
WHAT IS THAT IN THY HAND?

(Thank you very kindly, brother. Is this supposed to be my garland? Thank you.)

2 Good evening, friends. Happy to be here tonight and so glad that we're all able to be out. Thanking the good Lord for His marvelous services last night. To hear . . . Is the first time that I've had the opportunity to get among the people to— to preach to them like that for a long time and to minister to them.

3 And last evening, when going out, the boy said to me, said, they don't like for me to have that type of meeting to go down lay hands on the people; they just think maybe . . . They said when it's being called from the platform it's always a hundred percent. And said, "You just taking the people's word at it, at then."

I said, "Well, they got faith, they believe."

4 And when I was walking down among the wheelchairs, I thought it was Billy walking in front of me. And I happened to turn sideways to look: it wasn't Billy, it was Him. And then when I got back up, then the Lord begin to prophesy, and said, "There'll be some in the wheelchairs that'll walk through the audience; some go out."

The boy said, "Will that take place?"

5 I said, "You just watch and see." And there last night . . . That's right. That's five paralyzed people from the wheelchairs this week. That's marvelous what our Lord is doing. I believe He will go great . . . more than that tonight, don't you think so? We believe that He will.

6 Now, tomorrow night, being the closing of this service . . . You've been so good to us, and come out and set in the weather when it was cool and rainy. And you've been very, very nice, and we will always remember you. And I've had a kind of a little struggle that's . . . You . . . A good thing you was nice, because it's not customary that I speak to the people like this or preach, and then make the altar calls and so forth.

7 Brother Moore for some reason didn't show up, and Brother Arganbright didn't show up, but Brother Thom from South Africa, bless his heart, he was somewhere here, I heard him say, "Amen," a while ago. Here he comes back. And that was . . .

8 That wouldn't happened to be the little boy that was named William Branham? Well, my. First time I've seen you, sonny. You're a fine boy. I'm expecting to see you over at my house pretty soon now.

See? Well, that's mighty fine. I know you all enjoy Brother Thom's speaking. He will probably be at some church here tomorrow.

¹² And now, we hope that tomorrow there's good services all through the . . . throughout the country. Stand at your post of duty tomorrow; now, tomorrow morning go to Sunday school. And let's see, I guess tomorrow afternoon the services are here. (Is that right? Tomorrow afternoon? Tomorrow night? Well, they changed it till . . .) Then the service . . . (You've done announced it, I guess? All right.) The services are here tomorrow night. All right. Now, the Lord be blessed is our sincere prayer.

Now, for a subject just to meditate a little while. And we want to say again: we thank the dear Lord so greatly for all that He has did.

¹³ Now, I believe that just in any American meeting for this many days, of being five paralyzed people made whole in one single meeting, I believe that's just about as—as great as the Lord has done for us this entire year. And now, in Africa, or some of the other countries, in India, or something on that order, it's different. But here in America, because there's many services goes through, and one thing, we never stay ten nights, we're just usually there anywhere from three to five nights and then go. So I'm just saying that, to that, you might see and know that I believe you have great faith, and I'm so happy.

¹⁴ Many of the people they said has been testifying. Brother Wood and them was telling me today of people testifying, with all kinds of diseases and everything, has been healed. And several on cot, I don't believe we have but one cot here tonight. God just cleared out the cot cases and everything. Isn't that wonderful?

scientific research to help the little fellows. They're just totally helpless. And the poor little mother so interested, packing the little fellow night after night, and it crying. I kept looking over the little thing, and I could see what the trouble was. And many times visions speak; I don't even say nothing about it.

16 Fellow just called me on the phone just a few moments ago, and I met him in a—a restaurant the other night, and there the Lord told me what was wrong with him. He called me up, he said, "You know, since you've . . . I've seen you," said, "I've just got a whole lot better." I told him what was wrong with him; he like to have fainted. You know . . . And so he . . . That's it. You just have to watch; you see it's just going to happen anyhow. So, it isn't so much whether they know anything about it, just as long as you know . . . between . . . that God has said it's going to be all right. So that—that settles it, you see. It isn't the idea of we want the people to know, just as long God says it, well, amen, just let it go, and if you think a little encouragement would help them, then you usually say something.

17 But this little baby come across the platform, great big water head, leaning over a poor, little, tired mother. And as I laid hands on that child, I seen that Light whirl right around the child's head, and I—I knew something was going to happen. So I asked the mother if she would take the baby home. And knew that something happened to it then, if I'd have had something to proved it to the mother. But I told her, I said, "You take the baby home." And she lived out of town; I believe It told her, somewhere, about a hundred miles. She travels about two hundred miles a night to bring the baby.

18 And when she got home, I said, "Put a little string right around its head and measure the string, and then cut that string off; and then put the string right around again the next night, tomorrow night, and bring me the piece of string to how much that baby's head shrunk." In two- . . . and this'll be about eighteen hours or twenty, and here's a string about a inch and a half of string, the baby's head shrunk within about eighteen hours. I wonder if the mother's here anywhere with the baby tonight with . . . Oh she's already . . . Here's the mother's here. That's right, all right. God bless you, sister.

19 Now, the reason I did that, Sister, was this: that you might be encouraged. I've prayed for many things that I—I—I didn't get, but I don't believe, as before our Maker tonight, ever sincerely, I asked God for anything sincerely like that, unless He give it to me or told me why He couldn't. See?

20 Now, that inch and a half of that little, that baby's head has shrunk within about eighteen or twenty hours, that's to encourage you. See?

Now, just keep on believing. See? Now, it'll—it'll do that way for about seventy-two hours. Then you'll notice, you keep cutting your string off, it'll stop. It may get worse for a little while. No matter what happens, you just keep on believing. You see? And just long as you'll keep your faith . . .

²¹ Now remember, when the unclean spirit is gone out of a person, it walks in dry places and returns back again with seven other spirits worse than it was; and if it can, it'll enter in and take over, and the condition will be much worse. But if the good man of the house isn't there, which is your faith, to keep it away . . . Just don't fight at it. It'll fight you back. Just refuse; just ignore it. That's all. Just go on. Just say it's over; that settles it for good. And your baby will get all right. Now, the Lord bless you.

And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod.

And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it by the tail, and it was a rod in his hand:

²⁵ And we're so thankful tonight that we, as the children of Israel, we're going to speak of, if it be Thy will, in a few moments, how they passed by under their burdens, and looked into the casket of Joseph, and saw those bones laying there, knowing that God had promised through the prophet that someday they were going out. And tonight as the antitype of Joseph, the Prince of prosperity, the Lord Jesus rose from the dead and is alive tonight here among us as a Divine evidence that someday we're going out, out of this world of trouble and sin, and where Satan and all of his powers is at; and we'll be free from him forever.

26 Now, Lord, as we meditate on these words, may the Holy Spirit come, get into the Word, and may It divide It to every heart, just as we have need tonight. And may we say, like those who came from Emmaus, when He broke the bread and done something a little different than what the ordinary minister did in that day . . . He did it in a way that He alone could do it. And, Father, we pray tonight that He will do something out of the ordinary that we don't see every day in every religious service. Just that people might know that that same Lord Jesus is alive from the dead tonight, walking in and around among people, doing the same things He did then. Grant it, Father.

27 These handkerchiefs that lays here, they're representing poor, little, sick children, fathers, mothers, many people laying out, suffering, because of diseases and oppression of the devil. And, Father, with hands laid upon them with prayer, all my heart, I pray that You'll hear me, Lord, and know the integrity of my heart, as we rebuke every unclean spirit, every demon power that binds the people that these handkerchiefs would be laid upon. And when these handkerchiefs are placed upon them, may they be liberated, Lord, and go on their way rejoicing, and Satan be bound and cast into outer darkness. Grant it, Father. Help us now in the farther part of this service, for we ask it in Jesus' Name. Amen.

28 Now, as we meditate just a few moments here on the Word of the Lord, I trust that everybody will just . . . I will try to hurry, so, I know the wind blowing a little cool and on sick people, and I will try to hurry. And maybe tomorrow night it'll be a little warmer and we will stay just a little longer.

29 The other day going out looking up, Mr. Wood and I were riding down the road and I seen those poor farmers and their corn just rolled up (I used to farm a little, too.), and the watermelons and everything, the cotton drying up. I went home, and I said, "Dear God, I know we got a open-air service, but please send those people some rain, 'cause they're really needing rain." And I just thought of the sovereignty of the Lord Jesus, how He let it rain up to the service, stop while we had the service, and then give them a good drenching last night; cleared it up for tonight. Oh, my. How marvelous He is. He knows just how to do it, doesn't He? And we just love Him so much for that. He's just worthy of all praise.

30 Now, tonight, I want to speak just for a few moments on the subject of What Is That In Thy Hand?

31 Now, the . . . our context tonight deals with Moses, a man that was used of God, back, to deliver the children of Israel out from under the Egyptian bondage. And many peoples, tonight, of God, is under bondage.

32 I look setting here, a mother with a little boy, looks like maybe his—his little legs might be deformed or something. He's laying close to his mother. A little fellow setting here in a wheelchair, a little child, perhaps has had polio or something. Its little leg is all bandaged up with braces.

33 I notice a young girl sitting here a beautiful little lady, just look like in her teenage yet, and a poor old dad twisted up in a wheelchair, just like that. That's bondage. Satan's done that.

34 Here's a colored brother setting here. Someone setting near him, holding him and, or, near him. And just look at the bondage that Satan has put the people in.

35 And God is just as . . . loves you just as the same as He loved those Hebrews. And when . . . God sent Moses down there because He had promised that He would come and liberate them out of that bondage.

36 And God has promised in this last day that He'd send Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, in our midst and would liberate all the sick and afflicted. For it is written, the last Words that He said before leaving this earth, He said, "Go ye into all the world, preach the Gospel to every creature." How far? The apostles' age? To all the world; the Gospel has never reached all the world yet. "Go into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; and he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe; In My Name they shall cast out devils; speak with new tongues; take up serpents; or drink deadly things it wouldn't harm them. If they lay their hands on the sick, they shall recover." That's what the Bible said.

37 Jesus, received up into Heaven; the last commission He ever give the church was heal the sick. The first commission He ever give the church was heal the sick. He chose His seventy and His twelve, and sent them out, and give them power against unclean spirits, to cast out devils, and to heal the sick, the first commission. The last commission was, go into all the world and heal the sick.

38 On that Scripture, I know of a many theologians has discussed it and said among them, that that Mark 16 where I was quoting from, from the 9th verse on was not inspired.

39 Reminds me, I don't believe the pulpit is any place to joke and I don't believe in jokes; keep the pulpit clean; jokes is for out there, but this was just a little quotation which was true, and it sounds like it might be a joke, but it wasn't.

40 There was a little fellow in our part of the country, that had a calling to the ministry. His mother was a very fine old lady, and she sent him away to a seminary to become a minister. And while he was away, why, to the college and seminary, learning how to preach and so forth, well, the . . . his mother taken sick, very sick; she had pneumonia. And they called the doctor, and he gave her, of course, all that he could give her. And she couldn't take penicillin; she was allergic to it. So he was giving her sulfa drug and some more things; and it just wouldn't take a hold. The woman, well, her lungs were becoming completely congested, and she was in very bad shape. So they telegraphed her son and told him to stand by, for they thought his mother would die right away and they had to . . . want him to come home. He was many miles away.

41 But all at once, why, there was a little lady lived down the corner, belonged to a Full Gospel mission, that lived around the corner that believed in Divine healing. So she went up to see the old lady, and she said, "Sister," she said, "our pastor believes, and we, down at our church, that Jesus died to heal the sick people. And if you wouldn't mind, why don't you let our pastor come up and pray for you? Maybe God would answer his prayer and heal you."

She said, "That would be very nice. Send him up." So the woman . . . the man came up, and he prayed for her, and she got well.

42 About a year later, her son came home, and they were discussing things after meeting. He said, "Mother, by the way," he said, "I never did hear just what the doctor gave you that you got well so quick, when you had the pneumonia, when I was standing by to come."

She said, "Oh, son," she said, "I forgot to tell you." She said, "You know where that little mission is down on the corner down there?"

And said, "Yes."

43 Said, "You know, that lady come up here and told me to have her pastor come up and pray for me." And said, "You know, he come up and read a piece out of the Bible in the . . . Mark the 16th chapter, and said, 'They lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.' You know, the Lord healed me right away?"

44 "Why," she said . . . the boy said, "now listen, mother," said, "now, those people are illiterate." Said, "See, they don't understand." Said, "We . . ." Said, "There's no such a thing as Divine healing." Said, "There's nothing like that in the Bible." Said, "That was in the days gone by." Said, "Now, in the seminary, why, we learned that Mark 16, from the 9th verse on, is not inspired."

The little mother said, "Well, Hallelujah!"

And he said, "Mother. Why," he said, "you act like those people."

And she said, "Well, glory to God!"

He said, "Well, mother, what's the matter with you?"

45 Said, "I was just thinking: if the Lord could heal me with uninspired Word, what could He really do with That was really inspired?" If that part's not inspired? So that's right. I believe It's all inspired. Every bit of It. And It's all for us, every bit is for us.

46 We have no need or lack of anything. God has provided everything that we have need of in this journey. It's provided for us right here. Oh, ever . . . Whenever a man's borned again of the Spirit of God, the Lord gives him a checkbook si- . . . to enough to do him through his journey; and every bottom of the check, for any redemptive blessing, is signed, Jesus' Name. Just fill it out and send it in. See if He won't honor it. That's right. Just—just send it there. It, the deposits, it's already in there. It was deposited at Calvary: "For He was wounded for our transgressions, bruised for our iniquity: the chastisement of our peace upon Him; and with His stripes we were healed." All signed in His Blood. It's all over. Any . . . "Whosoever will, let him come." And it's been proven. It's proven here, that He is risen from the dead and He is alive among us tonight.

47 He is the Liberator of we who are in bondage. Any person that's in bondage, Jesus Christ is here to liberate them this night if you'll believe it. Now, I'm not here to liberate you, 'cause I couldn't do it. I wasn't sent to do it. I was sent to preach the Gospel. That's all. Christ come to liberate.

48 Now, Moses, when he was just a born baby, just . . . It was a great threat in Egypt and they was killing all the male children. And right in that time Moses was born, and the mother, seeing him to be a fair child, wasn't afraid of—of Pharaoh's threat of what he was doing with all the children.

49 Now, if you'll see friends, to begin with, I want you to get this real close, to begin with, that gifts and callings are without repentance. That's what causes the trouble. See? Don't try to impersonate anything; just be what you are in the Kingdom of God. If you're a finger, be a finger; if you're a nose, be a nose; eye, be an eye. I hope my finger never decides not to be a finger, because it's not an eye. It will certainly put me out of operation for a while. So that's the way, we must all get our positions and move on. But the whole group together is the Body of the Lord Jesus Christ, no matter what it is.

50 Now, show that gifts and callings are without repentance. Look at Jesus; He was the woman's Seed from the garden of Eden. He was born the Son of God. Moses, he was a fair child when he was born, and born to be a deliverer. He couldn't help being a prophet. God made him that at his birth.

Look at John the Baptist, seven hundred and twelve years before he was born, he was the "voice of one crying in the wilderness."

⁵¹ Look at Jeremiah, Jeremiah 1:4, I believe. God told Jeremiah, said, "I knew you, and—and sanctified you, and ordained you a prophet to the nations, before you was even conceived in your mother's womb." Now, you have to believe in predestination and foreordination, you just, it's there.

⁵² "Gifts and callings are without repentance." That's what God has set in the church. I differen a little bit with my Latter Rain brethren there, on that of laying hands, administering spiritual gifts. I believe you got that wrong. See? That's all right, we don't want to fall out over it, but I—I believe you're wrong on there. See?

⁵³ Paul, in Timothy, they recognized that to be, Timothy, to be a minister and a gifted man. We do the same thing in the Baptist church and all the rest of them, when we see a man like that, to lay hands on him. But not to give him a spiritual gift, but to give him the right hand of fellowship and blessing to minister with the gift that God has give him. That—that's just the difference, you see. And so if you try to give him a gift, that's what man does, see, and it'll never work. It sure hasn't been successful, and I don't think it ever will.

⁵⁴ Now, but when God has did anything, it's different. Moses realized that he was Moses. God, how He preserved him and taken care of him. And then when he become age, he thought the people would surely understand, be spiritual minded to understand.

⁵⁵ Now, there's a point that I wish we had time, it wasn't so chilly, to dwell on just for a few moments: The people failed to understand, very much! And when he slew the Egyptian, thinking that people would understand, his own people, that he was sent to liberate them, but, they did not understand. Now . . .

⁵⁶ We find out then, that he fled into the land of Midian. And there he married a Ethiopian girl by the name of Zipporah. Moses, in the beginning, had a real high temper. We know that. God had to take it out of him. So then we . . . he married this girl and he become a servant to his father-in-law, herding the sheep back out the backside of the desert.

⁵⁷ One day, I can just imagine, seeing this old man now of eighty years old, he had two children born to him up there. And here he comes down, now, herding the sheep, just a shepherd, a man out . . . got out of the will of God, and murdered a man, and back over there, now, as a shepherd.

58 But if God has foreordained anything, it's just as sure to come to pass, as God is in Heaven. So it's going to be anyhow. There's nothing in the world can stop Jesus Christ from coming the second time. God has ordained it to be so. There's not a way in the world that you'd ever stop the message of Divine healing. You could fight it as much as you want to, but God has ordained that it should go forth, and it's going forth. That's right. No matter, somebody. . . . "God is able of these stones to rise children unto Abraham." So the best thing to do is join up with God's program and march on with the church, is the best thing that I know to do.

59 Here some time ago, I was up in the Statue of Liberty and went out that arm. And looking out there over that window, seeing a bunch of little sparrows that was dead, laying all around over the outside there. And I said to the guide, I said, "Say, what's the matter? Those little sparrows are—are dead."

60 He said, "Sir, there was a storm last night, and those little fellows circling around, and got into the light of this Statue of Liberty here. And instead of following the light to safety, they come and beat their little brains out, trying to beat the light out. The only thing that could help them, they was trying to beat it out and killed themselves in effort."

61 I said, "Praise God. There may be infidels raised in common, whatever more, skeptics, and unbelievers, but more you beat the Light out, try to beat the Light of God, you'll just beat yourself to death and fall down in disgrace, and the Light of God will shine on through the ages." That's right. God will move on in spite of anything anybody can do. The best thing to do is join right up with Him and move right on with the—with the flow of the Holy Spirit.

62 And Moses, when he was back out there on the backside of the desert, one day, I imagine kind of discouraged, walking along, thinking about what had taken place down in Egypt, and all of his friends. And here he was married into another race of people, and herding his father-in-law's sheep. He happened to look over there, and he saw a bush on fire, and he thought it was funny that the bush never burned. So, God was trying to attract Moses' attention.

63 And how do I know, what do you know, but what this meeting out here has been to. . . . God has set it out here to attract the attention of some of you people that's living in these churches around here, without knowing that God raised from the dead, and Jesus is alive here tonight healing the sick and the afflicted? Maybe He brought you out here to see these lame, and crippled, and twisted people rise up out of the wheelchairs and walk away, to see His Spirit move through the audience and correct people, and rebuke sinners here at the platform, saintly, godly-looking people, come and tell them where they're sinning, and the things are. And every Word of it is infallibly the truth. How do you know that God hasn't attracted your attention to come and look at something like that, so that you would turn aside also? Not turn from your church, but turn from your way of living, and serve the living God in the new birth and be borned again. Maybe God is doing that.

⁶⁴ Moses turned aside, and as he looked at that burning bush, he started, said, "Well, I will go up and see what this sight is." Usually God reveals Hissself in fire.

⁶⁵ So he turned aside to see it, and God spoke to him out of the bush and said, "Moses, take off your shoes, for the ground that you're standing on is holy ground."

Now, what if Moses would have said, "Now, Lord I'm just going to be reverent to You, I'm going to take off my hat, that'll be just as well"?

God never said, "your hat," He said, "your shoes."

Now, if I will say, "Well, I join church; ain't I just as good as the next fellow?"

God never said, "If a man don't join the church. . . ." He said, "A man must be borned again. If he doesn't. . . ."

Say, "Well, I—I go to a good church."

⁶⁶ That's all right, but that ain't the requirement. "Except a man be borned of water and Spirit, he will in no wise enter into the Kingdom." God has got one solid program, no matter how good anything else looks. You got to line up with God's Gospel. The Bible says it, and that's the thing we've got to do.

⁶⁷ And Moses had to line up with God's program, not what Moses thought was reverence, but what God called reverence. And he sit down, took off his shoes, and walked up. He said, "I have," He, "heard the cries of My people, and I've come down, and I am going to send you down to deliver them."

⁶⁸ You know Moses complained. He said, "Now, look, I'm a man of slow speech. I can't talk very good, and I'm not eloquent, and so forth." He begin to complain, and God told him He'd send Aaron. And then he wanted to know, he said, if he could see His glory, what would he tell them had done?

And God said to Moses, "What is that in your hand?"

69 Now, whatever was laying close, God could've used anything. God could've used a bush. But Moses had something in his hand. He said, "It's a stick."

70 He said, "Throw it on the ground." And he threw it down, and when he did, it turned to a serpent. He picked it up by the tail; it turned back to a rod again. And God showed Moses by that, what He could do, that He was still the living God. He could take the natural and change it into supernatural. He could do whatever He wanted to, because He was God.

71 Moses picked up that stick in his hand, run over and got Zipporah, his wife, and set her on a mule, and put a kid on each hip. And got an old donkey by the bridle and the stick in his hand, and here he went down to Egypt to liberate a . . . two million people.

72 Could you imagine it? What a critical-looking sight that would be. This old man, eighty years old, with white beard and hair blowing like that, just happy and shouting, hollering, "Glory to God," his wife sitting straddle this mule, with a kid on each hip, going down to take over. Could you imagine that?

73 What do you think the great armies and soldiers would have said that day? "Well that old, poor old fellow is went off at the head." The world always thinks that, but he had the Word of the Lord, and It had to come to pass. He had God's promise. And he had that old stick in his hand waving it.

74 Now, a dry stick going against the great army of Egypt, which had conquered the world in its days, thousands times thousands of chariots, horsemen, spearmen, the greatest mechanized units; just like one single man would try to go against Russia today or something like that, maybe a greater odds would be then.

75 And Moses, eighty years old, I imagine baldheaded on top, and the whiskers hanging down, and the hair around his neck, and—and there he was leading this mule, going down to take over. And the beauty part about it, he did it (That's right.), because that God had made the promise.

76 When God promises anything, God is under obligation to take care of His promise. God always will back it up. I don't care what Go- . . . what anybody says about it, when God says it's so, it's so. Rest your soul, body, and strength on it, because God is obligated to His Word. Amen. I'm so thankful for that little song we sing:

Every promise in the Book is mine,
Every chapter, every verse, every line.
I'm trusting in His love Divine,
Every promise in the Book is mine.

77 It's to whosoever will, may come and drink from the fountain of the Waters of the Lord, freely, without money, without price; it's done already paid for. Anybody can come and drink.

78 Moses going down to take over; what a sight that was. And when he got down there, he took this old stick, the only thing he had in his hand, and overcome Egypt, and led the children of Israel, and fed them by the same stick till they went to the promised land. Amen. An old dry stick! You might not have very much in your hand, you might not even be able to whistle, but whatever you got in your hand, let God have a hold of it and He will bless it. Amen.

79 You can't do no more than testify to your neighbor, if you can't do no more than raise up your hand, say, "God, I accept every Word of It," take what's in your hand and do what you can for the glory of God.

80 There was a little boy, one time, went to see Jesus, and he had four or five little biscuits and some fish in there. Now, in the little boy's hand it wasn't very much, but once in the hands of the Lord Jesus Christ, He blessed it and fed five thousand. The little thing that you got may be a little spark of faith laying down there, that you believe that He raised from the dead. It isn't very much to you, but turn it loose one time in a testimony, it might be the cause of hundreds of people coming to the Lord Jesus Christ.

81 If you're sitting there sick or crippled, and you got a little speck of faith, turn it loose tonight and say, "Lord Jesus, this is all I got, to trust Your Word, and here I come, it's up to You to take care of the rest of it." God will tell you the rest of it too. You just turn it loose and let Him have it.

82 What kind of an atom did Jesus turn loose then? He taken fish, not only did He feed them with raw fish or living fish, He fed them with cooked fish and cooked bread. Amen. Where He got it I don't know. Anyhow, He—He fed them and they eat it.

Like a fellow said, not long ago, said, "You believe that story about Elijah setting up there and the crows?"

I said, "Yes, sir. I believe every word of it." That's right.

83 They thought Elijah was crazy, setting up on the mountain there, and he was getting a drink of water whenever he wanted it. And them society and high class down there was starving to death, and then they called him crazy. And he was better off than a lot of people, he had some colored servants that carried him food every time he got hungry. That's better off than a lot of the people setting here tonight. That's right. Every time he got hungry, here come a crow with a sandwich and give it to him, flew away. Knelt right down and got him a drink of water when he wanted. He was in the will of God. He took God at

His Word. Amen. That's—that's—that's all you have to do, is take His Word.

Someone said, "Now, Brother Branham do you really mean that crow brought him a sandwich?"

I said, "Yes, sir."

He said, "Well, where did the crow get it?"

⁸⁴ I said, "I don't know. The crow got it and brought it to Elijah, and he eat it." I said, "That's the way with the Holy Ghost. You was making fun of me shouting." I said, "I can't tell you where it come from; the Holy Ghost brings it. I just eat it. And I love it and I live by it. I don't know where it comes from; but I get it; that's the only thing I know. As long as He brings it, I'm willing to take it." Amen.

⁸⁵ Say, "How's that fellow going to walk when he ain't going to the doctor?" I can't help that; when God says so, he will do it anyhow. You just watch. It's God's business to take care of His Word. He watches over to perform It, and He's obligated to It. And He will do it in every case (Amen.) to any man or woman that will dare to take Him at His Word (Oh, my, that's the truth, yes, sir. Moses went down there, and he did just exactly what the Lord told Him to do.), if you just take what you got in your hand and let God have it.

⁸⁶ Now, there was a little fellow one time, a little later on from there, by the name of—of David, a little ol' shepherd boy that lived out on the hillside, feeding his father's sheep. But he knowed the blessing of the Lord was upon him. So he knowed that God was with him. And one day when the armies of Israel had gathered out to fight against the Philistines, why, his father Jesse said, "Now, I'm going to send you over to your brothers; take them some raisins and so forth, and go over and see how your brothers are getting along." Two of the oldest boys was in the war.

⁸⁷ So David went out. And you know when he got over there, he saw a sight. The Philistines was gathered on one side and Israel on the other. Saul setting over there, seven foot, four inches tall or something, great big, princely-looking fellow. But across, over on the other side of the hollow, over there was the Philistine army, and they had a big challenger, or, a big champion by the name of Goliath. My, he was about nine foot, four inches tall, and what a fellow he was. And when the devil knows he's got the edge on you, then he will sure poke it in you, if he possibly can.

⁸⁸ So he got out on the hillside there and he said, "I will make you a proposition, all you fellows. Let's not cause any bloodshed." See? He's big, and he had the edge on all of them. So he said, "You send . . . you pick you out a man over there in the armies of Israel, and let him come over here, and fight against me; and if I kill him, then you all serve us, if he kills me, then we will serve you.” Sure. That’s the way the devil will do it.

Now, you take for instance this guy here: “If I could only see this, or that, or that.” See? Whenever they can get that kind of an idea . . .

⁸⁹ But one day he made his brag in the wrong man’s ear. There was a little ol’ scrawny-looking fellow, probably weighed about a hundred and ten pound, with the shoulders kind of stooped over and a little shepherd’s coat wrapped around him. And that morning, when the armies walking back and forth, and screaming at one another, and were trying to get into the battle, why, this big challenger come out, said, “Now, I defy the armies of Israel.” But it fell on the ears of the wrong man for him then. Yes, sir.

⁹⁰ There was a little ol’ boy there that knowed what he was talking about. He said, “What’s this? You mean to tell me that you’ll stand and let the . . . that uncircumcised Philistine defy the armies of the living God?” Amen. He knowed what he was talking about. Oh, my. Goliath, you made your wrong boast then.

⁹² Some of them said, “Why, he can marry the king’s daughter, and he will give him riches, and his father’s house will be free in Israel, and so forth.”

He said, “What’s this you all talking about now?” My, just a little bitty ol’ fellow, that’s just the way he . . .

⁹⁵ Now, I want you to notice. Then when David, I can just see him walk up there, and he said . . . brought him up before the king. Said, “Now, wait a minute here,” said, “bring that lad up here.” He walked up to him, the day . . . Saul called him a “stripling.” He must’ve been a little bitty ol’ skinny-looking fellow (You know?), little shoulders set in, kind of walking along, little ol' starry eyes looking out to him. He said, "Well, listen, you can't fight that."

⁹⁶ He said, "Let no man's heart faint within him because of this giant." Said, "Your servant will go over and fight him." Oh, my. I like that courage. Don't you? Why? We will see in a minute why he had that courage, what made that difference. Yes, sir. He said, "I will go over and fight that giant."

⁹⁷ And there, Saul, the great big baby, setting up there, pretty near as big as a giant, and supposed to be a king in Israel, and all of this, and then set there afraid to go fight him.

⁹⁸ Puts me in the mind of a lot of these people today, that don't believe in Divine healing. They claim to believe the Bible, and then they'll just let the devil walk over them, anything. I believe in an old-fashion, Holy Ghost experience, borned again, rooted down, twice dead. I—I believe in something that makes a man alive. It puts courage and Fire in him. That's right. It'll make him stand toe-to-toe with the devil on any Divine promise of God and call it the truth, no matter what it looks like. Little ol' David. . .

Why, he said, "You can't do it."

He said, "You let me go."

He said, "Now, how do you know that you can do it?"

⁹⁹ He said, "Looky here. I'm going to tell you something. I've had some experience." That's what it takes today, is somebody has had an experience.

¹⁰⁰ David said, "I've had an experience." Said, "I was keeping my father's sheep out there, and a lion come in, a bear come in, and grabbed a kid, or, little lamb, and run out with it," and said, "I run after him and knocked him in the head with this slingshot, and then when I started to take the lamb out of his mouth, he rose up, and I slew him." He said, "The God that delivered the lion into my hands, and the bear into my hands," he said, "how much more will He deliver that uncircumcised Philistine." That's right.

¹⁰¹ So Saul said, "Come over here and I will make a real ecclesiastical preacher out of you, then." So he gets him over there, and he puts on a big armor, and his helmet, and everything. He pulled down over his little ears, and imagine peeping out the side, and a great big armor on, and he couldn't move. He just couldn't go forward.

that, and take all the preacher there is out of him, then tell him to go. No wonder he can't believe. My goodness, all harnessed up with the world. Hallelujah!

¹⁰⁶ And there, David looked upon the thing, said, "I don't know nothing about this. I don't know how to say, 'Ah-men,' and all the doxologies, and all them things like that. I don't know how you do that." Said, "Let me go with what I have already proven to be right." Hallelujah!

¹⁰⁷ That's what I say. I know when I walked up to my general overseer, told him the Angel of the Lord had met me, he said, "Billy, go home. You had a nightmare." He said, "Why, you mean with seventh grade education, you're going to pray for sick, and go and pray for kings?"

I said, "That's what he said."

Said, "How are you going to do it?"

I said, "I don't know, but it's taken me thus far, He will take me on." God is able, Who's made the promise, it'll do it.

¹⁰⁸ He said, "Aw, son, I think that you'd better go back. You need a rest." I didn't need a rest. I needed to go to work. I'd been resting too long then.

¹¹⁰ We notice there that we find little ol' David, he said, "Now, look. I don't know nothing about your . . . all your degrees, and I don't know nothing about your armors, and all the things that you fellows fight with, and argue about, and fuss with. But I know one thing: I have trusted this little ol' slingshot; God delivered the lion with this slingshot; He delivered all these other things with this slingshot; and God will deliver that uncircumcised Philistine with slingshot."

¹¹¹ I know that when I was sinner, lost, and in the world, dying without Christ, the Holy Ghost saved me. I know when I'm weary, the Holy Ghost makes me happy. I know when I need food, the Holy Ghost feeds me. How much more will the Holy Ghost heal me if I'm sick, after God has promised it. I don't know about your other things, but I do know God has made a promise, and it's God's promise, and God will stick with His promise.

"What's that in your hand David?"

He said, "A slingshot." Amen.

"How you going to fight that giant out there with a fifteen- or twenty-foot spear? You couldn't get near him."

He said, "I proved this. I know what this thing will do."

¹¹² That's right. Oh, ever a man or woman is borned of the Spirit of God, that's ever received the Holy Ghost, they know what That'll do. I don't know what all your arguing and all your schools is going to teach, but I know one thing, that It'll do what God said It would do.

¹¹³ Little David had learned God in the nature way. Being out there, along, he talked about still waters and green pastures. He seen God in His primitive condition, God in His nature, moving.

¹¹⁴ God is in nature. Don't you believe it? Sure He is. I just love to watch Him in the sunset, watch Him in . . . as the growing of the flowers, watch Him when the sun's arising.

¹¹⁵ Here some time ago, I was up in the mountains where I go when I get so tired I can't go along any farther. And I went up there one fall to hunt, and I was hunting elk. It was late in the fall. We was way back up, because the snow hadn't come down to run the herd down. And I was way up the top, or, near the timberline. And in the fall of the year, way up there in the high mountains, it comes, it'll snow awhile, and then rain awhile, and then the sun come out, you know how it is in the fall of the year. And while I was going along, not to shoot the game, no more than just to be away to myself.

¹¹⁶ I like to get away with God. Every man and woman . . . That's the trouble. You ought to spend more time every day, instead of gadding about, and running around, you ought to be out somewhere praying and seeking God. Amen.

¹¹⁷ And up there, I was going along; and it come up a storm, and I got in behind a tree like this. And I was standing behind the tree and the winds blowing. It was a old blowdown there anyhow. So then, after the storm was all over, I come out behind the tree, had my rifle setting down. And I looked over, and I begin to hear the elk herd way ahead of me. They got lost in the storm. They were bugling one to another.

118 My mother is a half Indian, and it, just enough that I just love that outside. Oh, my. As David said, "When the deep begins to call to the deep. . ." And it really begin to call to the deep then.

119 Old gray wolf begin to howl up here, and the mate answer him down in the bottom. I cried like a baby. I couldn't help it, just stand there and bawl with my hands up in the air.

120 I looked out; then the sun come out, way back over here in the western horizon, peeping through, that big all-seeing eye. And over. . . that evergreen had froze over, up there, with the ice. It formed a rainbow down across the valley like that. I thought, "O, God, everywhere you look you can see Him." There He was. I thought He. . . There He is looking over there; He is looking through. There He is in the elk herd, and here He is in down in the wolves hollering. Here He is in nature. I thought, "It's. . ." (like Peter said) "It's good to be here. Let's build three tabernacles."

121 And I got real religious, and I run around and around that tree, shouting to the top of my voice, just screaming and jumping up and down just as hard as I could. If somebody come out there, they'd have wanted to take me to the insane institution, think there's somebody crazy out in the woods. But I was about thirty-five or forty miles from civilization. I was alone with the Lord, having a good time.

122 I looked up, and I seen that, and I thought, "Yeah, that rainbow." God gave that to Noah. "He was to look upon like the rainbow as jasper and sardine stone. The first, the last, the He that was, which is, and shall come, Root and Offspring of David, the Morning Star." And around and around the tree I went again, just as hard as I could go, just screaming to the top my voice.

123 And a little ol' pine squirrel, I don't know whether you brothers ever seen one or not, but a little ol' pine squirrel was setting up there on a stump. He started, "Chat, chat, chat, chatter, chatter, chatter, chatter," like he was going to tear me to pieces. I thought, "What's the little fellow so excited about?" He was just chattering so.

124 And I looked over there, and I thought, "Maybe he's scared of me." And so I happened to look and coming out from under there, the wind had—had forced down a big eagle. And that big eagle, when he come out, that's what the little squirrel was barking at. He jumped out on a limb like that, and the little squirrel jumped back in its chatter-chatter.

¹²⁵ I looked at that big eagle. I thought, “Now, Lord, did I scare that eagle out of there, I was shouting so loud?” So I looked at him and I thought, “Now, You put him here before me, to see, for something. I don’t know why that You presented that eagle before me.”

¹²⁶ I kept looking at him. Oh, he was a big, great big bird. And I noticed his great big velvet-looking eyes looking around. I thought, “Well, there’s one thing I do admire of you, boy: that is, you’re brave, you’re not scared.” And I thought, “Why ain’t you scared? That’s what I want to know. Why are you not scared? Ain’t you scared of me?” And I looked at him, you know, and he’d fluff them feathers back and forth, you know, and walk back and forth on that log, looking around. He look at that pine squirrel and look at me. I said, “Boy, you know I could shoot you?” Just looked over at me and went on, you know, tramping back and forth. He wasn’t bothering him much.

¹²⁷ And I thought, “Why is it that you’re—that you’re not scared?” Then I happened to say, “Now, I’m going to study, Lord, why is it? Now, I see You there in the rainbow; I was hearing the wolf herd; I see You yonder in the sunset. Why? Are You in that eagle?” And I looked at that fellow a little bit. I thought, “Yes, the reason that he’s not scared, he—he’s moving them feathers back and forth. God give him a pair of wings, and he knows that before I could get that rifle in my hand, he’d be in them treetops, and I’d never be able to shoot him.” I said, “Glory to God.” I had another spell. Here I started running. I thought, “That’s right. As long as you can feel the Holy Ghost around you, what difference what takes place? Let everything go, whatever may. Just long as you can feel It around you, know He’s here.”

Someone said, “Brother Branham, ain’t you afraid you’ll make a mistake some night?”

I said, “No, not as long as I can feel Him, no, sir, when He leaves, I’ll leave the platform, but as long as He’s there.”

¹²⁸ I watched that fellow for a few minutes. I just getting off my subject here, but I want to tell you this. When I watched him there a little bit, after a while he got tired of listening to that little old pine squirrel, “Chatter, chatter, chatter, chatter.” And he just made one great big leap like that; he was right up in above them treetops, a couple of flops with his wings. And he never flopped his wings another time, he just knowed how to set his wings. And I watched him. Every time the wind would come in, he’d ride up. Every time the wind would come in, he’d ride up. Just kept on going on and on and on and on, till he become a little speck.

¹²⁹ I stood there and screamed to the top of my voice. I said, “Yes, Lord, that’s it; that’s it. It’s not jump and join the Methodist, and back to the Baptist, and over to the Presbyterian, over to the Pentecostal, Assemblies, Oneness, all around like that. It's just setting your wings." Hallelujah! That's right.

¹³⁰ It's not running from one healing meeting to another. It's not running from one doctor's office to another one. It's knowing how to set your wings of faith into the power of the Holy Ghost; every time It rides in, ride up on It until you can leave this old earthbound chatter, chatter, chatter. This old bunch that says, "The days of miracles is past," and, "That was for people long ago": ride above it. Every time the Holy Ghost waves in, catch your wings into It and move on out of sight, on up into the heavens of Heaven. Leave that old earthbound so-and-so, set back here and saying, "Well, I believe the days of miracles is past. I believe those people are just off at the head that thinks that." Just ride in on above it. Amen. Don't flop and jump, just set your wings. Let the Holy Ghost pick you up, pick you up, pick you up. Just keep on going, till you're out.

¹³¹ Yeah, one day up there I was herding cattle. I happened to notice nothing about a ea- . . . , or, another thing about a eagle: An old mother eagle when she makes her nest, she makes it out of big sticks and things, and it's stinky around one.

¹³² So when the little eagles learns to fly, I was noticing, I hooked, put my horse reins around a limb, went over, and I had some binoculars just watching, I seen that old mother eagle way up there; she was doing something, flopping around in the air, I got my glasses on her and watched her, 'cause we was bringing cattle down. And I looked up in there, and I seen her, how she was getting them little ones out. And she kept rooting them little ol' eagles around and around up there.

¹³³ And after a while, she got them all on her wings; and she just picked them up out of that old stinky nest, and went down into the valley, and she set her big wings down like that, and when she did, all those little eagles got off and begin to walk around there. First time they'd ever had their feet on grass, my, if they wasn't having a big time. I said, "Lord, if that ain't an old-fashion Holy Ghost revival, I never seen one in my life." That's right. I said, "Look at them!"

¹³⁴ Out of that old stinky nest up there, you know, where the old stink and stickers and things, that's the way God does. He lifts you up on the wings of an eagle, and packs you out of the old stinky things of the world into this place where all things are possible, free as you can be. Amen.

¹³⁵ Then I notice them run around, grab a little mouthful of grass here, and run over, grab a little mouthful here, and playing, just having a big time, no condemnation at all. I thought, “Well now, what that old mother going to do?”

¹³⁶ After she seen her little ones begin to play real good and have a good time, she set her wings again, and she went plumb way up to the highest rock that she could get. She set up there and perched herself, begin to look around. Oh, my. I thought, “That’s right. When the Lord Jesus took me out of the miry clay and set me on the Rock, Christ Jesus, He climbed the ramparts of Glory, setting on high, watching down. His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.” No harm, no danger, no nothing else can take place, as long as we’re in His Divine Presence. Amen. Let come, let go what may; even death itself has lost its sting. Cause He’s standing yonder in Glory tonight; His eyes is watching this meeting to see just exactly what will take place, while His little ones are rallying together around the Throne of God, rejoicing in the Word of God, shouting in the Presence of God, oh, my, carefree.

¹³⁷ Them little fellows didn’t look for nothing. Boy, you let a coyote start towards one of them, he’d get the awfulest flogging he ever had in his life. Amen. Oh, my.

¹³⁸ And when she set up there, then after a while, I set there about two hours watching her, a little northerner come across, a little green streak, comes up quick, the storm’s coming. And when she let out a scream, when she left that nest up there, she flew right down like that, let out one scream, and all them little eagles all over the—the little meadow there begin to run together. She threw out her wings like that. Every one of them little eagles just run and jumped up on the wing, put their little bill around a feather like that. She raised those great big master wings, and that storm coming down that hill screaming sixty miles an hour. She went just as straight to the rock as she could and took them to shelter.

¹⁴⁰ David had seen this and he knowed that God was, and God would deliver. He’d seen God in His nature. So he said, “Give me this little slingshot. I’ve tried it. That’s the only thing I know anything about, is this slingshot.”

¹⁴¹ And that’s all a believer knows anything about, “That God said so, and This is the old slingshot. I will trust It any time, against anything that the devil can put out,” (Amen!) “is the Word of God.”

The Word of God alone will defeat Satan any place, any time, on any conditions, if a man or woman will dare to take It, God, at His Word. Amen.

And I can see him then, as he said, “Well, go ahead. The Lord be with you.”

¹⁴² He reached down there and hunted him out in the old valley and got him five little rocks, and he put them in his little scrip bag. He put one down in his sling and walked out there to meet Goliath. And Goliath looked at him and said, “Am I dog?” Why, he cursed him in the name of his gods. He said, “I will take you, you little weasely-looking, holy-roller, you, and stick this spear in you, and hang you up here and let the birds eat on you for a while.” Yes, sir.

You say, “David wasn’t a holy-roller.” Yes, he was; what you call a holy-roller.

When the Ark of the Lord begin to come in, he went out and danced before the Ark just as hard as he could; and his wife made fun of him.

¹⁴³ Said, “You don’t like that, watch this.” And down and around and around and around and around the Ark he went again. If that ain’t a modern holy-roller, I never seen one in my life. Sure he was. Amen.

Someone said, “Brother Branham you got some of that there new kind of religion, haven’t you?”

I said, “No, I got a good dose of the old kind.” Amen.

Said, “I said, I mean that shouting religion.”

¹⁴⁴ I said, “That’s the oldest religion was ever known.” I said, “God asked Job, ‘Where was you when I laid the foundation of the worlds, when the morning stars sang together, and the sons of God shouted for joy?’ ten thousand years before the world was ever formed.” Amen. Going to call me “holy-roller” anyhow, so you might as well get ready, get used to it.

¹⁴⁵ Notice, brethren, let me tell you something. David knew, and he got that old slingshot wrapped up. He went out, and he said, “You meet me as a Philistine, in the name of a Philistine, with an armor and with a spear, but I meet you in the Name of the Lord God of Israel of the very army that you defied.” And said, “This day I will give your carcass to the birds and the animals of the field. And I’ll take all the flesh of these Philistines. . . .” Then he . . . and the old guy started after him.

¹⁴⁶ Now, look at David, when he run over this little brook, crossed over to meet him. And when he did, what did he have in his hand? Here’s what David had: He had five rocks, F-A-I-T-H, in five fingers wrapped around J-E-S-U-S; here he comes, five rocks in five fingers; faith in the Lord Jesus. And that rock went straight to the skull of that old giant, and David downed him, and cut his head off. And when he did, he looked around; and all the rest of them seen what was done, they took courage and drew their swords and begin to fight Philistines to the wall, cut them down.

¹⁴⁷ Here a few years ago, when I first started, there wasn't hardly anybody preaching on Divine healing. When they seen Congressman Upshaw and many of them healed, I tell you: Presbyterians, and Methodists, and Assemblies of God, and all of them, they got them one; and the others got them one; the Church of God got one; Oral Roberts; and the other one got somebody else; and brother we've been cutting Philistines from right to the left. Hallelujah! Because every heart's taking courage tonight, and the half has never yet been told. For Jesus Christ, the Son of God, has promised.

What is it in your hand tonight? Whatever you got, use it for the glory of God.

¹⁴⁸ I can see a fellow down there by the name of Samson. He got out there one day, and the Philistines had done a little harm over there; tied some foxes' tails together, and burnt up all their corn. So those Israelites come and got him, said, "We got to deliver you up to the Philistines."

¹⁴⁹ And they took him over there, and tied him with some bands, and brought him down there. And the Philistines was going to mistreat him, and when he did, the Spirit of the Lord come on him. Amen. That's what made the difference. When he felt the Spirit of the Lord come on him, he didn't have nothing in his hand. And he looked down and there laid a jawbone of a mule. And he picked up that jawbone in his hand and killed a thousand Philistines. Amen. That's all he had.

¹⁵⁰ He didn't have to go forward and say, "Now, wait. Let me take this jawbone down and let me test it and see if it'll stand the pressure or not." He didn't have time to think of all those things. The emergency was on. The Philistines was on him. The only thing he could do was pick up a jawbone and fight. That's all there was.

¹⁵¹ And tonight, you ain't got time to run away and figure out all this stuff. The revival will be over tomorrow night. Let's pick up God's Word, That's in your hand, let's fight our mortal enemy. Amen.

God give him the victory.

¹⁵² There was a little ol' fellow down there in the Bible by the name of Shamgar. Might not even never noticed him in the Book of Judges, just a little ol' fellow. Let's take a little drama to him.

153 I can see him over there, a poor little fellow. It was a time when everybody did what they wanted to. And Israel had no king. They was all separated, divided out, little groups, just about like the church is today.

154 One's Assembly. The other is a Church of God. The other is a Oneness. The other one is a Baptist. The other one is a Presbyterian. One is a Methodist. Oh, my. If we don't like it here, we go over here, and over here, and over here, and . . . Oh, my. I—I—I don't get it, myself.

155 And then when they come in there. And oh, what they needed was . . . just what they needed then, was a good old-fashion, kind of a liberation; is what we need today (Amen.), the church back to the faith of the living God, back to the promise of God, back to the glory of God, back to the power of God.

156 Shamgar had got all his stuff put up, his wheat, like he did every year. And about time he'd get the crops put up, then along would come the Philistines and take it away from him. That's just the way the devil does. Just about what the devil is good for. Just about time you get a little courage built up, or something another, then along comes the devil and takes it away from you. That's right.

157 Just like the revival that's going on now. Just about time you get it started, and the glory of God begins to fall, then some quack has to come up, and do something that's not right, and take the glory out of the thing.

158 Here not long ago, I went down, here was one of our Christian sisters, painted up like a Jezebel. I said, "What's the matter?"

She said, "Well, glory to God." Said, "My pastor told me it was liberation of women."

159 Liberation of women! What's the matter with you? No such a thing as that. Christ liberated you from sin, then act like it and dress like it. About time the church gets built up and get a good start, then something like that has set in. Yes, sir.

160 She said, "Well, I tell you." Said, "My pastor told me I could do all this . . ." And had enough paint on to paint a barn. Her—her fingers looked like she'd been eating raw beefsteak and blood over her fingernails.

I thought, "Woman, you don't look like a Christian to me."

161 Listen, lady, don't you let that kind of nonsense be poured down your throat. A good old-fashion case of the baptism of the Holy Ghost will take that out of you just exactly like . . . ? . . . Right. Just remember you've lost some ground somewhere. I don't care what that woman preacher . . . She wasn't ordained of God, I'll tell you that in the first place. That's right. It's a contrary to the Word.

Listen. There never was but one woman in the Bible that ever painted herself up to meet a man, and that was Jezebel. God fed her to the dogs.

¹⁶² So if you see a woman all painted up, you just say, "Howdy do, Miss Dog-meat." That's what God made out of her, just an old dog-meat. So don't you pay any attention to that; that's of the devil; right. Wash up, and clean up, and act right, like Jacob said to his wife and daughter: "Make yourself like what you ought to be." Amen.

¹⁶³ What we need tonight, is a good old-fashion, Holy Ghost revival, preached back with the power of God moving in and out amongst the church, and the starch and collars taken down. Hallelujah! Yes, sir. That's what we need. Yes, sir, all right.

¹⁶⁴ Ol' Shamgar down there, about time he got something built up, then something like that had to happen. That's the way the church, when the revival gets started, then something like that has to raise up. Brother, just preach the old-fashion . . .

¹⁶⁵ Well, we used to have a lot of sheep in our country. And they had a sheep-killing dog; we caught him with the wool in his teeth, we took the old shotgun, both barrels, and turned it on him. Brother that's the thing to turn on them kind of guys is the old shotgun, both barrels of it. Tell you, it'll straighten things out. Sure will; will stop your sheep killing. Amen. I didn't know I was going to say that, but you can just remember that. All right, think of it.

¹⁶⁶ My, and there, about time he got his wheat in and everything, here come the big ol' fat Philistines, up and take it away from him. Right on up the road, take it away from him.

¹⁶⁷ One day, he just got his crop all laid in and all thrashed out. There he was, poor little fellow; he stood down there at the garner, was looking around. He said, "Well, mother, perhaps maybe we will . . . we can live this winter, us and the kiddies." Looking around.

170 That's about like some of the Christians look tonight. A puny-looking thing to be called a believer, a borned-again Christian. Amen. Not enough faith to dot an i if it was ink. That's right. Oh, my.

171 Don't let the devil come over and take the glory of God out the church, send your pastor away and let him get all these here D.D.'s and come back, and stand up and say "amen" like a dying calf. What you need is an old-fashion, backwood, sky-blue, sin-killing religion of a preacher, that will preach the truth and stand on what God said that is the truth, and liberate the people. Amen.

172 I'm not rude. I don't mean to be, but brother it's time we brought . . . made black, "black," and white, "white." Yes, sir. You'll get God in your camp, and you'll hear the shout again in the camp of the King, when you get the thing fixed up. Amen.

173 Now, notice. And here was the little ol' Shamgar standing, looking out the window, here come these Philistines. Said, "Oh, mother, looky there."

174 His poor little girl crying. I can see her put her hands down, say, "Daddy, we won't have nothing to eat this winter." And then I notice mother, and there she starts crying.

175 You know, Shamgar looked around. He just didn't know what to do. He looked around. He said, "I couldn't fight. I'm not a fighter, and I—I ain't got time to go out, and learn how to duel, and take all these exercises and things. I—I haven't got time to do that."

176 But he happened to look, set in the corner, there stood an old ox goad. You know what a ox goad is? It's a big old stick with a brass end on it to knock the . . . to punch the cattle through the gate with, for one thing, and then knock the dirt off the plow when they was plowing with it. An old ox goad laying there, that was the only thing that he could put in his hand. But you know what? I don't say he got angered, but his righteous indignation got up. Yes, sir. Brother, I will tell you he dro- . . .

"What's in your hand?"

177 "Nothing but an ox goad." And he said, "I'm not a fighter. I—I can't do this. I—I haven't got any training." But he didn't have time to do any training. The only thing he needed was the Spirit of God on him. He jumped out that window with the Spirit of God on him and took that ox goad and killed six hundred Philistines. Amen.

178 What we need today, is not go away at the seminary and learn whether Mark 16 is right or not. Brother, the people are dying. The thing we've got to do is get out right now. It ain't whether you'll duel or not; it's rise. Yes, sir.

179 He knew that he was a Philistine, he knew that them was Philistines uncircumcised. As sure as I know that sickness, as long as you know you got heart trouble, whatever your trouble is, we know it's of the devil. And he knowed that he was an Israelite. He knowed that he was circumcised. He knowed he had a right to the promise. He knowed that God would promise to bless him. So he got all angry with it, and picked up the ox goad, and went to work.

180 What we need tonight, is to believe, my brother, that you are God's child, and you got a right to it, and the promise is yours. Whatever is in your hand, pick it up, go to slaying the devil from one side to the other one. Amen. And you'll find out that the feathers will go to flying, the devil will be defeated, and you'll come forth whole again.

181 What's that in your hand? You say, "Brother Branham, I ain't got nothing in my hand." You might have a prayer card. Drop the thing on the ground, and rise in the Name of Jesus Christ, and say, "I take Christ as my Healer tonight." Hallelujah!

182 You may have a little catechism sticking on your arm, and wanting to check up on me to see if I'm right or not. Throw the thing away, and rise in the Name of Jesus Christ, and get baptized with the Holy Ghost, and go forth in the camp. Amen. Yes, sir. You might have a bunch of little creeds you have to repeat in the morning 'fore you go to church, and learn them, so you can say them. Throw the thing away and get a filling of the heart of the Holy Ghost. Amen. Drop the thing and take what's in your hand. Whatever is in your hand, take it, and do the best you can with it for the glory of God. Amen. My goodness. I was . . . Here it is, oh, ten o'clock nearly. Let's pray.

183 Our Heavenly Father, there isn't much in our hand; but God it isn't what's in our hand, it's what You can put in our hand. O God, we need faith tonight. Take this little message tonight, Lord, and put it in the heart of every believer, and let them know that no matter how weak the person is, they still have Christ at hand. And I ask that You'll grant these blessings, save the lost, fill with the Holy Ghost those who are outside of Christ, and get glory out of the service. In Jesus' Name, I ask it.

184 With your heads bowed, I wonder while we make this altar call just a moment . . . I know this is old-fashion, rough, scoured-down, scaled-out preaching, sassafras as it can be, but brother you need it sometime. That's right. You need it.

185 Now, I wonder if there's anybody here tonight, not with some pathetic story to cry and go on . . . Listen, there'll be more people deceived on that than anything I know of. I'm not going to Heaven because my mother went there. I'm going because Jesus Christ died that I could go there. I want to see my mother, sure. But I've got to come to Christ, not because my mother went, but because I come as a sinner, confess my sin, accept God's provided way. That's right.

186 Now, are you, tonight, saying, "I am a sinner, preacher, and I want you to remember me in prayer. I raise up my hand to you to ask that you'll remember me in prayer as a sinner"? Will you put your hands up, anywhere in the audience? God bless you all around. My, my, my. Way up in the ring around the balcony, is anywhere up in there? Yes, I see your hands. All the way around, God sees them too. Certainly He does.

187 Immediately after the service, I want you to come down here and make a confession, give your heart to Christ, and serve the Lord with all your heart.

188 Heavenly Father, as the night is growing on, little sick children setting around. I pray, dear God, that Your mercies will be shed abroad in our hearts just now. May this little text of What Is That In Your Hand? . . . To Moses, nothing but a dry stick; to David, nothing but two little strings with a piece of leather in it, a slingshot; to Samson, nothing but a dry bone of a mule's jaw (O God!); Shamgar, not e . . . nothing but a ox goad in his hand, a stick with a little piece of brass on the end of it, and he slew six hundred Philistines, not a warrior, not a fighter, but a man in the covenant.

189 O Heavenly Father, won't You tonight, Lord, take each one into Your hand? Grant it, Lord, and open faith to their heart, and may Thy Holy Spirit do the exceedingly abundantly tonight, Lord, as they're waiting.

190 Last night, so happy to see You make the blind to see, and the deaf to hear, and the sinners to come to Thee. And O God, all these great things that You did, the paralyzed to untwist and come out of them chairs, and walk around in the Name of the Lord.

191 O Lord God, You're great. And we thank Thee for it, and we pray that You'll save every one tonight who put up their hands. May they never be lost, but may this be the night that they'll receive You. Literally a hundred or two put up their hands, and I pray that You'll save every one of them for Jesus' sake. For it's in His Name we ask it. Amen. [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

192 . . . They sent a million Bibles down to these Jews. They just come in from down in Iran there, Iran, Iraq, and down in the countries there. You read it, read in them magazines how the . . . brought in millions of Jews. We had time to go into the prophetic thing. . . And those Jews coming back, I've got a picture of them coming in there, where took it, coming off of ships, coming off of planes, packing their lame, and their halt, and their blind.

¹⁹³ So they walked up to them, the man that taken this picture, Brother Arganbright and them, which is due here in the meeting, he'd asked them, he said, "What are you all coming back for?"

"It's the homeland."

Said, "So that you can have a place of your own, to die in the homeland?"

They said, "No. We're coming back to see the Messiah."

¹⁹⁴ Oh, you prophecy teachers, if you only knew what that was. When this Gospel ever turns from the Gentile to the Jew, the Gentile is finished. It's the end time.

¹⁹⁵ And so they gave them Bibles. They sent a million in there. Those Jews begin to read those testaments. They read it over. They never knowed Jesus was here. They never heard anything about it, been down there since the Babylonian carry-away, captivity. And they said, "If this Jesus, you call, be the Messiah, let us see Him do the sign of the prophet, like He did here in this Bible, and we will accept Him. We will all accept Him, if He will come and do the sign of the prophet. We will accept Him."

Brother, oh, my, I was in a couple hundred miles of it a few weeks ago, but the Holy Spirit constrained me, "Not just yet."

¹⁹⁶ Oh, how I would like to grow out a few million of them, and say, "I challenge that in the Name of the Lord Jesus, if He won't do the sign of the prophet: how many of you here on this same grounds will accept Him as personal Saviour?" And then when they do that, I'll say, "This same grounds right here is where your early fathers received the baptism of the Holy Ghost, and the same signs that Jesus done will repeat again just exactly like you read it in the Bible."

They don't want to have . . . Their God is a powerful God. Their God don't die. He's the same yesterday, today, and forever, and they believe it.

¹⁹⁷ Notice. When Jesus was here on earth, He did not claim to be a healer. Many people come to Him that didn't get healed. Many times perhaps He was taken to the dead. I imagine there's thousands died while He was here on earth. He never raised but three; that's a confirmation. He passed through the pool of Bethesda where people were laying lame, halt, blind, and withered, never healed a one of them, went over to a man laying on a pallet and healed him, walked away left the rest of them laying there.

198 A Man full of virtue, full of faith, God Himself, Emmanuel, here on earth, dwelling among us, He said, "I do nothing of Myself." When they questioned Him in Saint John 5:19, He said, "Verily, verily I say unto you, the Son can do nothing in Himself, but what He sees the Father doing, that doeth the Son likewise." Now, chase His Life through the Bible, and find out if it wasn't every time what the Father showed Him. Jesus said, "It's not Me that doeth the works, it's My Father that dwelleth in Me, He doeth the works."

199 When Philip got converted, went and found Nathanael, brought him back, what happened? He said, "Come, see Who we've . . . I've found, Jesus of Nazareth, Son of Joseph."

He said, "Could anything good come out of Nazareth?"

200 When he come to see Jesus, he walked up in the line about like out there. Jesus looked at him. He might have been in the prayer line, for all I know. But he come to where Jesus was, praying for the sick. He said to him, when He looked at him, Jesus looked over at him, said, "Behold an Israelite, in whom there's no guile."

Oh, he said, "How did You know me, Rabbi?" Astonished him.

"Why," He said, "before Philip called you, when you were under the tree, I saw you."

He said, "Thou art the Son of God; Thou art the King of Israel."

201 He went up through the way of Samaria. He was going to Jericho, but went up around Samaria, way up over the hill. He set down, sent His disciples away. A Samaritan woman come out. He seen her there drawing water. The Father had told Him to go up there. Didn't tell Him what was going to happen, just, "Go up there."

So He got the woman up there, and He said, "Bring Me a drink."

She said, "It's not customary for Jews to ask Samaritans such. We have no dealing."

202 He said, "But if you knew Who You were talking to, you'd ask Me for a drink." What did He do? Kept carrying a conversation, till He caught her spirit; then when He caught her spirit, what was wrong with her, said, "Go, get your husband."

She said, "I have none."

Said, "You said well. For you got five, and the one you have now is not yours."

She said, "I perceive that You're a Prophet." She said, "Now, I know when Messiah cometh, He will do these things, but Who are You?"

He said, "I am He that speaks to you."

And she run into the city, said, "Come, see a Man that told me everything I ever done. Isn't this the Messiah?"

203 Now, if that Jesus is the same Jesus today, He could do the same thing today, and as God reveals, He can do the same thing. Is that right?

204 Now, looky here last night. There was men and women setting here down in this row, here, paralyzed, setting in wheelchairs. Tonight they're out there in the congregation, wherever they are, walking around. Why? Jesus Christ.

205 There was men, women come to the platform, sin in their life. The Holy Spirit went right down, tell them just what it was and what they must do. They were healed, standing right there on the platform, give their hearts to Christ. If that isn't Jesus Christ of the Bible, I don't know the Bible.

206 What about it ministers? Does that sound like Christ of the Bible? Now, it isn't man; it's Christ. Now, if He will return tonight here, and produce the same thing that He did when He was here on earth, will you all accept Him then as Saviour, as Healer, and believe Him with all your heart? If you will, will you raise your hands? God bless you.

207 Our Heavenly Father, now it's, this is all I know to do. The rest is to Thee, my dear beloved Saviour, and I pray that You'll grant the blessings, through Jesus' Name. Amen.

208 Now, we took up all the prayer cards last night. I believe they give out some new ones today. If the boy . . . I see he was here a while ago. And what was . . . ? O's? All right, let's start and line up some of them, then.

209 Who has number one? O, look at your prayer card and you'll find it, if you are, you may come over. Is this lady here . . . ? All right, yes, just come up, lady, right here. It's kind of little difficult. I will probably have to call just one or two.

210 Who has O, number two? Would you raise up your hand, ever who has number two? The lady back there, would you come, lady, if you will? Who has O, number three? Would you raise up your hand? Ever who has O, number three, would you raise your hand? Back here, sir? Sorry. All right, would you come up there? Number two and number three, now number four. Who has O, number four? Would you raise your hand? You, sir? Would you come down here? All right.

211 Number five. Who has O, number five? You have it, lady? Would you come down here? Number six, who has number six? Would you raise your hand? Number six? Some of you, a usher, come here and wa . . . , or catch these here in these chairs. [A brother speaks to Brother Branham—Ed.] (Whatever. I'm sorry.) All right, that's fine. All right, number . . . What was I . . . ? Five? Who . . . Six? Who has seven? Prayer card seven, would you raise your hand right . . . ? Seven, the lady there. Eight, would you raise your hand, quickly? Eight, nine, would you raise your hand right away? Nine? All right, ten? And . . .

²¹² Now, as they line up. Now, how many in this audience, around everywhere now, I want to ask you. Now, this old-fashion, sassafras preaching may be rough as it can be, but, brother, that's all I know. That's what saved me. And that's all I know. I . . . All I know, I don't want to offend you, but I sure would rather offend you a little now, to get you right with God; and know I have to stand there that Day, and you point your finger in my face, and say, "Why didn't you tell me the truth?" See? I'd rather have it fixed up now, wouldn't you, all settled?

²¹³ Now, how many here doesn't have a prayer card and wants to be prayed for? Would you raise up your hand? Just raise up your hand, don't have a prayer card, but yet you believe that God would heal you. May the Lord Jesus in His mercy ever bless you. All right.

²¹⁴ Now, if we will just be reverent for a few moments, let's see if they're line . . . You . . . well, that, we're at about as many as you can get in that line, I suppose. All right, we will pray for a few right here now, and then the . . . We will wait just a—a little bit to see wherever the . . . our precious, Heavenly Father will lead. Now, I want you to believe with all your heart.

²¹⁶ Now, along this prayer line here, just a few, and maybe we can stand up a few more, in a moment. I want to ask you along there. Are you all strangers to me in the prayer line? If you are, raise your hands; all of you strangers. Are you all strangers out there? Raise your hands, everywhere in the . . . Is there . . . ? All strangers. Then I don't know you. I know nothing of you, but I want to ask you something. Just make this just on the Bible.

²¹⁷ Now, what if Jesus was standing here, wearing this suit that He gave me? Now, what—what if He was standing here? What would He do with this situation tonight? What if—if someone out there would come and say, "Jesus will You heal me?" You know what He would say to you?

²¹⁸ He'd say, "I already done it. Don't you believe it?" Is that right? What He done at Calvary, He can't do no more. See? He—He healed you at Calvary. He saved you at Calvary.

219 Now, you say, “I was saved two years ago, Brother Branham.” Well, you wasn’t saved two . . . You was saved nineteen hundred years ago. You accepted it two years ago.

220 Jesus paid for your sins when He died at Calvary. He paid for your sickness when He died at Calvary. So therefore, if God, in His mercy, did that, the only thing He could do now, would either, pick up the Bible, preach the Word, or He might be able to speak with a language that would be interpreted by somebody else and tell somebody something to do. Or, Him being the Prince of prophets, He could, perhaps, stand here like He did in the Bible time, and your faith could come over and touch Him till virtue would go out of Him, and He’d turn around, say, “Who touched Me?” And He’d look around and tell you just exactly what happened. Is that right? Is that Jesus?

221 Then if this lady setting here in the chair would come up here, and Jesus would know her, I don’t know her. God knows that. I’ve never seen her in my life. But what I’m trying to get at you, friends, so you’ll always remember . . .

222 Now, when Jesus did those things, what did Philip say He was? The Son of God. What did the woman say He was? The very Messiah, because He did it. But what did the Jews say He was? Said, “He’s a fortuneteller. He’s the devil. He’s Beelzebub, the prince of all the fortunetellers.” See? They knowed He knew what was wrong with them. He knew their hearts. He knew their troubles, for the Father showed Him what He wanted Him to know. You see what I mean? Now, that’s Jesus tonight, the same.

223 All right, now, be reverent wherever you are, and now this ought to settle it, once forever.

224 Would you bring that lady here, or tell her come here? Come here. I just . . . Now, lady, I just want you to stand there; that’s all to do, just . . . That’s all I ask you to do, just stand there.

225 Now, I don’t know you. You don’t know me. You just raised your hand you didn’t know me, and I don’t know you. But God knows both of us, sister, and He, and He . . . I hesitated about that “sister” for a minute, you see, to say that, but I realize now you are. Now, see, it’s first—first thing I know that you’re a Christian, because as soon as I caught your spirit, it come in like that, that you was a Christian. See? Your spirit was welcome. If it kept turning dark and cloudy, I’d knowed you wasn’t; see, and therefore, I wouldn’t have called you my sister. So then, but you are a Christian. Now, that much . . .

Now that’s—now that’s just what Philip said to Nathanael.

When he came up, He said, “Behold an Israelite, or a believer, in whom is no guile.”

²²⁶ He said, “How did you know I was an Israelite, a true believer?” See? That’s the same spirit. That woman could’ve been a rank sinner, but I know she’s a Christian. See? Because the first thing, her spirit, when this anointing that’s here now, it caught right quick. You see? I seen it was a Christian, it made It welcome. See? So she . . . I know she’s a Christian.

²²⁷ Now, if I don’t know the woman, she don’t know me, if the Holy Spirit will reveal to her what she’s here for . . . ? Now, of course, longer I talk to her, more It would say. You know that night after night.

²²⁸ But if It would just tell her what she’s here for, would the whole group of you believe that I’ve told the truth, that would be God saying it’s the truth? Now, a man can come by here and tell you anything in the world, make up some kind of fanaticism, do anything he wants to, that . . . he could do that, tell you that. That don’t make it so. But when God comes back around and says that’s the truth, then you’d better believe it. Cause that—that . . . not to believe that is sin.

²³⁰ Now, I just want to talk to you just a moment, by you being the first patient. And I want every person, no matter where you are and what’s wrong with you, you look this way, and you say, “Now, Lord Jesus if You . . . I know that man up there, he’s just a man. And if—and if You’ll just let me—let me have faith, and let my faith be built just to the place like the lady will be . . .” And then watch what God will do, and then you accept Him as your Healer or as your Saviour, whatever you have need of.

Now, to talk to you, lady. There’s people pretty near all around tonight. I’ve just got to single you out; spirits from everywhere.

233 But immediately . . . Now, if—if the audience is still hearing my voice, the lady is moving away from me, and she's—she's a lady. That woman, who's standing before me has just recently been in a hospital, and that's just been in hours ago. She was just dismissed from the hospital today, or, this afternoon; seven o'clock tonight, when she come out of the hospital. She has a rare blood disease, coupled with a mental nervous condition. Just go on your road, sister, your faith heals you, you make yourself well. Amen.

234 You believe? All your heart now, have faith; don't doubt. If thou canst believe, all things are possible; but you got to believe. Now, just have faith out there and you shall have what you ask for.

Little lady setting there in the pink coat with that bladder trouble, just . . . you been healed. God bless you.

Lay your hand over on the lady next to you, 'cause she suffers with a nervous condition, on this side over there.

235 Our Heavenly Father, her faith touched, I got weak. I seen the Light of You hanging over her. I pronounce them well in the Name of Jesus Christ the Son of God. Amen.

See, you don't need prayer card. You have faith; believe that God has said truth. For He's nothing but Truth; He's the resource of all truth.

Now, just be reverent. Just believe with all your heart. You should . . . you can have what you—what you ask for if you'll just believe it.

Now, is this . . . ? This is the patient? Huh. I'm not beside myself, but the world will never know, sister, what a feeling it is.

236 Now, are . . . We do—do not know each other. We're strange to each other, and I am your brother in the Lord Jesus, and we are here trying to help one another. If I could—if I could help you and wouldn't do it, I'd be a brute, if I could help you. But there's nothing in me that I could help, except God would let me know what to do. So if He will reveal to me why you're standing here, will you accept it, then, as truth if it's finances or whatever it is? You'll believe that God is interested in your case and is going to hear? You'll do it?

237 May the Lord grant it, is my prayer, as you look at me. Not, you know like Peter and John passed through the gate called Beautiful said, "Look on us." See? "Look on us." Not look to them as Him, but just to give attention to what they're saying, catch the attraction of the Spirit.

238 I see that you had some trouble with a eyes condition, and I see a doctor that's examining it. And he consulted another man, and that man, they don't know what's wrong with your eyes. They can't say.

They can't put their hand on it, what it is. And then, I see them giving you some kind of a something down in the stomach here, or something, it's a fallen stomach. You have a fallen stomach. The doctors has give you up in them regards. And you are not from—you're not from this city. You come from up the road this way: Atlanta. And the doctor said, "Miss Trudy," or something like that, he called you. That's right. You return home now and be well. Your faith makes you well. God bless you. Have faith.

²³⁹ You the father of the child? Have faith in God. Don't doubt, but believe, if thou canst believe. . . Now, remember, this is not me. Hear to it; it's not. Now, your attitude towards it, call it what you wish to; that'll determine what you get from it. Depends on how you approach it.

²⁴⁰ The woman touched His garment; she had virtue come to her. The man who smacked Him on the face, and hit Him with a reed, and said, "Prophecy and say who hit you," there was no virtue to that.

²⁴² While the Holy Spirit is moving there, there's a man setting right behind you, setting there with an arthritis. You believe, sir, that the Lord Jesus will make you well? You believe it? Yes, sir, you do? All right, sir. You can have your healing then. God bless you. Kind of shocks you, didn't it?

²⁴⁵ Now, here, it looks like you could see that, Christian friends. See that Light whirling? He's standing right here. It's coming right over that . . . setting right there, you got varicose veins, setting right there. You believe Jesus going to make you well with those veins, heal you? You believe it with all your heart? If you do, you can have your healing. God bless you.

²⁴⁶ Excuse me, sir. You believe me to be His servant? You—you come with your baby, mighty sweet little baby. I don't know you. You know that. I'm a total stranger to you. I never seen you, I suppose, in my life, sir. We're totally strange to each other, but God knows both of us, doesn't He, sir? You got your little baby, and I can see that baby coming from being examined. And the doctor says there's no hope for it. That baby is suffering with cancer in the blood, called "leukemia." That's right. There's not a hope in the world for it.

²⁴⁷ And my brother, the father of that baby, you need the Lord Jesus Christ as your Saviour, don't you? You're a sinner. Will you accept Him now as your Saviour? You . . . Will you raise your hand, say, "Lord, I accept You"? Now, put your hand right over on your baby.

²⁴⁸ Almighty God, in the Name of Jesus Christ, I now rebuke this devil that's killing this baby. May pardon and grace come to this father, and may they go, and live, and be happily together, in Jesus' Name. Amen. God bless you. Your sins are gone. Have faith in God now. Amen.

²⁴⁹ Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you can be made well. You believing?

²⁵⁰ What do you think, sir? You believe me as God's servant? Your trouble is in your back, it's a spinal condition. That's right, isn't it? You're having hopes tonight that you can get saved, and another thing, you got a habit you want deliverance from, isn't it? smoking cigarettes. Will you give them up right now? Raise your hand, say, "God, this finishes it." On your road, and your back trouble will be well, in Jesus' Name.

²⁵¹ Let's say, "Praise be to God." Death lingers near, so does life.

Do you believe that Christ could heal you of this horrible demon? You believe He will take it away from you and make you well of this cancer?

Almighty God, the Author of Life, the Giver of every good gift, send Thy blessings upon the woman and heal her in Jesus' Name, I pray.

Satan, I rebuke thee in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Go on your road rejoicing now.

²⁵² Just a minute. What do you think, sir, setting there in that wheelchair? Are you believing? You believe Jesus will make you well? Kind of struck you then, didn't it? You realize something happened.

You believe me to be His servant? Will you obey me as His prophet? Then you can get up out your wheelchair, and push it, and go home. Jesus Christ will make you well. Don't be scared; believe.

²⁵³ And the rest of you, while he's coming out. You can do the very same thing. There he is, yes, sir. Do you want to stand up? Every one of you stand to your feet right at this time.

Almighty God, Author of Life, Giver of every good gift, send Thy Spirit upon these people, and heal them, every one.

Satan, I condemn thee, in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ come out of this people.

Every one of you stand to your feet, everywhere, and give God praise. The Holy Ghost . . . ? . . .
