
THE QUEEN OF SHEBA

Now while we approach His throne:

² Our Gracious, Heavenly Father, we humbly come into Thy Presence with bowed heads and also bowed hearts here, for we realize that this one thing: that we, someday, shall stand in Thy Presence to give an account for our lives, therefore while we are living and have our right mind, we long to find peace, and to know that the Blood has been applied at the lintel of the door of our hearts and upon the posts.

³ And we stand in reverence today before Thee to ask that You will cover our sins, our unbelief, with the Blood of the Lord Jesus, and at that Day we might stand faultless and blameless in the Presence of God, covered by the Blood of His Own Son.

⁴ And, Lord, we would ask that You would bless this group of people, that has gathered here this afternoon for no other purpose but to magnify Thy Name, and to add to the Church those that would be saved, and to do all that lays within our power to see the Kingdom of God, and the purpose of God established in the earth.

⁵ Bless these, my brethren, who are here on the platform, these ministers, pastors, shepherds of the flock. We pray, Lord, that something will be done, that will stir them like never before. Let the Holy Spirit come among us this afternoon and do the exceedingly abundantly above all that we could do or think.

⁶ And we ask, Lord, for their flocks that has gathered in, that they will be inspired, and the Christians will—will be more determined to live for You than ever before in their lives. And for the—the stranger that's within our gates today, we would pray especially for them, that they, too, might join with this great fellowship of believers if they have not already did so.

⁷ And we would ask, Lord, and not forget those that are convalescent, that are shut in because of sickness and troubles, we ask that You'll be near unto them. Heal their sickness and straighten out their rough places, Lord, that they, too, might run with patience the race that's set before us.

⁸ When we leave today, may we go to our homes, like those coming from Emmaus, saying these words: "Did not our hearts burn within us, as He talked to us along the way?" Let this all be to the glory of God, for we humbly bow our heads and our hearts as His servants, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

9 May be seated. I am so glad today to be here at the Klamath Falls, in this lovely, little auditorium with these friends of Christ, and to continue our fellowship with the—the Holy Spirit in the way that He has dealt with us and done for us, we certainly do appreciate all His blessings.

10 And last evening when we saw many come down to the altar to surrender their lives to the Lord Jesus, how we thank the Lord for that! That's the main purpose that we are here for. For I do believe in the full Gospel, and Divine healing, and all that Christ died for, but if you get healed by Divine healing, sooner or later, if you live long enough, you'll be sick again.

11 Someone said one time, there was a man that was a critic, wrote in a—a book, a critic of a famous denomination of church, and he wrote in the book a criticism of my ministry, and he said, "Well," he said "to show that . . . What I draw the conclusion about the meetings was this," said, "there was no doubt but what there was some power there that would understand the secret of the heart." Said, "I had friends there that had that discernment was on them," and said, "they knew that was right."

12 He said, "But for the healing, it could not have been right," he said, "because that there was a man setting in the balcony," which was a friend of his at another church, a brothering church, neighboring church, "the man had a serious kidney trouble which he had had for many years." And said, "Brother Branham called the man by name, and we brought him in there from another city."

13 And said, "He told him of his serious kidney condition, and even some things that happened along the road when he was setting in one of the balconies," and said, "we know that was true." And said, "The man was normal and well for about three years, which he had not been since a boy, and then," said, "it come on him again." Said, "Therefore it could not been of God," said, "because if God had healed him, he would have been well, for if a man is once healed, he's healed."

14 It just goes to show, how if . . . a person has to be ordained of God to believe, or they'll never believe, anyhow, they have nothing to believe with. See? They just don't have no depths of their—of their—their soul. If . . . I have knowed of many men that has been put under a oxygen tent, and given penicillin, and so forth, by the doctor, and completely healed with say, pneumonia, and the person left the hospital completely well with pneumonia, and a week later die with pneumonia. He just taken pneumonia again, that's all, but he was healed.

15 And then when the late, honorable Brother Jack Coe, had his trial, when a certain denomination of church has took sides with a infidel to fight against Brother Coe down in—in Florida at his trial. And then the judge, willingly to show justice, and yet the church men, as the paper gave, had turned against Brother Coe, and had joined up with Joe Lewis, the free thinkers, infidels, and calling themselves a notable church, but just because they were so against Christ, and against healing. But shows how it comes out all right.

The judge said, “Mr. Coe, do you still claim that this child was healed?”

He said, “I claim Christ healed the child.”

¹⁶ And he said, “He took his braces off on one side of the platform in the presence of Mr. Coe, walked across the platform, and fell at his mother, crippled.” And he said, “Could you show me any place, if there’s anyone here can show me any place in the Bible that Christ ever did a trick like that, I’ll be willing to forfeit the case.”

¹⁷ And Reverend Gordon Lindsay, one of your Oregon boys here, raised up, said, “I can produce the case.” And Mr. Lindsay gave him the case, he said, “One night Jesus came walking on the waters.” And he said, “Peter screamed from the boat, and the rest of them said, ‘If Thou be the Christ, the Lord, bid me to come to You on water.’ And Peter stepped down out of the boat and started walking towards Jesus, normally, on the water, but when he got scared, he sank.”

¹⁹ I might say to this audience this afternoon, “How many is Christians?” Perhaps ninety-five percent, or maybe a hundred, raise up their hands, they are Christians. As long as you believe that, all right, but the minute that you begin to think that you’re not, that’s the time you start sinking, right there, that’s the time your testimony is negative. Divine healing lasts just as long as your faith lasts with it, your salvation the same, because every—every thing of God is by faith, and nothing of God’s can be proven by natural.

21 And then if you say that you're saved, and still live for the things of the world, your fruits prove that you are not saved. See? Certainly. I've always said that I'm very strict, I believe holiness, exactly. And I said, I. . . But if you just make yourself dress like a holy person, or act like a holy person, that doesn't make you a holy person. See? You could just be making out that, but if the Spirit within you makes you live that way, then you know you're all right, that's how you judge yourselves, then you're not judged, or, you're not condemned with the world, as long as you have judged yourself by the life that the Spirit within you makes you live. Oh, that's God.

22 Now, in these meetings, our . . . we do not have, what we call, major on Divine healing. Because Divine healing is a minor, and you can never major on a minor. You—you . . . Divine healing is just something that God added to the Church. And no one can preach salvation of the soul without preaching Divine healing for the body. It's just like if an animal had me by the side here, and was just cutting my side out with his paws, there's no need of just chopping off his foot, or, his paw that he's got in my side, just knock him in the head, it kills the whole animal.

23 Well, that's the way that Christ did when He died for sin, He killed every attribute of sin, see, He killed the whole thing. And before we had any sin we had no sickness, sickness is an attribute of sin; without sin they had no sickness. And when . . . Sickness is a result of sin, and you cannot deal with sin without dealing with sickness. "He was wounded for our transgressions, with His stripes we were healed." So when you stop the sin question, you also affect the sick question, all of it is taken care, together. And that's why Christ died, a full man, a full death, a full resurrection, for a full Church, for a full Gospel. Right. And therefore, it all goes together.

24 Now, we notice . . . You say, "Well then, Brother Branham, your ministry is noted as Divine healing."

25 Sure, certainly. Divine healing attracts. It . . . About eighty-five percent of Jesus' ministry was Divine healing. Did you know that? As ol', the late Dr. F. F. Bosworth used to say, "You never show the fish the hook, you show him the bait; he grabs the bait, and he's got the hook."

26 So that's the way it is. People come to—to see the power and the miracles of God, and when they see that, they, actually God catches them with the hooks in the jaw right there, 'cause they know that there is something real.

27 When I went into Bombay, India, and many of the other places . . . They are not . . . Archbishop of the Methodist church, and them, met me there at the . . . when they had garlands and everything hanging out, they said, "Well, Brother Branham, don't come here saying you're a missionary," said, "we know more about the Bible than you Yankees will ever know."

28 And that's about the truth, yeah. It's a Eastern Book. Well, It's . . . If you go, ever go to the East and study the Bible, It's—It's a brand new Book than what you read up here in the West. We try to make an Eastern Book compare with the Western way of living, you can't do it. The parables and things are just perfect, they're still there. And they had the Bible two thousand years before we was a nation, so there you are. See?

29 They said, "We know about the Bible, we understand that God has given you a gift that makes this Bible live again, that's what we're interested in, not missionaries," said, "we have plenty of that here. But we understand that—that God has given a gift to you that will make this Bible live Its life again, a Book of Acts over." Said, "That's what we're interested in knowing."

30 I said, "Jesus Christ remains the same yesterday, today, and forever, that's just exactly." I said, "He hasn't changed one bit." And that's when the Lord began to work in there.

31 Now, I . . . We have great men all . . . America is going to be more condemned than any nation in the world at the Day of the Judgment, because it's had such great men in it, in its beings, in its walls here, inside its—its domain, because that there's been revival after revival sweep across this country, and yet people continually indulge right on in sin, getting worse every day. See? The church, even itself, cooling off and getting away from God. It's a pity. But what can we do about it? The Bible predicted these things would come, and it's going to be here.

You say, "Well, what are you crying out about it?"

32 Because someone has to cry out against the wrong, so that at the Day of the Judgment, there'll be a voice recorded, that's right, that you know they knowed better, and all the of sign.

33 Not long ago, when we were coming into Bombay, I just . . . Something come on my mind then. I was reading an article in the paper that where they said, "The earthquake must be finished, the birds are flying back." About three days before the great earthquake came, as you read in your paper . . .

34 Why, all India isn't like this country, it's got . . . their fences are not woven wire as we have, and their buildings are mostly all built out of rocks they can pick up on the fields, their fences are built out of rock. And the little birds go back into these rocks and make their nests, and the cattle in the afternoon like this, they stand in the shade of those walls.

35 Well, they noticed that about two days before the earthquake appeared, all the little birds left the rocks, left their nests, their homes, and went out into the fields, lived in the trees; the cattle and sheep wouldn't stand around the walls no more, they stood out in the middle of the field, leaning against one another. And the earthquake came and shook the walls down. If the little fellows would have been there, they would have been crushed, the cattle would have been killed, the sheep would have been killed.

36 Now, if the God that led the animal life into the ark is still the same God, by instinct He led them away from danger, away from them walls which was falling. Well, if—a bird, and a sheep, and a cow, and the animal life can have instinct enough to be led away from danger, how much more ought the Church of God to flee away from the walls of the things of the world now, when it's just about ready to crumble? Get out friends, stand for Christ, believe in Christ.

37 Now, I believe that these ministries that we have today across the world, one different from the other one. . . I was watching Brother Oral Roberts just a few moments ago in the room, they have a television in the room at the . . . they had for me, and I was . . . I heard them announce that Oral Roberts. . . And I went over and turned the television on, they did, and I seen Oral praying for a little, sick baby from up in Canada, had a bad eye; and I believe the parents was Catholic. And Brother Roberts in his real way of faith, he slammed his hand down on the little baby and prayed for it, the little baby was healed. Now, that's a real gift of faith that Brother Roberts has.

38 And we know that Brother Jack Coe, he used to have a little anvil laying by the side of his desk, somebody come up with the glasses on, he would take the glasses off and break them up with the hammer, throw them over; have crutches, he would take their crutches first, and chop them up, and throw them away, he would burn every bridge.

39 They only had one Jack Coe, you know, the world couldn't stand two at one time. God rest his precious soul, he certainly was a gallant man of faith. One of the greatest I ever seen in my life was Jack Coe. Well, now, and he—he's gone on to Glory today. His work was finished, and Satan could not have took him till his work were finished.

40 Now, now, there—there are men one different from the other, altogether. And in the ministry the Lord has given me, most those men were theologians, great teachers and scholars, mine is not, mine is more of a prophetic message. And the way I teach Divine healing is a work at the cross that has been completed for you, and if you'll just only recognize it, you can receive it.

41 Now, now, Brother Roberts and those great gallant men, you say, “How do you place their ministry to yours?”

42 They’re using Scripture by laying on of hands. Now, that’s true, that is a Bible Doctrine. How many knows that? “They shall lay hands on the sick, they shall recover.” But if you’ll just bear with me a moment, I want to show you that wasn’t a Gentile commission. No, sir.

43 Jairus said, “Come lay Your hands on my daughter, and she’ll—she’ll be healed.” Jewish, Jews always was laying on hands, everything is laying on hands.

44 But watch the Gentile, it wasn’t so, “I’m not worthy that You come under my roof, just speak the Word, my servant will live.”

45 And He turned around, said, “I never seen faith like that in Israel.”

46 There it is. We’re supposed to be on a higher level than that was. We’re living on the closer of the—the world’s end than we were then. The Gentile way is to believe the Word, exactly right, to recognize.

47 Look at that Gentile, he said, “I’m a man under authority,” He was a centurion, which means that he had a hundred men under him, a Roman centurion, and he—he said, “I’m a man under authority, and I say to this man, ‘Go,’ and he goes; this man, ‘Comes,’ and he comes. He has to, he’s under my authority. And I didn’t even thought myself worthy to come to You, none of my nation, I sent a Jew to You.” And said, “I. . . Only thing You have to do is just speak the Word.” What did he recognize there? That every sin, and every disease, and everything else was under His authority. “Just say, ‘Go,’ and it will go.”

48 See what he did? Now, that’s what I’m trying to get the American people to see. That it doesn’t. . . You don’t have to wait for a special time, for a certain evangelist to come through, and, to—to pray for you, your pastor is sufficient. If the pastor isn’t there, your neighbor is sufficient; if the neighbor isn’t there, your husband or wife is sufficient; and if there’s none of them there, just raise up your hands, He is sufficient always. Just wherever you are, believe it, believe it, it’s a finished work.

49 And last night, I wasn’t intending to. . . That discernment or gift, it weakens me, it troubles me quite a bit. And I’ve got a full month of meeting right ahead of me now. And then, I—I was trying to keep away from it for a night or two, and just go, preach a little while, if you could put up with it. And then at the end of the service, the Holy Spirit, when I started to leave after that altar call, the Holy Spirit moved down, I watched over the building, here went that Light moving from person to person. See, it was something ready to happen, and there it did happen. See?

⁵¹ Now, the American people are taught so many different ways, that's what makes it hard. Go into Africa, and to the Belgian Congo, or to Tanganyika, or wherever you wish to go, where some of them countries that hasn't been indocumated with so many different things, one of our ministers stand up and say, "Well, I don't know, that might be telepathy, I wouldn't fool with it."

Others stand up, "Oh, that's truly the devil, no one should ever fool with that."

The other stand up, "No, I believe it's of the Lord."

⁵² What does the people know what to do? They—they—they're just don't know how to receive it. It's supernatural, it's great, and they don't know how to receive it. But you go into there, they haven't any of those documents. They pack a idol under their arm, sprinkled with blood, only thing they know is their heathen god. When they see something, that heathen god cannot produce any supernatural, and when they see something supernatural take place, they're ready to break that heathen god and receive Christ.

⁵⁶ Now, they put that picture in the paper the other day about Billy Graham and about this Mohammedan giving the challenge. And you seen this other paper come out, and said, "Why didn't you call attention to that?" See? Well, they just lack a place of oasis, but some place that they could throw off on Brother Billy Graham, or something like that. But when it comes to Divine healing, they know it's right, they know the power of God, they seen it right there.

57 And—and so then, and here come all these cattle trucks, and the people that had been in these cots and stretchers the day before was walking down the street singing in their native language, "Only believe, all things are possible, only believe." I set in that window, and I wept like a baby, see, to see them coming down the street, see. Knowing that one day . . . And them even in tribal wars, but they were all one.

58 I got a—a clipping out of the Durban paper that said that within the space of six months after that in the Shangaan tribe alone, I forget how many truck loads of—of ammunition, and firearms, and rings, and things that they had brought back, and the . . . put back to their place, because the people were truly converted, they—they wanted no more to do with anything wrong. They . . .

59 And now here is one more thing before closing, forgive me if I hurt you, I don't mean to, what I can't understand in America where we're supposed to be civilized, each year our women takes off a little more clothes, and there stood those naked women, nothing on at all, a clout, standing there and never even knowed which was right and left hand, and as soon as they received Christ as personal Saviour, they folded their arms to walk away from the people and get some clothes.

60 And if Christ on a native woman, a heathen, will make her realize that she's naked, and to some of our own Pentecostal women, claiming to have the Holy Ghost, and continually stripping themselves out here to act like some movie star, or some other . . . I can't understand it. There's something went wrong somewhere, see.

61 Now, you make think I'm just an old foggy, but brother, that's only common sense. That's right. That's only Gospel truth, so there's something wrong somewhere, friend. What we need is somebody to say it, somebody to tell it, and somebody to live it. Now, that's exactly true.

62 Now, may the Lord help us. And talking like this, 'cause I know I don't want to take too much of your time, your churches will be tonight. You visitors, I know, had a good time at the meetings this morning, and they'll be having services tonight. And we put ours in the afternoon, so that we wouldn't interfere with that service. I want to pray for the sick. Each one of you that's here from visiting churches, you're welcome this week to come. We expect to have a great time in the Lord this week. Now, once more, may we pray before we open the Word.

⁶³ Lord Jesus, we are conscious of Your Presence, we know that You are here, and You've got Your children assembled together this afternoon, men and women who would die for You, freely. Men who are gallant, who stand in the pulpit and proclaim the Message of Christ without compromising any way, yet with meekness and sweetness. Father, we pray that You'll bless every one in Divine Presence.

⁶⁴ Now, the Bible says that "Faith cometh by hearing, hearing of the Word." And as I read, this afternoon, this little text that I have chosen for the message, I pray that You will take the Holy Spirit, and draw from it a context, that would bring the truth of Christ into every heart, and Divine healing in reach of every sick person.

⁶⁵ And when we pray for the sick, may You answer prayer. And may even before the line can be called and the sick be prayed for, God, I pray that in Jesus' Name, that You'll heal the people before that time comes, that they might know it doesn't lay within a man, it's in the power of their faith to believe on the Lord Jesus. We ask it, in His Name. Amen.

⁶⁶ In Saint Matthew the 12th chapter and the 42nd verse, a very familiar text to many of the folks who follow the meetings, I would like to try to approach it in around another—another way:

And the queen of the south shall rise up in the last days with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

⁶⁸ Now, Jesus at this time was rebuking the people, because they had not understood His ministry. And they were looking for a Messiah to come, they were looking for a— a Deliverer to take them out from under the yokes of their bondage. And when He came, He came in such a way . . . in the great day that they lived in, the most organized, ecclesiastical system the world ever knowed, they had it then; we are aware of that. God, through Moses, gave them the Ten Commandments, and they taken those Commandments and run them out into different sects, and so forth, like that.

⁶⁹ But all down through the age, there had been a little remnant was holding on to the truth of God, just a small group. The Church of God has always been in the minority. How many knows that? That's true, always in the minority. When Jesus came, there was just about a dozen, Simeon, John the Baptist, and—and Joseph and Mary, and just a few like that, was holding on with the truth.

⁷⁰ Now, and when He came, He came in such a different way than the people was expecting Him to come, or, had been taught that He would come, until He confused them in such a way, till they—they didn't recognize Him.

⁷¹ I believe it will be the same thing when He comes again. Each man has him a chart, "He's going to come riding on a white horse." The other one said, "No, He's coming on a white cloud." What difference does it make as long as He's coming? See? As long. . .

⁷³ But when Jesus came, He came exactly in the way that the Scriptures predicted He would come, only it didn't line up with their teaching of that day. They had the Messiah coming. . . They were watching for His Second Coming in the stead of His first advent, that's what they was confused on.

⁷⁴ He was coming in power. They was looking for Him to take a rod of iron and rule all nations, and when He come meekly, borned in a manger, illegitimate background behind him, as the world thought, borned in a manger, a peculiar Boy, all of His ways were odd, tearing up the churches, splitting them up, and tell them they were hypocrites, and Pharisees and—and the Sadducees and all of them, condemned the whole thing, and stood there alone by Himself.

And they said, "Why, we know that your word is wrong." Said, "In Israel it takes two to make a witness."

⁷⁵ He said, "I am One, and My Father that works in Me is the next One, so We have two. And if I do not the works of My Father then don't believe Me, but if I do the works of My Father, and you can't believe Me, believe the works that you might be saved." See? God was bearing record.

⁷⁶ Many people are following signs, it isn't the sign, it's the voice that goes with the sign. Moses, when he was given two signs, God told him, "If they won't hear the voice of the first sign, then they will hear the voice of the second sign." Each sign is just a sign. Man has gifts and things, but watch what is behind it. Satan can impersonate anything, almost, he is a impersonator, and he can impersonate. But watch the kind of a voice that it is. What does it do? The voice of the sign.

78 Now, Jesus had come just exactly the way that He . . . they said . . . the Bible said He would come, and He did just exactly what the Bible said He would do, and yet, they did not believe Him. He performed the Messianic sign and showed them that He was the Messiah, the very same chapter, and they called Him a Beelzebub, a devil, because He was able to discern their thoughts; and they thought that He was a devil.

79 Now, the Bible had plainly told them, Moses, their leader who they looked to, he told them that “When the Lord your God shall raise up a Prophet likened unto me, and it shall come to pass that whosoever shall not hear this Prophet will be cut off from the people.”

80 Now, the Messiah was to be a Prophet. And when this sign of the prophet was given among them, then oh, they didn’t look for that, they looked for a man with a rod of iron that could go out and do great things, and beat down a nation.

81 See, America is certainly sold on big things and noisy things, but God comes in neither big things or noisy things. When Elijah was back in the cave, there went a thunder by, God, he just let it pass by, a wind went by, they had rushing mighty winds and everything else pass by, but God wasn’t in it, but when a still small Voice spoke, the prophet veiled his face and walked out, He spoke.

82 It’s that still small Voice that we fail to hear, we’re looking for roars and thunders, and—and things like that, and sensations. But God . . . You can be deceived in sensation. We want to stay with the Word to know whether we’re right or not, that’s the Blueprint, stay with the Word, and the Word is right.

83 And the Bible had spoke and predicted the way He would come, and many of those who were ordained, before, to Eternal Life, they heard Him and they recognized Him. Philip, Peter, many of those, when they come up, He would tell them who they were, quickly, they would say, “That’s the Messiah.”

But the Pharisees couldn’t answer to their congregations, so they had to brand it something, and they just said, “It’s a devil.”

84 And Jesus was rebuking them, and upbraiding them cities that He had done great works in, because that their hearts was hardened, and they . . . And He was telling about in all ages, God in all ages, through every age, has had signs and wonders and a messenger in the earth, in all ages. Every age that ever come, He had a messenger.

85 And if the people believed that Message, the nation prospered, if it did not believe that Message, that nation was condemned and went into chaos. Just look back through the history of the Bible and you will certainly find it. If God sent a Message . . .

86 And usually the Message doesn't come with some great big blare, something big, it's something small. Watch Noah, the fanatic; look at Abraham; just watch down through the Bible, and even Jesus Himself: humble, lowly, outcast, black name behind Him, everything. Look at John: a man born in the wilderness, no schooling at all, piece of sheepskin wrapped around him and hairy all over, he looked like one of these here fuzzy worms, out there preaching repentance, and eating wild locusts and honey. Isn't that something?

87 And these great, fine, self-styled clergymen there, oh, schooled to the very point, could speak every Hebrew word exactly, and their grammar and their theology was perfect, and God took something like an ol' fuzzy worm out there in the wilderness and sent forth, and condemned the whole thing.

88 Even when Jesus come, He said, "There never was a man borned of a woman as great as John the Baptist." That's right. God does things small, but powerful.

89 Now, the Bible spoke, and said, speaking of John being a forerunner there, said, "Every high place will be brought low, every low place will be lifted up, the mountains will skip like little rams, and all the trees clap their hands."

90 What was it? An ol' fuzzy-faced man with a piece of sheepskin around him, drowning people, almost, with water, standing out on the banks of the Jordan, blasting away against the churches.

91 Look when Jesus come, they had expect the Messiah to come down the golden corridors, a full-grown Man with a rod of iron in His hand, driving chariots, and Angels all around Him, great big flowery things, and would come down and take over, and boost Rome out, and consume the whole thing, and give the kingdom over to Israel. What did He come? A Baby, Jehovah-Baby born in a manger over a manure pile. Right, that's exactly. In the stink of a stable He came down, no place He ever went to school, or ever entered school, nowhere at all, went about doing miracles and signs, and the people condemned Him.

92 When He come to be baptized down on the Jordan, just an ordinary Man walking along the side of the street, or, side of the road, come down into the wilderness to be baptized by this ol' bearded minister down there. See? God works His Own ways, and—and peoples, you got to humble yourself.

93 You know, great bright things is what blinds the eyes of people. Eve was looking for a new light, she got it. The Bible said in the last days that the devils would be . . . turn themselves into ministers of light. Look at the very first sin was ever performed, was Satan wanted a greater, and a brighter kingdom, a great thing, and went over in the north and set his own kingdom up to outshine Michael. See, it's always those bright things.

⁹⁴ We're not monkeys, monkeys reach after bright things, let's be men and women, sensible, set down, look at the Gospel, see what it says, and follow the leading of the Holy Spirit. You'll never be able to know God, until the Holy Spirit comes into you. That's exactly.

⁹⁵ The Bible said that "No man can call Jesus the Christ, only by the Holy Ghost." If you've never received the Holy Ghost, you don't know that He's the Christ yet; you remember that. You're only walking towards that Light.

⁹⁶ You can say, "My pastor said so." That's true. "My Bible said so." That's true. "My mother said so." That's true. "My church believes it's the Holy Ghost." That's true, but what about you?

⁹⁷ As an individual, you don't know until you've received It. And when you receive the Holy Ghost, then you are a witness that He's alive for evermore. Now, the Holy Ghost is within you, now, then you watch Him as He works. If the Life of Christ is in you, It will produce His Life in you.

⁹⁸ "The works that I do, shall you do also." The same works, because it's the same Life.

⁹⁹ If the life in a watermelon vine produces a watermelon, well, it'll, next branch comes out, it'll produce another watermelon, every time it'll be a watermelon. And if the church is really anchored in Christ, every church will write a Book of Acts behind it. That's exactly right, because that first one wrote a Book of Acts behind it. So, there we are.

¹⁰⁰ And Jesus had surely proved to them that He had give them the sign of the Messiah, that the end time was there for them, and they did not believe it. And He was upbraiding them and telling them. And He referred back then, back in the verse preceding this one, in the 41st verse, He preferred there, or referred, rather, to Jonah, "In the days of Jonah."

¹⁰¹ I always felt sorry for Jonah, so many people condemn Jonah. Why, Jonah was a prophet, he was a great man of God. You hear them say, "Oh, he's a Jonah." I believe that Jonah did just exactly what God told him to do.

¹⁰² I don't believe that any servant of God, led of the Spirit, can get out of the will of God, because as long as he's led by the Spirit, that's God's will. Sometimes he does things that he don't even know what he's doing hisself, and don't realize why he does do it, but it's God working it around for the good. "Everything works together for good to them that love God," said the Scripture.

103 And Jonah, surely, God told him to go to Nineveh, but somehow another, unknowingly to—to the prophet, he took the wrong ship, and went down to Tarshish, I've . . . , or, towards that way. A sea come up, and the waves begin to roll, and the winds blowed. I always felt sorry for Jonah. You know, they bound his hands and his feet, threwed him out of the ship, and a big fish swallowed him.

104 And anyone knows that when a fish eats its dinner, or, its meal, it goes to the bottom and rests its swimmers on the bottom of the water, the bottom of the lake. You feed your goldfish, and watch what happens, they will go right down at the bottom of that little jar and rest. He prowls through the water until he finds his food, after he's eaten, he goes down and rests.

105 Now, this big whale, the storm on the sea had come up, and Jonah had been thrown out, and God sent this whale by there to pick up Jonah, and he swallowed Jonah and went down into the bottom of the sea to rest himself. And there was Jonah, tied hands and feet, in the bottom of the sea, in the belly of a whale.

106 You talk about symptoms? Jonah had them, he—he had a right to have symptoms. Looky there, if he looked this way, it was a whale's belly, if he looked this way, it was whale's belly, everywhere he looked, it was whale's belly.

107 Now, there's nobody in here in that condition, is there, sister? You wouldn't be in that condition, or you there, or any of you. None of you is in that condition. Now, he didn't. . . No one was ever in that position that Jonah was in: his hands was bound, his feet was bound, he was in the belly of the whale, maybe twenty fathoms deep in the sea, and on a stormy sea. Talk about symptoms? He really had it. But you know what he said? "They are lying vanities, I'll not look at them no more, but once more will I look to Your holy temple."

108 Why? When Solomon dedicated that temple, he prayed up there, and he said, "If any Thy people be in trouble anywhere, and look towards this temple, then hear from Heaven, Lord." And he had confidence in what the—the prophet's prayer was for, that—that he would be heard from Heaven. And he refused to look at the symptoms of the whale's belly, and looked again towards the temple.

109 You can't hide a saint from prayer, I don't care where you go. It's. . . You can put him any condition, the Hebrew children in the fiery furnace, Daniel in the lions' den, wherever it may be, a real believer holds on to that prayer, I don't care what takes place, he holds on to that prayer.

110 You know, in. . . You know what happened? God made that whale sick at his stomach, and he—he vomited him up on the shore. Now, if God would answer Jonah's prayer under those conditions, at looking towards a temple that a man made, the temple where a man prayed, a temple where there was a mercy seat was overshadowed with the—the blood of a sheep, how much more will He today, when we look away from our symptoms, our crippled condition, our cancer, our tumor or whatever we have, or our sin, and look to the Throne of God, where Jesus stands at the right hand of the Majesty with His Own Blood to make intercession upon our confession?

¹¹¹ Forget your symptoms, if you . . . as long as you look at your hand and say, "It's twisted," it'll always be twisted. "I refuse to look at it, anymore, I look to Thy holy temple, O Lord." I'm telling you, something will get sick, Satan will, when you go to beginning like that. I want you see how God made this so real.

¹¹² Then, we're told that the Ninevites become idolaters, and they worshipped the animals; all idolatry worships animals. And then, we notice that—that their—their sea god was the whale, because he was the master of the sea, and their occupation at Nineveh were fishermen. And here all the men were out, thousands of them, a—a city as big as Portland, Oregon, and they were all out there in their boats fishing, and here come their god, whale-god in, licked out his tongue, and a prophet walked right out the gangplank.

¹¹⁴ The whale opened up his mouth, and out walked the prophet, their god, and he said, "Except you repent, in forty days this place will sink!"

¹¹⁵ Right in the Scripture we're reading here this afternoon, Jesus said, "As it was . . ."

¹¹⁶ Then, look what they asked there first, they said, "Show us a sign, Master," the Pharisees said to Him, said, "show us a sign."

¹¹⁷ He said, "A—an evil and an adulterous generation seeks after signs, and there will be no sign given them but the sign of Jonah. For as Jonah was in the belly of the whale three days and nights, so the Son of man must be in the belly of the whale three days and nights."

119 What was Jonah the sign of? The resurrection. The resurrection, that's the thing we're seeing now, the sign of the resurrection. Jesus lives, He isn't dead, He's in our midst, doing the same thing that He did then, that's the sign that that generation would receive.

120 You say, "Oh, He was speaking of the generation right then."

121 No, sir, look at the signs they received then from Him, He was speaking of this generation, "an evil and an adulterous generation." Looky here now in our country, adultery is like Sodom and Gomorrah, certainly it is, and on the increase daily.

122 "That evil and an adulterous generation will seek after a sign, and they'll get it." He promised they would get it, they would get a true sign from Heaven. Compare that with the days of Sodom, "So shall it be in the coming of the Son of man." I hope you get that. See? "There will be a sign given them," He said. God's Word exactly on the dot every place through the Bible.

123 Jesus said, "As it was in the days of Sodom, so shall it be in the coming of the Son of man." Look at that Angel down there to the Church elect, to what He done; look at Jesus, what He done in His generation; look down here at this generation, what He's doing now. They will receive a sign, but they won't believe it, there you are, but it come just the same.

124 "A evil and an adulterous generation will seek after a sign." And they will have it, it will be given to them. "As Jonah was in the belly of the whale three days and nights, so the Son of man will be in the heart of the earth three days and nights."

125 But the resurrection will be the sign, and the resurrection sign is given to the Church in this last days. The Angel of the Holy Spirit in the—in the meetings, showing the same things, doing the same things across the nation, proving that Jesus Christ has raised from the dead just the same yesterday, today, and forever. That's the generation that would receive it.

126 Then He comes to the queen, the queen, we call her the Queen of Sheba, "The Queen of the South," He said here, said, "she'll rise in the last days and condemn this generation. She'll rise in the last day," that's with the generation of the last days, "she'll rise with them and will condemn it, because she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and yet, I say unto you that a greater than Solomon is here."

127 Now, let's take the little queen in the days of Solomon, and listen close. Now, all Bible scholars know that the days of Solomon was the golden age of the—of the Israelites. That was the times they had no wars to amount to anything, they built the temple, and all the nations, after David, had feared Israel, and they brought in great things, and riches, and power, and a powerful army, no one bothered them.

¹²⁸ And then they had, God gave them a gift. God gives gifts in all generations, a gift of His Presence. Now listen, then we find out that Solomon, after he received this gift of discernment, it was put into the action, and people from everywhere believed him. Now, what if they would have turned that gift down? Why, they would have—they would have been a lost country. But they believed it, every one believed it, no matter what Solomon done, they still stayed with it. They believed that he was a servant sent from God.

¹²⁹ Oh, what if the Christian church tonight, what if the Christian church today could believe the Gift that God sent them? The Holy Ghost. What if they would receive It? What if all denominations would rally around the Holy Spirit, as Israel rallied around Solomon with that gift? The Holy Spirit is a Gift to the church, and the church turns it away and shuts it off with our doctrines, and our theologies, and things. Our man-made creeds, we shut Christ right out, don't let the Holy Spirit come in, no miracles, no shouting, no speaking with tongues, no praises of God.

¹³⁰ Well, if the Holy Spirit done that in the Book of Acts, It'll do the same thing today, because the Book of Acts is not the acts of the apostles, it's the acts of the Holy Spirit in the apostles. And It's the same Holy Spirit in the Church today, It would act the same way and give the same results. Why accept a substitute when the skies are full of the real Pentecostal power? We don't have to have a substitute, we can have the real. I know it's the truth, my brother, my sister, it's true, now, the acts of the Holy Spirit.

¹³¹ Notice in this—this queen now, or, Solomon, rather, first, we find out that in the days of his ministry, all the people rallied around, around Solomon. And everybody talked. . . There was nobody talking against him, everybody was for him.

¹³² Now, what if the whole Christian church today would rally around the Holy Ghost? Nobody say, "It's fanaticism." Nobody say It, that It isn't so. Every American would say, "Oh, my! In our nation we have received the Holy Ghost." What if our most-beloved President Eisenhower, and all the—the—the candidates, and so forth, of this election, and all the people were just in one accord, and they would be going around saying, "Oh, we are so blessed, we are so blessed! The Holy Spirit has visited us, and He's in our midst." He is.

¹³³ Look, when I stepped off the ship down there, the airship in—in India, they said, "We don't want to know your theology, we don't want to hear you say you're a missionary. We understand that God has give you a gift to make the Bible live again, we want that." That's it.

¹³⁴ Oh, brother! If the whole ransomed Church of God would rise in the power of the Holy Ghost, nations would fear this nation. They got atomic bombs now, and they're going to blow it to bits one of these days, and you know that. "The heavens will be on fire," said Peter, "and the earth will burn with the—the fervent heat," and so forth, we know it's coming. But what if we, if . . .

¹³⁶ How are you ever going to get away from it? Well, I'll tell you right now, the Church has a shelter, it's not made out of steel, it's made out of feathers, under His wings the Church will abide, and will be lifted up into Glory, away from the things of the world. Sure.

¹³⁸ Peter said on the Day of Pentecost, "Repent, every one of you, be baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins, and you shall receive the Gift of the Holy Ghost."

They say, "Well, that was just for them."

¹³⁹ Was it? He said, "For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to them that's far off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call." The Gift is to whosoever will, can come. And by the praying Americans, and these ol' forefathers that come forth fighting the good fight of faith and established this nation upon the principles of the Bible, and it's their children that's held on to God, that's brought the revival that's been brought in America.

¹⁴⁰ But they're in the minority, the others, the Communistic forces in the churches, and you see this big rally about these ministers, and all, in this great church doings here, even packing Communistic cards in their pockets, leaders of these international churches, and so forth, it's all just honeycombed all through. It has to come that way, that there is no other rock or no other foundation but Jesus Christ. "Upon that rock I'll build My Church, and the gates of hell can't prevail against It." Amen! That's the idea.

¹⁴² People, the Elected, the rest of them making fun of them, call them holy-rollers and fanatics, that doesn't mean one thing. But the. . . rest assure that it's the—the purpose of God that they would condemn you, that He might be able to condemn that. Certainly. If they don't. . . If they condemn you, they condemn Him, "For as much as you done to the least of these, My brethren, you have done it to Me, any of these that believe in Me. And these signs shall follow them that believe in Me." That's how you know. Not professing to believe, but "The signs that I do, they'll do also. That'll be a—a vindication, a voice to their ministry that they're telling the truth."

¹⁴⁴ Then, what? Notice, all the people rallied around Solomon, the gift was mighty, it done great things. They never seen anything like it, they knowed it had to come from God. Such discernment, they never seen such. All the passersby, they would want to go by and see Solomon, they want to see it.

¹⁴⁵ Why, Nehru, and other, and Khrushchev, and them, wouldn't be coming to this nation just to see what good roads we have to take over, they wouldn't want to be seeing what kind of a capitol buildings we have, how much riches we have, and how our farms, how much agriculture, or so forth, they wouldn't be coming to see that, if we all rallied around the Holy Spirit, they would be so hungry for God, they would be so scared of It, because they know that God controls every fiber of the earth.

¹⁴⁶ Yes, that's what we need today is—is men and women rallying around the Gift of God, the Holy Spirit. And the Holy Spirit working in them, showing His Presence with them, that they might, people, other unbelievers, might see that it is God.

¹⁴⁷ Now, we find out that the people passing by found out about Solomon, and his fame spread all over the world, and went all the way down, the Bible said, to the utmost parts of the earth. Now, that was the utmost parts of the known world at that day. And if you'll notice, it's quite a distance from Palestine down across the Sahara Desert, into where she was queen, the Queen of Sheba.

¹⁴⁸ Now, let's think, everybody coming by, would pass by the little queen, you know, and they say, "Well, we are travelers, we've been up in the certain-certain countries. Oh, you should go to Palestine. They are a mighty people, they're all of one accord, the whole nation is blooming in richness. And they got a man up there that's got a gift from their God, that that man performs just like their God would do, if He was standing there."

¹⁴⁹ You know, faith cometh by hearing, see. And that little queen would say, "What do you know about that?"

¹⁵⁰ Oh, then next fellow come by, "Yes, I. . . Little Queen, we've come by, and we've been traveling, our caravans with the camels. And—and we passed through Egypt, we come through all the countries, and when we come to Palestine, say, they've got a mighty God up there, a living God. Oh, we got gods in our country, of course, but they got a God that acts in His people, He's a real God, you should see it. They even took this man Solomon, and made him their king. And oh, their God is powerful, you should see Him."

¹⁵¹ You know, faith cometh by hearing, hearing of the Word. If a man has anything about him of God, when he hears the works of God, he will begin to hunger. She begin to consider taking a little trip. But she expect this. . .

¹⁵³ So, I can see her go over to her priest, and she said, "Holy father, I—I've heard great news of the Israelites, that their God up there has anointed one of their—their brethren, and he's a great man, that he shows wonders, and signs, and wisdom, and can discern the thoughts of the people, and great things that he's doing up there."

¹⁵⁴ I can hear the pagan priest say, "My child, you know you are a queen? You are a member of this church, the church of this great nation that you're a queen over? Did you know your great-great-great-great grandmother, and all down were queens before you? Would you disgrace your church and your people to—to attend such a fanatical meeting as that? Why, if gods was ever to do anything, our gods would do it in our church.” If that isn’t the attitude today, I never knowed it. Yes, sir.

¹⁵⁵ “Why,” she say, “but listen, I understand, that—that He is not Someone that—that we talk about. Now, you’ve talked about these idols here that we serve, and I’ve never seen one of them move all my life. And you keep telling what they are, and what they’re going to do, and what they will do, and what they did do, I’ve never seen one move of it. Only thing I’ve got is just some words here I’ve been reading about it. But they tell me that their God is alive. I want to find something real.”

¹⁵⁸ But you know what? If the hunger of God comes into a human heart, there’s nothing in the world going to stop them, that’s right, when the heart begins to hunger. David said in the Bible, “When the deep calleth to the deep.”

¹⁵⁹ Now, if there’s a deep calling, there’s got to be a deep to respond to it. You believe that? Now, in otherwise like this, if before there . . . Well, I read sometime here a few years ago in the paper, about a little boy eating erasers off of a pencil in school. Teacher would give him another pencil, he eat the eraser off of it. And his mammy found him one day out eating the pedal off of a bicycle, on . . . [Blank spot on tape—Ed.] . . . had to be a—a sulfur to respond to that crave. You see what I mean? In otherwise, before there can be a creation, there has to be a Creator to create the creation.

¹⁶⁰ And as long as you’re here today, you people that’s sick, hunting for Divine healing, because you believe that there is a God that can heal the sick that shows there is a fountain open somewhere for healing. Being that you’re wanting more of God, because that there is a fountain somewhere where you can find more of God. When the deep calls to the deep, there’s got to be a deep to respond to that call.

¹⁶¹ Now, the little queen, hearing about a living God Who was living with His people, it created a thirst. “Blessed are they,” said Jesus in

Matthew 5, “that do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.”

¹⁶² There’s a respond when you thirst, there’s something to quench that thirst. Our creeds, our denomination will never satisfy that thirst, you got to find the reality of a living God, and the only way you’ll ever do it, is be filled with His Spirit, That is the quenching of that thirst. He is the satisfying Portion to His Church, the All Sufficient One, that satisfies every longing. When a man leaves the things of the world and comes to Christ, he finds that all sufficiency in Christ, when he finds Christ.

¹⁶³ Now, then she begin to thirst, and the, course the priest told her she could not go. But, you know, there’s something about it, if a person wants to find God, there’s nothing going to stop them from it.

¹⁶⁵ Now, the first thing, she was the queen, and she had a long ways to travel, she had to leave her church, she had to forsake her—her priest, she had to forsake her church, but Jesus said that, “Whosoever will not even forsake father, mother, husband, wife, children, and all, and come after Me, is not worthy to be My disciple.” It’s a forsaking, a sacrifice, to give up.

¹⁶⁶ You say, “Well, I’m . . . I . . . You know, I belong to the certain clubs, I belong to these parties, and we all do . . .”

¹⁶⁷ You’ve got to forsake everything, you have to make your choice now. Are you ready to forsake everything to follow after Him? If God goes to putting a thirst in your heart, you’ll forsake everything in the world. I walked away from my own father and mother, a home. I got a wife and three children setting right out there now, if they would tell me, “No more preaching,” I would walk right straight away from home, yes, sir, as much as I love them, die for them right here easily, but Christ is all.

¹⁶⁸ He’s my objective, and I . . . my motive to Him is to sacrifice everything that I have to follow Him, whether I’m called a fanatic, whether I’m called a Divine healer, a holy-roller, whatever it might be. I don’t care for the things of the world, and I don’t believe any Christian does, we want to follow Christ. That’s my objective, follow Him, lift Him up. That’s what we need today, is people are that willing to sacrifice.

169 Now, the little queen had some smart ideas, I'd like for you to notice, she said, "Now, I have never seen this, I don't know nothing about it." So, I'd imagine the first thing the little queen did was purchase her a Bible, so she could read and find out. She said, "Now, if it's some kind of a put-up, it won't be according to the Bible, their Bible, but if their Bible has predicted such a thing, then it will be right."

170 Now, that's what Christians ought to do. When you come to a meeting, don't condemn, first search out the Scriptures. She . . . What if they would have been—what if they would have been that sincere with Jesus?

171 Said, "Search ye the Scriptures, for They are They that testify of Me, and in Them you think you have Eternal Life. You think you have Eternal Life, and They testify of Me." That's right, surely.

172 He told the Pharisees, those great clergymen of that day, said, "You can look at the sun, it's lowring, you say, 'Tomorrow it's going to be foul weather, and if it's clear tomorrow, it will be fair weather.'" Said, "You hypocrites! You're supposed to be clergymen, and you can discern the things of the world better then you can discern the signs of the time."

173 If that ain't the truth today! Everybody interested in who will be president. I am too, but what difference does it make? I want to know Who will be King of Eternity, Christ. That's the main thing. I want to know about my nation, I'm interested in it, I'm a American, I'm interested in my nation, but, brother, let that be second, my God is first. Yes, sir.

174 But the thing of it is, they take the nation, the things of the world, "Who will be, who will play this play with certain-certain movie star?"

175 Lot of people, many people today, church members, Pentecostal people, Baptists, Presbyterians can tell you more about the movie life than they can the Bible life. More children can tell you about Davy Crockett, or—or Gunsmoke, or some of them, they can about Jesus Christ, is because that's what they're taught in their homes. And then talk about juvenile delinquency? It's parent delinquency and church delinquency. Exactly right. Clergy delinquency of preaching the Word, and God working with the church, confirming the Word with signs following.

176 Ananias and Sapphira was living in the church, on the fat of the church and never called out and told their sins, because they're the heaviest payers there is in the church. Some Ananias with a great job can put in five thousand dollars a year, he could drink, smoke, gamble, commit adultery, and he can be deacon at the same time. Brother, I'm telling you, when the Spirit of God comes into the church, It would tear that thing open and rip it out, like He did when He come the other time to the temple, money changers.

¹⁷⁹ “Except a man be borned again, he can no wise enter into the Kingdom.” (Deal with it. . . ? . . .) “And these signs will follow them after they’re borned again.” See? That’s what Jesus said. That brings the mark of distinction to the Church, the signs and wonders of the resurrected living Christ, living in the Church. They don’t want it today.

¹⁸⁰ That little queen wanted it. But the first thing she wanted to know, “Was it Scriptural or not?” She studied all the Scriptures. Then she said, “I’m going to do another thing, I’m a queen, and if that message is right, I’m going to support it.” And she ladened camels with gold, and myrrh, and frankincense, and all kind of costly apparel, and such. She said, “If it’s right, if that God is real God, then I’m through with this thing I have been serving, and I’m going to support it with everything I got.” That’s the attitude.

¹⁸¹ Listen, God is not concerned so much about your money, but He wants you to support Him with all you are, He don’t want ten percent of your money, so much as He wants your time, your talent, your testimony, and all that you are to be given into His hands, so He can control you. He wants to be your Lord, not only your Saviour, but your Lord, lordship, to govern you. And He . . .

¹⁸² And she said, “I’ll support it if it’s right, if it’s not, I can bring my money back home.” That’s a good, sensible thing for a lot of Americans to listen to, I think so today, too. Every kind of a program, and support it, and condemn the very thing that you believe in. That’s right. Go out, support radio preachers and things . . .

¹⁸³ I’m not condemning that, I have no radio program, never intend to have. Could have been on television? Sure. Had buildings, and churches, and so forth? I condemned it, turned it away. I want to be humble, I want to stay to a place, till I can go to anywhere, under any condition, and preach wherever God leads me to go with no strings tied, no nothing at all, just be free to do and say what the Holy Spirit says say, that's my motive. Yes, sir. Stay with that, just be led by His Spirit.

¹⁸⁴ What if I had to make ten thousand dollars a day? What if I had to make a thousand dollars a day? You think I could be at Klamath Falls? Certainly not, I couldn't. Course I don't have to have anything, just enough to feed my children, God sees to that, so that's all is necessary. So there we are, no supports and things like that. And I believe that God gives ministers radio and television programs, I believe that with all my heart, but He didn't give it to me.

¹⁸⁵ Now, the thing of it is, if you're supporting the right thing, but why would you support a thing that condemns Pentecost, and the Divine healing, and the power of the Holy Ghost, and makes fun of it, and you turn around, and let your own preacher on the radio starve, and have to cut his program off, and support such as that? I don't understand it. And I know thousands that does it. I would support exactly what I believed in, and what I thought of, I would stay loyal to it till I died, yes, sir, with everything, not only my money, but my soul, my experience, my testimony, my presence, my . . . everything that I could do, I'd support it.

¹⁸⁷ Now, the next thing, she had to go it a long way to get to hear this man, that's talked so much about. Now, she had to cross the Sahara Desert. You know how long it take her to do it? Take her about three months, ninety days, and she didn't come in a air-conditioned Cadillac, no, she come on the back of a camel. That's right.

¹⁸⁹ Another thing, look what was in her road, the sons of Ishmael was in the desert in that day. They were robbers, and her with all that money, crossing the desert, a little handful of soldiers, a few maidens with her as bodyguards, four or five eunuchs standing around her, and traveling out there with this great fleet of fleet-footed, horse-riding Arabs, that come across the desert there, and could take everything she had, murder, and let them lay there.

¹⁹⁰ But you know something? When you've got a hunger in your heart for God, danger don't even stand in the way to you. You just keep moving on, climbing on. There's nothing going to separate us from the love of God that's in Christ. That's right, keeps moving on. She just kept going on, she never thought of the death.

¹⁹¹ Anyhow, if you're hungering for God, the devil will put every obstacle he can in your way, but Christ will move it out of the way, just walk in the Light, as He is in the Light. Just keep moving on, and God will make a way for you, He promised to do it, and He will do it. That's right.

¹⁹⁴ Now, we find, finally she arrived at the gates, safely. And when she arrived . . . Now remember, lot of people come into a meeting like that, if they're going to see some miracle of God going to be performed, or is being performed, they'll say, "Well, I'll tell you what I'll do, I'll just walk in, and I'll set down, and if that preacher says one thing that I don't agree with or my church don't agree with, I'll get right up and walk out." That shows illiteracy, that's exactly. That shows poor raising to begin with.

¹⁹⁵ Now, she came in, not to stay and see if the pastor said anything, Pastor Solomon said something that she didn't agree with, or whether her church, she knowed that her church didn't agree with that, but she come in to set down, to take the Scriptures, and to stay until she was convinced one way or the other. That's the way to do it. Take the things that claims to be of God and test them with the Scripture to see if they're Scripturally; if they're Scripturally, they're right.

¹⁹⁹ Here come someone up, and the first thing you know, she said, "Now I'll see whether it's right or not." And she watched it, she said, "I've heard, now, this God is a God that does these things, I'm going to see if that Spirit of God is in this man, this servant of His."

²⁰¹ Let's say, she didn't, of course, but let's just say she got a prayer card, but she wasn't called for a long time, but after while, her time come to come before Solomon. And the Bible said that there was nothing hid from Solomon, but he revealed to her all the things she should know, he told her about it.

²⁰² And when she seen this, she said, "Now, I see it works on others, I wonder if it works on me. I, somehow, I believe that that's right. I've made the sacrifice, I've come a long ways, and I'll tell you what I'm going to do, I'll get up and see if it works on me."

²⁰³ So she got up there, and Solomon told her all things, the Bible said, "Nothing was hid from Solomon." Through the spirit of discernment, a gift of God, he discerned everything that she . . . he should tell her. And it satisfied her in such a way, she gave all of her gifts to the church, to the cause.

204 And she stood, and here's what she said: "Blessed are the men that are with you, that stay with you, that minister to you, continually with you, for their eyes behold this all the time."

205 Not only blessed is the people and all, but blessed are they that see this done day after day. "Blessed are the men that they go along with you that see these things done meeting after meeting, time after time. How blessed it is!"

206 And she seen all the glory and God, and she was a convert, and Jesus said, "She'll stand in the last days and condemn this generation, because she come to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and a greater than Solomon is here."

207 Let me say to you this afternoon, friends: A greater than Solomon is here, the Holy Spirit, Himself, is here, the Agent of God, the resurrected Jesus in Spirit form, God has sent Him back to dwell in His Church, to be with us, to move, and—and to bless us, and to give us His Presence, and to do the works that He did. Oh, if we could only grasp it! If you could only get a hold of it!

208 What made that little queen . . . ? In closing, may I say this, just something comes on my mind: The reason that she said that and the reason she did it, is because for her first time she saw something real, something real. She saw something that could not be explained by human mind, it was supernatural. She seen something that she knew that was real.

209 A little story, well, or, it's not a story, it's the truth. I, everyone knows that I hunt. I—I've hunted, my mother is a half Cherokee Indian, and I—I—I love the Indians, I love to hunt, my conversion never taken it out of me, I hunt Africa, Asia, everywhere; I'm not a killer, but a hunter. So I love . . . I'm a conservationist, I was a—I was a conservation officer for year after year, seven years in Indiana, and I—I believe in conserving game. I believe to be in the woods, to be alone, there's something about it.

210 I used to hunt up in the Northwoods, and I . . . to be alone. That's where my first Bible come from, I could hear the wind blowing through the trees, watch a tree die and then live again, watch a flower go down in the fall of the year and come up in spring, I knowed there was a God somewhere.

211 I watched sap stand in the tree in September, August and September, never a cold breeze ever hit it, but before the cold breeze ever hits that tree, what is it? That sap runs down into the roots and hides through the winter, if it doesn't, it'll die through the wintertime. And then spring of the year, here it comes back bringing apples again, producing.

212 What intelligence runs that sap down into those roots? Tell me. Put water on a bucket, and set it on the top of a post, and see if it will go down to the bottom of the post. Certainly not, certainly not. An intelligence runs it down. God is in nature everywhere, working in nature, and that was my first Bible.

213 And I used to go hunting with a fellow, Bert Call, my wife here knew . . . knows him well. And so, we were, go up there in the woods to hunt, and he was one of the best hunters I ever hunted with. He was also a part Indian. And you never had to worry about losing him, he would—he would come in, he was all right, he knowed his place. And he was a dead shot, one of the best I ever seen. And you never . . . Sometime you take a person in the woods, you don't know whether you're going to leave him, and have to keep watching him, and hunt him up, he will stray off somewhere, but never Bert, just let him alone, he was all right.

214 And we loved to hunt together, we knowed one another. He was a fine fellow, but the meanest man I ever seen in my life; that guy was really cruel. Cold hearted? I never seen a man so cold hearted, he used to kill fawns just to make me feel bad. And he would shoot . . . You know, a fawn is a little baby deer, you Oregon people know what they are, and he—he would shoot them just to make . . .

215 Now, it's all right to take a fawn, Abraham killed a calf and fed it to God. That's right. It's all right to kill a fawn if the law says to kill it, they are conservationists, they know what can be killed and what not. But then, if . . . But not just kill a bunch of them to be mean, that's mean.

216 And so he, one day I went up to see him, and we was going hunting, and he had invented some kind of a little whistle that made it go like a little, baby fawn crying for its mammy. And I thought . . . I said, "Bert, you're not going to use that!"

"Oh," he said, "Preacher, you're too chicken-hearted, get next to yourself."

And I said, "Bert, don't you do that."

"Oh," he said, "go on. That's the way with you preachers," said, "you're too chicken-hearted. Yeah, go on!"

217 We went hunting that morning, and we . . . it was long in the season, and deers was scarce, 'cause the first gun goes to firing, they get to cover up there, because there's a lot of hunting. We always take us a sandwich and a little thermos bottle full of hot chocolate, 'cause it gives nourishment and heat, quick, to the body; if you would happen to hurt yourself, or something, it would be a pick-up.

218 And deers was very scarce, we walked from about daylight till about eleven-thirty, and had not even seen one track, about eight or ten inches of snow on the ground, good tracking weather. We had went all down through the big beeches, and up through the places in the hardwood, and on into the other birch, and so forth, and the green timbers, and seen nothing, not even a track.

219 We come to a little clearing about the size of this building, this auditorium, and Bert just stooped down like this, started reaching back in his shirt. I thought he was going to get his lunch, and we would eat lunch, and, usually, then we separate at noon, and one goes one way, and one another, and we get back to camp at night.

220 And he reaching back in here, I started to get, let my gun down, I started to get my lunch, and when he come out, he had this little ol' whistle, and he looked up to me with them lizard-looking eyes of his. And I thought, "You're not going to do that, Bert."

221 And he took that little whistle, and he blew it, it sounded just like a little, baby fawn, you've heard them, crying for their mammy. And he—and he blowed this whistle, and he looked at me and kind of laughed. And to my surprise, just across the opening, a great big, beautiful doe stood up.

222 Oh, she was a beautiful-looking animal, see those great big, brown eyes, those big ears peaking. I looked at her. What was she? She was a mother, see, and a baby was in trouble, and she begin looking around, "Where's that baby at?"

And he looked up at me again like that, and I said, "He's going to do it, anyhow."

223 I seen him pull back that lever on that .30-06, a dead shot he was, and he blew it again, she straightened those big ears up. Now, that's all together unnatural for a doe to do that in hunting season, right that time a day. And she walked right out into that opening, looking around for that baby, where it was at. And when he started to raise his head up, the doe seen him.

224 Well now, usually they, what we call, spook at that, you see, they—they get scared, they run away, but not her, she throwed them big ears, those big, brown eyes looked down that way, where the hunter's, top of his cap coming up. And I seen him level that rifle, put that crosshair right across her loyal heart, I thought, "Oh Bert, how can you do that? How can you kill that mother looking for her baby?"

225 Now, I would talk to him about the Lord, and he would just laugh at me. And I said, "Bert, how can you do that? How can you ever kill that poor mother?"

226 Now, she wasn't a hypocrite, she wasn't putting that on, she was real, she was born, something in her was a mother, and a baby was in trouble. And she was a mother, the instinct in her, mother instinct, would walk right in the face of that gun, knowing that she was going to her death. What difference did it make? She was going to find that baby, it was in trouble. She wasn't putting nothing on.

227 And I seen him level that shoulder down, oh, my, them crosshairs right across that heart, I thought, "About another second, he will blow that loyal heart of hers plumb through the other side," that big 180 grain bullet go out of there, I thought, "Oh . . ." mushroom, blow a hole about like that. And I thought, "He will just blow that loyal heart of that mother plumb through the other side." I thought, "How can he be so cruel?" I said, "I just can't watch it."

228 I turned my head, I said, in my heart I said, "Lord God, please help him, don't let him do that. Look at that display of real motherhood, look at that real thing."

229 Now, that mother, walking right out, not a hypocrite, not putting on, like a lot of church members do, act like they're Christians, when a showdown comes, they're ashamed of it. She walked right out there with something real, she stood there and was ready to meet her death. Because what? Inside of her, she was a mother, and a baby was in trouble.

230 I was praying, and I thought, "Lord, don't let him do it." And I waited, waited, the gun never fired, I thought, "Wonder what's the matter?" I turned to look, and the gun barrel was going like this, them steady nerves had broke.

231 Grabbed the gun and throwed it on the ground, and I was setting on a little drift of snow about like that, he threw his arms around my trouser legs and said, "Billy, I've had enough of it. Lead me to that Lord Jesus that you're talking about."

232 What was it? "If they hold their peace, the rocks will immediately cry out." What did he see? He saw something real, he saw something that he couldn't even see in a lot of ministers or Christians, he saw in that deer a loyalty, something real that was real. That deer preached the best sermon to him that any preacher could ever preach. She had something real that he could lay a hold of and know there was a real motherhood, and if there's a real motherhood, there's a real God, there's a real salvation. There on that snowbank, I led him to the Lord Jesus Christ, and he's a deacon in the First Baptist Church now, a loyal Christian, because he saw something that was real.

233 O God, let us be real. Let's not have some kind of a form of religion, let's have something real, that people can see that God lives in us.

Let us bow our heads, just a moment.

²³⁴ I want to ask you a sincere question. As you well know now, that I'm—I'm not a clergyman, not a speaker, I'm uneducated, but in my heart, there's Something that's real, I found a Christ that means the same to me as that fawn did to that doe, He's more than my life, ready to give it any time. And I've sacrificed to Him thirty-one years ago, He gets sweeter day by day, as my days are growing weaker now, and I'm getting old.

²³⁵ Is there a person here this afternoon, or, how many people, should I say, would like to have the reality of Christ in their heart, as this mother deer did for her baby? Would you like that reality? While your head is bowed, would you just raise your hands, and say, "Pray for me, Brother Branham, I want Christ now to put so much real love in my heart for Him, as the mother deer had for her baby"? Would you raise your hand? Say, "Remember me in prayer."

²³⁶ God bless you, sir. God bless you. God bless this young fellow here, out here. Oh, up in the balcony? Someone up in there say, "Remember me, Brother Branham, as you pray." God bless you up there. Sure, God sees your hands, wherever you are.

²³⁷ God bless this sister setting here in the wheelchair. Bless you, sister dear. May be a mother and know what motherhood means, and you know how loyal that is to those children, let it be that way for Christ. He will give It to you, He will give you that Spirit of His, of His Holy Spirit in your heart. Would you like, someone else, just raise your hand?

²³⁸ Say, "Does that mean anything Brother Branham?"

Someone else would just say, "Remember me, brother, in prayer. While you're praying, may God have mercy on me"?

²⁴² God bless you, my brother, here, and the one just across the aisle. Yeah, God bless you. There, that young girl back there, God bless you, honey. The little girl, God be with you. That's wonderful.

243 All right. Is there another that knows that you haven't got that kind of love? You couldn't display that loyalty to Christ, you would like to, but you haven't got it. Maybe you belong to church, wouldn't hurt you to raise your hand, say, "I would love to have it, Brother Branham, I would love to feel in my heart towards Christ . . ." God bless this little girl setting here. "I'd like to feel in my heart like that, towards Christ like that mother deer did to her baby." Would you . . . ?

244 That, when a cruel-hearted man . . . God bless you over there, yes, to the right, I see you, sir. God be with you. And I'm sure He does. Not even a sparrow can fall without Him knowing it, He knows your hand when it goes up. He knows the hunger and thirst in your heart, and He said, "Blessed are they that do hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled."

245 Would there be another before prayer? All right. God bless you, sir, yes. God bless you back there, yes, God sees you. I just wait a moment, maybe another would raise their hand. You'll never forget raising your hands, I'll assure you of that, you'll never forget. Maybe lying on a highway somewhere bleeding, hearing an ambulance coming, the blood running from your veins, you know you're gone, you'll remember you raised your hand. Will you, someone else before we close? All right, let us pray.

246 Our Blessed Heavenly Father, they came from the east and west, north and south to hear the wisdom, spirit of discernment that was on Your servant, Solomon. And when Your Son, the Lord Jesus, was here on earth, He told them, that how they had condemned in their generation the thing that Solomon's generation had cherished; and how that they had prospered in Solomon's generation, and how they would be polluted in His generation, and yet He was greater than Solomon.

247 And today, Father, it's a greater day than it was the day that when You visited us here on earth in a body of flesh, for in those days, the real atonement had not yet been made, God dwelt in one Man, that was His Son, Jesus. And now, after the atonement was made, the whole ransomed Church can bosom God, God can come into the bosom of His Church, and the Holy Spirit.

248 You said, "If you speak against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven you," when they called You Beelzebub, 'cause You were discerning the thoughts of their minds. They should have knowed that was the Spirit of God there, It was on Solomon, upon the prophets, and here It was made in Its fulness in You. And they spoke against You and called You an evil name, called the work of the Holy Spirit a devil, and You said, "I'll forgive you for that, but when the Holy Ghost is come, you speak against That, it'll never be forgiven."

249 Well, the Holy Spirit, after It had been in You, and then come upon the Church, here It is today which would be greater then, because Your Life has sealed a work for the Holy Ghost and brought It to the Church, and yet, “a word against It will never be forgiven.” And here He is today, the lovely Holy Spirit, the Person of Christ, standing in our midst, doing the same thing that He did. Scripturally from Genesis to Revelation according to the last days, He was to be here and do these things, and here He is. Father God, how we thank You for this!

250 I pray today that each one of those who raised their hand, recognizing upon this simple, little affair that happened, Lord, about my good friend, Your servant now, Bert, how that that took that cruel-hearted man, when You didn't have anybody in that country, seemed like, that could do it, I myself could not even lead him to You, but he saw that real something in that deer, more than he could see in me, or any other man, but God, You showed it by an ol' mother deer, and she led him to You, bless his loyal soul, Lord. I pray today that through the simple story of telling it, many has raised their hands, give them their desire, Lord.

251 May through the simplicity of faith, reach up and take a hold of the Throne of God, and say, “Lord, pour the golden vial of Oil of God's Holy Spirit in my heart.” Then they'll be ready to die for Christ, display His love, His loyalty in their workshop, in their homes, in their organizations, wherever it might be. Grant it, Lord. I commit them to You now, in the Name of Jesus Christ, Thy Son. Amen.

252 You love Him? Let's just sing one verse of my, one of my favorite ol' songs, “I love Him, I love Him because He first loved me.” And while we do this, we're going to have the healing service, or, prayer service for the sick just in a— a little bit. Now, let's just sing now, raise up our hands. All right, brother.

I love Him, I love Him
Because He first loved me
And purchased my salvation
On Calvary's tree.

253 Now, while we hum it through once, this is a mixed audience, Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterian, Pentecostal, let's, sweetly, just take a hold of somebody's hand setting next to you, and say, “God bless you, brother, sister,” while we sing that again.

I . . .
. . . first loved me
And purchased my salvation
On Calvary's tree.

254 Now the message is over, just worship Him in the Spirit. Paul said, “If I sing, I’ll sing in the Spirit; I worship, I’ll worship in the Spirit.”

. . . He first loved me

Don’t you love that sweetness of the Holy Spirit?

I love Him, . . . (Just mean it with all your heart.) . . .

love Him,

Because He first loved me

And purchased my salvation

On Calvary’s tree.

255 Oh, isn’t He real? So real in our hearts, so good, so full of mercy. Blessed be His Holy Name. Now we’re going to call the prayer line, pray for the sick while this lovely anointing. . . .

256 Don’t—don’t the Word just kind of scour you out? Feel good and clean. How many feels that way? Just like . . . [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

Drawn from Emmanuel’s veins,

And sinners plunged beneath that flood,

Lose all their guilty stains.

Lose all their guilty stains,

Lose all their . . . (Aren’t you so glad there’s a Fountain?)

And sinners plunged beneath that flood,

Lose all their guilty stains.

Ah, the same spirit of worship!

257 Billy, did you give out prayer cards? You did, didn’t you? How many? Fifty to a hundred. What time your service is . . . ? [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

258 . . . ? . . . of God heals. You break your arm, you don’t go to the doctor, say, “Heal my arm.” You say, “Set my arm, Doctor.” God heals it.

259 You say, “I got appendicitis, Doctor, cut it out.” He don’t heal you, he just takes out the appendicitis, he can’t build the tissue, God builds the tissue. Is that right? He does the healing, God does the healing. Not . . .

260 Billy, has that lady there got a prayer card? Well, you just—just—just let her stay, all right. See? I’ll bring her up here and pray for her, just a minute. Now, what say? All right. There was some man setting here a few minutes ago, he’s still setting here.

All right, let’s bow our heads, just a minute for prayer.

261 O Lord, the hour is near at hand now when something must be done. I, just as sincerely as I know how, brought this simple, little message of Your grace and power. And I was thinking that it would be earlier, and we would bring up four, five, ten people and—and You would send Your Spirit of discernment, but it seems, Lord, that—that the people would rather that we would just pray for them. So, I . . . Lord, maybe that's the way You've built their faith this afternoon.

²⁶² If that be right, Father, then I'll pray that You'll anoint me so with the Holy Spirit, that people when they come by, they'll not come, just coming by just their friend and brother, but they'll know that standing on the platform here somewhere, unseen to our eyes, is the Lord Jesus to confirm every Word that He has written, all that He has said. Give the audience faith to believe. Grant it, Father. I pray, in Jesus Christ's Name, and for His glory. Amen.

The great Physician . . .
. . . sympathizing Jesus;
He speaks the drooping heart to cheer,
Oh, hear the Voice of Jesus.
Sweetest note in seraph song,
Sweetest Name on mortal tongue,
Sweetest carol ever sung,
Jesus, blessed Jesus.

²⁶³ Honey, it was a meeting about like this, I'm addressing my wife setting there, when they was all just about like this at Fort Wayne, Indiana, that night, it was mostly Dunkard, and Amish, Mennonite, and a little sister back there, that was trying to seek the Holy Ghost, she had, I'll never forget that long, beautiful, white hair done up, she had a white dress on, she was playing.

²⁶⁴ And they was bringing a little crippled baby to me, and I held the little baby in my arms, and I said to the mother, "Do you believe that the Lord Jesus will heal the little baby?"

She said, "I believe, sir."

²⁶⁵ And just then, I prayed for the little baby. And I started to hand him back to the mother, the mother set it down, it started running across the floor, she fainted, the people begin screaming, and that girl received the Holy Ghost, jumped up from the piano, her hair fell down, and that piano constantly played, "The great Physician now is near, the sympathizing Jesus." And several hundreds of people standing there watching those ivory keys move, "The great Physician now is near."

²⁶⁶ The altar filled and all up and down the aisles, and everything, weeping and crying, those Mennonites, and Amish, and so forth, coming to the Lord Jesus. Couldn't even no, pray for no more, just screaming to God for mercy, they seen something real. "The great Physician now is near, the sympathizing Jesus." All right.

267 Now, without the discernment. . . How many is here, seen the discernment? Know about it? Raise up your hands, raise up your hands. Oh, that's right. Now, you know it could be done, but to pray for all this line, I couldn't do that. But . . .

268 Oh, my, that little baby! Anyone can see the baby's face. It's your baby, sister? Oh, what a pity! Come here, just a minute. Hmm! I'm sure you all will forgive me. Let's just find out what that is. Will you? Huh? See that's the Holy Spirit. Would it help you? Would it help you? Would it help the congregation? I was just saying that little story about the little boy at Fort Wayne, and then about the baby. You look to me.

269 Now, I don't say that. . . You know what I mean, like Peter and John passed through the gate called Beautiful, and said to the crippled man, "Look on us. Look on us." That means, "Just pay attention to what I'm saying, give heed."

270 And the baby, something has happened, and if the Holy Spirit will be able to tell me about that, would it help your faith to believe that He would make it well? All right, you would. I know. . . I hit those spots. I had it here not long ago. I was wondering about crossing over, I had an experience; I aim to tell it to the church this week sometime, what happened.

271 Now, you know, lady, if I could help that baby, and would not do it, I—I don't deserve to be behind this Bible here. No, sir. I would be an impostor, I shouldn't even be allowed to brought. . . come behind the pulpit. But if I could help it, I would do it. But the only thing that I. . .

272 If Jesus was standing here with this suit on that He gave me, He couldn't do no more than to tell you that when He died at Calvary, He purchased the healing of that baby. Now, these clergymen can tell you that's truth. Isn't that right, brethren? He did.

273 Then if He was standing here, and you would say, "Oh, Lord Jesus, will you heal my baby, let it get well? I—I—I love you, Lord, and I'll raise the baby to serve You, if You'll just heal my little baby." Maybe it has burnt itself, or whatever it was, I don't know, but whatever it was, "If You just—if You just heal my baby, I'll—I'll promise I'll raise it to serve You."

Why, He would say, "My daughter, I have already healed your baby at Calvary."

274 Now, how would you know that was Him telling you that? Well then, He would do just like He did when He was here on earth, He would tell, like the woman that touched His garment, see, something like that. You know what I mean? Tell you about the baby. And that would help you to believe that It wouldn't be your brother then,

It would be the Lord Jesus that's here. Is that right? How many understands that? All right. May the Lord help . . . ? . . .

275 Sister? To the baby? No, it isn't a burn, it looks like it, but it isn't. That's results of some treatments. Doctors has done everything they could for the baby, but it's sort of a tumorous condition, like blood cells is all run together. And you've had it to several doctors, they've turned it down, "There's nothing can be done for it," they said.

276 But you don't believe that, you believe that God will let your baby get well. That's right, it's true. You're not from this city, no. You believe you can take it back to Eugene, it will be all right, and God will make it well for you? You do? You believe with all your heart that God will make it well?

Let us pray, bow your head.

277 Our Heavenly Father, in the light of Calvary, in the Presence of the Holy Ghost, I condemn this devil that's did this to this baby.

278 You've hid from the doctor, but you can't hide from God, come out from this baby and let this baby be well! I charge thee by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, Whose Presence is here now, that you defile this baby no longer! Amen.

279 Don't you doubt a bit, thing will leave the baby's face, it's been thought it was a birthmark, like. But don't . . . Just go ahead, believe, the baby will get all right.

280 You believe now with all your heart? How about some of you out there in the audience now with no prayer cards? You believe with all your heart? So that you'll know the Holy Spirit is here, be reverent, pray.

281 You setting there weeping, got something on your heart, haven't you? It's a little one, too. It's in a hospital in Portland, got club feet. Child is going to be operated on tomorrow, that's THUS SAITH THE LORD. You believe with all your heart, the child will come out all right. Amen.

282 What did she touch? What—what would her . . . ? Ask her, I never seen the woman in my life, she's a total stranger. If that's right, wave your hand back and forth, lady. See? Is every bit of that He said was true? If it is, wave your again. Stand up to your feet, if that's the truth. There it is.

283 Now, do you believe that the Presence of Christ is here? Then believe with all your heart now, while you pray with me. We can't linger too long here, if we do, that it's going to, you know, it'll take too long to do it. That—that . . . It's hard to stop it when it once starts.

284 That man setting there with the hand up like this, suffering with hay fever. You believe that God will make you well? I don't know you, do I? You don't know me, but God knows us both. But you have hay fever. If that's right, raise up your hand. What did you contact? The Spirit of God. Now go and believe, and it will leave you. Hay fever isn't a disease, it's a condition of the nose. Just believe with all your heart, and it'll leave you, and you'll never have it again, if you believe.

285 Blessed be the Name of the Lord. Tell me that Jesus Christ isn't the same yesterday, today, and forever? He certainly is the same. "If thou canst believe!" Just keeps moving in the audience. Let's just start . . . Everybody help me pray.

Now, sir, if I don't say a thing and just pray for you, you'll believe, won't you?

286 Lord Jesus, I condemn the sickness of his body, and ask for his healing, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

God bless you, brother.

287 Come . . . ? . . . You know that I know what's wrong with you, don't you? If I don't say a word, just pray for you, you'll believe. The nervousness has left you, so go on . . . ? . . .

288 Come, believe with all your heart. Now, sister, you realize that He knows all about you. But if I just lay hands on you, the Bible said, "These signs shall follow them that believe, if they lay hands on the sick, they shall recover." Let's . . . Come.

Father, I lay hands upon her, in the Name of Jesus, may she recover. Amen.

Now, go thanking the Lord, just like it's already finished and gone.

Come, sister dear. You believe that God will heal you and make you well? Come, now.

289 Heavenly Father, I pray that You'll take this filthy thing off my sister, and may she wake up in the morning a different woman. Grant it, Father, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Now, go believing, sister, don't doubt.

Come, brother dear, believe with all your heart.

290 Precious Lord, I pray that You'll heal my brother as I lay hands upon him. In the Name of Jesus Christ, may he be healed. Amen.

Don't doubt, believe with all your heart.

You believe, brother? All right, come now.

In the Name of the Lord Jesus, may my brother be healed. Amen.

Bless you.

291 Don't want to be crippled up all your life, do you? You know that I know what's wrong with you, you understand that. Every person passed, it could not be hid now at all. This arthritis will soon get you if God don't help you, but He will help you now. You believe that?

Lord God, I charge this devil by the Name of Jesus Christ that it will leave this woman, and may she be healed. Amen.

292 Have faith. You believe? You believe with all your heart now? See? We can't stop with . . . See, the Holy Spirit . . . It's hard for me to keep from calling them. As soon as they come, it look like that you would catch it, but you can't get to all of them. But the same Holy Spirit . . .

293 Do you believe that I believe God? Do you believe that? Jesus said, "These signs shall follow them that believe, if they lay hands on the sick, they'll recover." Is that right? Then you believe with all your heart.

294 Here, are you the next person to be prayed for? I don't know you, God knows you. If God will reveal to me something about you that you know that I do not know, would you believe me to be His servant?

Would that help you out there? See? All right.

295 Now, you just look at me, and believe with all your heart that God is going to tell me something about you that'll help you. See? And you'll know whether it's the truth or not, because you know, something in your life, or something another that you know about, you'll know whether that's truth or not, because you're a witness of it.

296 I don't know you, I doubt whether you know me or not, unless it's just by hearing me, somewhere. But I don't know you, no way at all of knowing nothing about you, it would have to be revealed by Spirit if I know about you. Is that right?

297 One of your troubles is a nervous condition, you have spiritual problems. That's exactly right. Your physical condition is a kidney, you only have one, the other is gone. That's right. You have a burden on your heart, that's for your husband. Is it all right for me to say what he is? He drinks, and you're praying for him, that's THUS SAITH THE LORD. Now, is that all right? Go and believe now, and receive, in the Name of Jesus Christ.

298 Just have faith, don't doubt, everybody pray. Now, the same Holy Spirit is here just the same every time.

God, I charge this enemy, in the Name of Jesus, to leave this baby. Amen.

You believe now, sister dear, he will be all right?

Father God, I pray that You'll heal our sister, in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Come, sister. Now, you're aware that I know what's wrong with you. And let me show you how I know . . . ? . . . what you're . . .

How many people out there is suffering with a nervous condition, just mental nervous, upset? Raise your hands up.

²⁹⁹ Look here, see, same as yours. Now, if you can be healed standing here, they can be healed out there. Is that right? So, if you'll just believe that the Presence of the Lord Jesus is here, you can be healed. Do you believe it? Then go and be well, in the Name of Jesus Christ. Just believe that I've told you the truth.

³⁰⁰ What if I told you, you raised your hand down there a while ago, you got healed? Would you believe me? All right, you were. When you accepted the Lord Jesus there, He taken care of it right then. God bless you.

³⁰¹ All right. Now, you're suffering with heart trouble. That's right. Many of them out there is suffering with heart trouble. But do you believe that Jesus heals the heart that He lives in? Come here.

In the Name of Jesus Christ, may this woman be healed of this heart condition. Amen.

Go and believe now with all your heart.

Come, brother dear, believe.

Lord Jesus, I pray that You'll heal him, in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Go, don't doubt a thing now, brother, believe with all your heart.

³⁰² Our Heavenly Father, I pray that You'll heal our sister, in Jesus' Name. May she go and be well. Amen.

Come believing. All right, sir. You want to go eat your dinner and feel good over it? Then go eat, in the Name of Jesus Christ . . . ? . . .

³⁰³ Why is it just the discernment? Remember friends, discernment doesn't heal. Discernment only . . . The Voice of the discernment is what does the healing, see, the Voice of the discernment. You believe that?

³⁰⁴ Huh! Setting on the end of the row back there, trouble with your eyes, with your throat, with your ears. You believe God makes you well? Man with the little striped thing across his shirt like this, I don't know you, never seen you. But something struck you right then, didn't it? That Light appeared right over the top of your head. That's exactly what was wrong with you. If that's right, raise up your hand. All right, go home, be well. Jesus Christ healed you.

³⁰⁵ I never seen the man. Now, how many knows that that's exactly what Jesus looked out over the audience when the woman touched His garment, and He said, “Thy faith has saved thee”? Is that right? She got well. See? Well then, does the Bible say that “He’s the High Priest, right now, that can be touched by the feeling of our infirmities”? Is He the same God that came up when Simon come up before Him, and He said, “Your name is Simon”? Is that the same God that knowed his name? Do you believe He knows the same thing, can do the same thing? You believe He knows your infirmities?

306 You know that He said He—He perceived their thoughts; this is not only perceiving their thoughts, it’s telling what they were, what they are, and what they will be. See? It—it does more than that, reveals sins. How many has seen It reveal sins, and call it out, and tell the men, point out the women they’re living with, and everything? If you don’t want that done, you better make it right before you come on the platform, it’ll certainly do it.

307 How many has been in the meetings, raise your hands now, that see that done? Raise your hands, everywhere. Certainly, it will, it’s perfect, God. Sometimes people have more faith than they think they have. You try to make yourself have faith, don’t do that, just humble yourself.

308 A man setting right there, the Light is still around him right there. Didn’t. . . It surprised him, he had that much faith. That’s right. But he had it just. . . Isn’t that right, sir? If that’s right, raise up your hand, the man that’s healed right down here. That’s right. It just surprised, you don’t think you have it. But it’s—it’s just simple. Just believe it.

309 Here, here’s a man standing here, I don’t know you, that’s right, you don’t know me, I suppose, God knows you. You know me just by seeing me in the audience, and things like that, but that’s not this way. You think that God. . .? If He would tell me what you’re here for, or something, would—would it make you have a lot of faith to believe? It would make you? It might make you have faith. All right.

310 What if I told you that—that you’re here to have this little lump taken off your head there? That’s exactly what you’re here for. If that’s right, raise your hand.

311 Now, the audience might say, “Sure, Brother Branham, you’re looking at him.”

312 All right. If this is the Spirit of Jesus Christ, He will know the man, I’ll have contact with him, that’s right.

313 You’re not from here, from a city called Lakeview. Is that right? They call you Bill, don’t they? If that’s right, raise up your hand. Now, you got faith? Then go and be healed, Jesus Christ makes you well. Yes, sir.

314 Anyone sees this is a little, afflicted child. All of you bow your heads while we pray for this little child.

315 Right here, don't have to say it like that. You know . . . You believe that God will take this little fellow, and take this away from him, and let him get well?

316 Lord, I lay hands upon him, in the Name of the Lord Jesus, condemn the devil that's done this evil to the child. May the child return even this week and show, the mother show what's happened to the baby. In Jesus' Name, I commit him to the hands of God. Amen.

God bless you, sister. I want to hear from that baby this week.

Come, little fellow.

Lord Jesus, bless this little one and make it well, through Jesus Christ's Name. Amen.

Bless you, lady, all over. Praise the Name of the Lord.

Come, sister dear.

Our Heavenly Father, I pray that You'll bless the woman and heal her, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Have faith, now.

Bring the little lad. You believe that God can make him well?

317 Our Heavenly Father, I hold this little boy close to me, and ask that the power of Almighty . . . [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

318 . . . if it isn't for You. I pray that You'll let this little child be so healed, that the people will know that You're God. That this child may return back into this audience before this series of services closes this coming week, and show that God has healed her, and her little legs are well, and she's walking again.

319 Oh, you devil that's done this, I charge you by God, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, Whose Presence is here now, leave the child!

320 And may the strength of God take the place of this brace, that the child will walk in the power of the Spirit of God the rest of her life. Amen.

321 Will it be that way, sir? It will. God bless you, you shall have what you've asked for. I give you the child, in the Name of Jesus Christ, for her healing.

322 All right? You the next person? This is all the line? Quite a young fellow, I'm a stranger to you, I don't know you, you don't know me, but God knows us both. If the Lord will tell me what you're here for, will you believe? Would it—would it cause you to believe? You would believe. All right.

How many would it help, the audience? It would help.

³²³ Something strange about you, yes. You are—you are actually a— a nervous, upset, nervous condition. You've come from a long ways to be prayed for. You're not—you're not really an American, you're a German, you're from Germany, and you come here to be prayed for. And I see you arrived at Jeffersonville, and I was gone, and you come over here for me to pray for you, all the way from Germany. I send you back to Germany, in the Name of Jesus Christ, a well man. You believe me?

³²⁴ I cast the evil from this man, in the Name of Jesus Christ, come out of him!

³²⁵ May he return to his people a well man, and when I return there to Germany, Lord, for a meeting, may this young man be a testimony. In the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

You're healed. Go back home well. Auf Wiedersehen.

Praise the Lord! Do you believe?

³²⁶ What about you setting in that wheelchair? You believe God can heal you? Will you believe me to be His prophet? If I could take you out of that wheelchair, I would do it. I can't do it, but God can do it. If God will reveal to me what you're setting there about, will you obey me as His prophet? Cancer eating you up in the bowel. You obey me as His prophet? You'll die setting there. You can't go anywhere there. You may be weak, under strength, but . . .
