰⁰ John, why was he a greater than—than all the prophets? Now, if you're spiritual, you'll catch something. Why was he the greatest? All the other prophets had spoke of the Messiah, but John introduced Him, he was the one that presented Him. So will it be in the end time. Everything is running according to schedule.

¹⁰² Our message last Sunday was trying to show you what God did to Abraham and to his Seed after him. And we found out, at every junction He taken Abraham, He took His Seed, through justification, through sanctification, through the baptism of the Holy Ghost, through the placing of a Son, and then God came in human flesh, turned His back to Sarah's tent, and told what she was thinking in her heart.

¹⁰⁴ He is right on schedule. The prophet said there will be a time that would be not day nor night, but in the evening time, it shall be Light. He is right on schedule.

¹⁰⁵ He has done come through justification, Luther Age; sanctification, Wesley Age; Pentecostal Age, done placed His gifts into the church; and now, appeared to us in our flesh as Jesus said He would.

¹⁰⁷ The evening Lights are shining. What is He? The same Jesus. The same sun that rises in the east is the same sun that sets in the west, the Son of God rose on the eastern people. What did He do to prove to the Samaritans and the Jews that He was Messiah? By showing a sign to them, that He was the Prophet that Moses spoke of.

¹⁰⁸ The Samaritan woman witnessed the same thing, saying, "We know that when Messiah cometh, He'll tell us these things. But Who are You?"

He said, "I am He."

109 She run into the city and said, “Isn’t This the very Messiah? The Man told me what was wrong with me, what I’m doing. Isn’t That the Messiah?” And the people believed it. He did that to the Samaritans and to the Jews, but not to the Gentiles, ’fore the Gospel went to the Gentiles He was already glorified and in Glory.

110 “But it shall be Light in the evening time.” What did the church do? Went off into Catholicism, organized a church; then Luther pulled out for justification, for the Seed; then Wesley come from Luther, sanctification; then the Pentecostals, and they organized, and on and on and on, their systems, and on down.

111 Now we get to the last days, what is it? But in the evening time, before the body was changed of Sarah and Abraham to receive the promised son, He came, set with them, talked with them, and done a sign before them; and Jesus referred to it. We’re not behind, don’t look back to what Luther said, what Wesley said, look what Jesus said, look at the sign where we’re at.

112 Don’t look back, what somebody else said, look what He said, He was the One, said it. And the same sun that rises in the east, sets in the west. There has been a dismal day, it certainly has been, enough Light to see how to join churches and make organizations and so forth.

113 But that real power and manifestations of the Presence of God has not been seen for years and years and years. We felt it, we know that it is here, we seen gifts work with it, but when we see Him come visible among us, with power in His Church to reach up on the hem of the garment of that Master and touch it, bring back down His power here, and speak through His people here and reveal, making Him God, God with us! Oh, yes!

114 John, God open the prison doors tonight and let you out. “Blessed is he, who is not offended in Me,” not a mind reading, or a telepathy, but a power of a risen Christ, Who is soon coming.

Let us pray.

115 Dear God, as the evening Lights are shining, It puts the eyes of many out, but others are using It to walk in. I pray, God, that tonight, that You will give the evening Lights again, and to the, this evening people, and may they see the power of Your resurrection, for You said, Yourself, that, “The works that I do shall you also.” And we wonder what works that You did. Then we find in John the 5th chapter, the 19th verse, that You said, “I do nothing until I see the Father doing it first.” Then You promised that, we know it’s true.

116 Now, for once more, Lord, and then it’s complete. And may many of the Johns that’s shut up today in prison, fine men and women, that know You as their Saviour, and they been wondering, O God, may they see that You're right on schedule, you're right on time. Grant it, we ask, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

¹¹⁷ Now, just before we have our altar call, I just a little late tonight, and I thought last night I preached . . . I'm going to tell Billy I sure made it tonight. He told me I couldn't preach less than a hour and a half, but I sure got it out that time, by the help of the Lord.

¹¹⁸ Now, I believe we give out prayer cards yesterday, or, did he give out any today? Or, what was them ones? One to a hundred, I believe he give out yesterday, wasn't it? What was that? A's? A's. All right. Where'd we start? We went, we started from one yesterday, didn't we? One? Well, let's start from the back of them. Let's take, let's start, get about, just a few up here, 'cause our time is get- . . . Let's start from eighty- . . . [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

¹¹⁹ How many has never been in one of the meetings before? Raise your hands. Just looky there, half the meeting. If Jesus Christ . . . How many knows that Jesus Christ has already healed the sick, already saved the lost? Now, He couldn't save you or heal you, He would just tell you He has already done it, you have to believe it.

¹²⁰ But He promised that the works that He did, would we do also, and especially in this evening time. How many knows that, believes that's the truth? Does It say, "He's the same yesterday, today, and forever"? He certainly is the same yesterday, today, and forever. All right. If He is, then may He act that way.

¹²¹ Now, all you in the prayer line, standing there, that's a strange to me, that you know that I don't know nothing about you, raise up your hands, all that know. Every one of them.

¹²² All right, all out there, you people that hasn't got a prayer card, and you want to be healed, and you know I know nothing about you, raise up your hands, all the people.

¹²³ Every person in the building that knows that I know nothing about you, raise up your hands, everywhere. I don't think there's a person that I can see that I know. If I'm not mistaken, this is a preacher from Arkansas, setting right here, I believe. These lights, you see, I—I can't see him too well, but I think that's a preacher from Arkansas.

¹²⁴ How many knows that one time there was a woman come in the prayer line? There was a lady come into, she said in her heart, "If I can only touch the border of that Man's garment, I'll be made well," she had a blood issue. You remember that? And she slipped through the crowd, and she touched, about like that. Now, you would never felt that. And you know, Brother Tommy, the underneath garment of the Palestinian, the big long robe, they wore underneath garment on kind of the dust, the road picking it up.

125 Now, if she touched the border of that garment, went back out in the audience. . . . And Jesus said, “Who touched Me?” Now, that was the Son of God. “Who touched Me?”

126 And Peter rebuked Him, said, “Well, all. . . what be. . . why, the people think there’s something wrong with You. They are, why, they are, everybody is touching You.” You know, “Hello there. How are You, Reverend?” and so forth, you know, “Rabbi.”

127 He said, “But I perceive that I got weak.” How many know that virtue is strength? Certainly. “Strength went out of Me. Somebody touched Me.” And He turned around, kept looking over the audience, until He found where it was at, and He said, told her about her blood issue had stopped because of her faith had saved her. Is that the truth?

Well now, is He, tonight, you minister brethren, that we eat with this morning. . . ?

128 This brother here, I believe, is the brother that he talked about all the degrees he got in—in—in a Baptist school, Doctor, and Ph.D., and I don’t know what all, he was telling us about it, but he had to forget it all, like Paul, to know Christ.

129 So, then, but the Scripture teaches us over in Hebrews that He is a High Priest, now, that can be touched by the feeling of our infirmity. That’s right. How many knows that to be so? Well, then if He is the same yesterday, today, and forever, how would He act if you touched Him? See? He’d act the same, wouldn’t He? “A little while and the world sees Me no more, yet ye shall see Me; for I’ll be with you, even in you; to the end of the world; the works that I do shall you also.” Is that right? And He promised this would come to the Gentile people, not down through the Lutheran Age, Wesleyan Age, but at the end time it would happen.

130 Now, don’t you see? He is right on time, right on, and remember, this has done went around the world. So we’re at the end, there’s no doubt, no doubt. But you touch His garment.

Now, “What is it, Brother Branham?”

131 It’s not me. And it wouldn’t do a thing to me if you didn’t do it. It’s—it’s you, just as much into it as I am. It’s got to be your faith that does His. . . touches Him, so that He will speak through me. It’s just a gift to yield myself to Him, just give Him my eyes, my mind, my tongue, my being, now, I don’t know none of you, but it’s—it’s Him speaking through there, see. It’s Him doing that. So it—it isn’t me. So what caused it to do it? I don’t know you.

You say, “About me, Brother Branham?”

I don’t know.

“About me?”

¹³² I don't know, but He does know, so you touch Him, then He just uses me, back. So, see, it's you and I together, as His servants. And He makes Himself known to His people, that He is right on time, He is right with the schedule, just exactly, just before the end time, when the evening Lights would shine.

Now, If He will do that, how many will love Him and believe Him and accept Him? God bless you.

¹³³ Now, Heavenly Father, the rest is in Your hands. I commit myself and this audience to You. Just one case will prove it, Father. In the Name of Jesus Christ, let it happen. Amen.

¹³⁴ Now, be real reverent, don't get up no more, set still. Be real reverent just a few moments.

¹³⁵ Now, one Word from Him will mean more than I could say in fifty, a hundred lifetimes, just one Word from Him.

¹³⁶ Now, you out there now that don't have no prayer card, or wherever you are, whatever your condition is, you just say, “O Great High Priest, let me touch You. And Brother Branham don't know me, and then You turn him around to me, and let him tell me what I'm praying about, let him tell me what's wrong with me, he don't know me, here, oh, something that I'm thinking, or doing, or whatever it is, let him tell me, I'll believe You.” Cause the Bible said that's just the way He would do. That's the way He did do, that's the way He will do.

¹³⁷ And you see, friends, if one time made Jesus feel weak, what would it do to me, a sinner? You will never know until we meet at the gate up there, what I . . . what's . . . what the price is. But that's, I'm not complaining, I'm thanking God, you see; just so that you'll understand.

¹³⁸ Well, days, we come down, and they give out prayer cards, and then along, I pick up those prayer cards along, down through the week of—of picking out some here, and some over here, and down here, so it won't, everybody won't rally for prayer card number one. See? So they, and then, the boy, before he gives them out, he comes down, and stands before the audience, and mixes these cards up, mixes them all up. I guess you seen him do that. All right.

¹³⁹ Then he goes down, if you want one, he give you one. Then the boy can't say, “Well now, I gave her number one.” He don't know himself, he just passes it up, see, mixes up, gives you, he might give you ten, and the next one by the side of you, ninety-five.

¹⁴⁰ So then, somewhere along through the week, I keep, I'll call from twenty to thirty, or from fifty to ninety, or ninety back to twenty, or somewhere along like that, wherever the Lord lays upon my heart, 'cause, that way, why then, just wherever the Holy Spirit leads to call.

141 Happens to be tonight, by that leading, this woman, a colored woman, me, a white man. I'm a stranger to you? We do not know one another? This is our first time meeting?

See now?

142 Now, if the Holy Spirit, still remains the Holy Spirit that was in Christ, is in us tonight, if that's the same Spirit, then It'll do the same work. If this is true, the Holy Spirit, then It'll do the work of the Holy Spirit, if . . . It'll do the work of Jesus.

143 And that way you can be sure, then, what He was back there, you know what He is now. So let's take Saint John the 4th chapter, there was, when He, being a Jew, met a Samaritan woman, and He talked to her a few minutes to catch her spirit, and then He told her of where her trouble was. And she said, "Sir, I perceive You are a Prophet. We know when the Messiah cometh, He'll tell us these things." And she said to Him that.

And He said, "I am He that speaks to you."

144 And she run into the city and said, "Come, see a Man Who has told me the things I've done. Isn't This the very Messiah?" And all the people believed, and every one, Jesus never done it to one more person, but the whole city believed on Him. He never healed anybody, just went in there, declared Himself. The woman . . . And the Bible said that the whole city believed on Him because of the testimony of the woman.

145 Now, if that was Jesus yesterday, and He can come do the same thing, as an African girl and an Anglo-Saxon man standing here, and if He can reveal to me something that you are here for, something that you have done, or something like that, you know—you know whether it's the truth or not. You certainly would. And then, if He can tell you what has been, certainly He can tell you what will be. You believe that?

146 To all the colored people here, white too, and whatever more, you believe that with all your heart? All right.

147 Now, if any of you people don't believe this is the truth, and you believe it's psychology, I haven't got no Ph.D., you come here and do it yourself.

148 I'm waiting for you.

149 Then if you're afraid to come, accept it, or keep still about it, see.

150 I said that because I was led to do it. There is something going on that I—I know about.

151 You're aware that something's going on here, too. One of your troubles is nervousness, really extremely nervous.

152 There it comes, "He guessed it." (Ever, you get that all right?) I could say, "Somebody out there is nervous, somebody, the Lord said something," but who is that somebody? This is that somebody.

153 Stand . . . Just she has got a nice spirit, we see that this is. Nervous? You got trouble with your shoulder too. That's right. You got heart trouble also. Is that right? You got a burden on your heart. Is that true? It's about a boy. Uh-huh. He's in an institution, hospital, you're praying about him. You want me, tell you who you are? Mrs. Richardson, go, believe.

154 You will never know what that does to me, it just kills the very life. Now, real reverent, every one.

155 How do you do, sir? We are strangers to each other, we are, but Jesus knows us both and has fed us both. If God will just let me know what you are standing here for, so I wouldn't have to go in too much detail. See, a whole, got a whole line standing there, and others out there praying. See what it does to me.

156 But if He would just tell me something about you, you would believe? Of course, one of the things that you're wanting to pray for is your eyes, course, you're wearing glasses, anyone can see that.

That's not all that's the matter with the man. There's something else, because he's got a shadow over him to death, his eyes wouldn't do that.

157 It's TB, tubercular, you had an operation for it, wasn't successful, hasn't done like it should have done. Is that right? You believe now, it's going to be all right? Just believe with all your heart.

158 Would you believe that He is the Son of God and healed you? Will . . . You would? Then just walk on by, saying, "Thank You, Lord." That ulcer will get all right.

159 I don't know you. We are strangers to one another. Do you believe Jesus Christ to be the Son of God? Do you believe He sent me as a messenger to the Church in this last days, to produce this Scripture and give a gift? Not because it was me. Not because He had to get, He had . . . He probably, usually does get somebody, don't know nothing, so He can show Himself. See? Do you believe that these things that I speak of is truth by the Scripture?

She seems to be so full of sorrow is the reason I—I was talking to her a minute.

160 Yes, it is, the first thing is for yourself, you've had a—an operation. And that was a female, lady's trouble, a clean-out of all the inside of the female organs was removed. But it—it backfired, it done something. Now, just a moment. It's . . . the doc- . . . it's ruptured, it ruptured and you had to return, you had to go back.

¹⁶¹ But your—your, that ain't really your sorrow. Your sorrow is about a child, it's your child. And it's—it's had some disease, or something wrong, TB. And now it has some kind of a weak spells like, that's right. You got another one that you're bothered about, and it's got a ear trouble. That's right. Your name is Mrs. Smith. You go, believe the Lord and it will be . . .? . . .

Do you believe? Have faith. Just—just have faith, believe.

¹⁶² How do you do, lady? We are strangers to each other. I—I don't know you. As far as I know, I've never seen you in my life, and we just meet here for the first time. If I—if I could do something for you and wouldn't do it, then I'd be a—I'd be a bad person, I'm not—not, I oughtn't to be standing behind the pulpit here as a minister.

¹⁶³ And I—I could not help you. And if He was standing here Himself, and wearing these clothes that He give me, He could only prove that He was Messiah that had did for you, but you'd have to have faith that He did it for you, or it—it wouldn't work anyhow. Isn't that right? But if He would stand here and tell you something, what your trouble is, or what you done, what you ought not have done, or something about it, then you would have faith to believe it, wouldn't you?

Would that raise the faith of the audience now? You're dimming out to me.

¹⁶⁴ Well, you had an accident, bothered in the head. And then you're having trouble in your left side. That's right. Complications, so many things wrong. That is true. Yes, ma'am. If God would tell me who you are, would it help you? Miss Terry. God bless you.

Do you believe with all your heart now?

He heals heart trouble, doesn't He? You believe He does? Just go right ahead saying, "Thank You, dear God, thank You." Yes, sir.

You believe He heals arthritis and makes people well? All right, just come on, believe it with all your heart. God bless you.

A lady's trouble and heart trouble. You believe He will make you well? All right. Go right on your road rejoicing, saying, "Thank You."

You're young to have anemic condition, but do you believe He transfuses blood? Go, say, "Thank You, Lord." Go, believing.

Sinus and every, oh, you believe He heals it? Just go, say, "Thank You, Lord Jesus."

165 You will have to have an operation for that tumor, but you believe God will heal you with it? All right, all right, just go right on your road rejoicing, saying—saying, “Thank You, Lord.”

Come. Come, lady. You believe He heals nervousness? All right, go on your road rejoicing, saying, “Thank You, Lord.” Amen.

What if I didn’t say nothing to you? Would you believe me anyhow? Come here. In the Name of Jesus, may she be healed. Go, believing.

Come. Just a moment, just a moment, something happened somewhere.

Did those people going by there, was in the prayer line, going back there? Oh, yes. That might have been what . . .

166 Mister, setting right back here in the row, setting right here looking at me, you are suffering with a prostate trouble. Yes, sir. Setting there, yes, sir. Um-hum. Yeah. Have you a prayer card? You don’t have a prayer card, do you? You don’t need it, your faith healed you.

167 This second woman from there, is your wife. That’s right. I see you in a home together. And she suffers with trouble with her liver. That’s right. If it’s right, raise up your hand. Go home, Jesus Christ makes you well.

168 That lady setting there, next to you, has something wrong with her tongue. You believe, lady? If that’s true, raise up your hand. All right. Go home.

169 You, setting on the end out there, what about you? There It is over you now, got bladder trouble. That’s right. All right. You believe? All right, go home and be well.

Do you accept it? What did they touch?

170 Here—here set a man who started crying, setting right back here, this man, it’s that young fellow. Now, that man, I never seen him in my life. But listen, son, you got stomach trouble. That’s right. But you was praying, the Spirit come upon you, a real wonderful feeling. If I am a stranger to you, wave your hand like this. I don’t know you. Is that what’s trouble with you? Wave your hand. All right, you’re healed. Jesus Christ makes you well.

171 This lady setting right back there, suffering with epilepsy, do you believe that God will make you well, heal you? Do you believe it? If you will accept your healing, them spells will leave you, you won’t have it anymore. Believe it.

172 The little lady, setting there, looking at me on the side with her hand up like this, something wrong with her ankle, you believe that God will make you well? All right, you can have your healing.

¹⁷³ This lady standing here with your hand up, you are ready for an operation, that ol' tumor, but God will take it out, make you well. You believe it? Go, believe it.

This kindly woman, with a white band around her head here, colored lady, gallbladder trouble. You believe God will heal you?

¹⁷⁴ What about you in the wheelchair? You believe me to be His prophet? You will die setting there. You have one chance to live, like the lepers was, that sat at the gate of Samaria. I cannot heal you, Sister, I'm no healer. But those Samaritans, they said, "If we set here, we'll die, if we go in the city, we'll die. So the only chance we got is go to the camp of the enemy, if they kill us, we're going to die anyhow, but if they save us, we'll be alive."

¹⁷⁶ Let's rise and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Rise up. If you'll believe Him, stand up on your feet, in the Name of Jesus Christ, and accept your healing. Amen.
